F5 Freedom Fighter On Trial in Viet Nam

By JOHN T. WHEELER

A revolutionary light plane that won't soon be seen in Viet Nam - a plane that has been demonstrated by Air Force pilots - is getting a thorough going-over by Viet Cong soldiers.

The plane was introduced recently by Air Force officials in the south of Viet Nam, but its capabilities are not yet known to the Viet Cong.

The plane is a two-seat, single-engine, lightweight, high-speed fighter that can be used for a variety of purposes.

It is believed that the plane was developed for use by Viet Cong soldiers.

The plane has a top speed of 350 miles per hour and a range of 600 miles.

It is carried by a special transport plane that can land on any rough road.

The plane can also be used for training purposes.

The plane is powered by a 200-horsepower engine.

Tires Blow Out On Two Vehicles; They Collide

A rapid-fire burst of tire blowouts has given testimony to the theory that winter driving on the area roads is a dangerous game.

As the Yeowood car piled into the bank near the railroad bridge, the tire blowouts began. The car was driven by Charles R. Yeowood.

The Yeowood car piled on the back of the other car, which was driven by Henry L. Anderson. Anderson had been on his way to work in Faribault when the other car hit him.

Both cars were driven into the river by the blowouts, and the drivers were taken by a rescue boat to the shore.

British Troops Prepared for Trip to Zambesi

LONDON (Special)- The British military authorities have announced that a troop transport has left for the Zambesi River, where the troops will be used in the fighting against the German colonial forces.

The transport, which carries about 1,000 men, will reach the Zambesi by the end of the month. The troops are equipped with the latest weapons and are ready to fight.

Father Jailed For Support Count

The arrest of Father John J. O'Brien today has caused widespread concern among the people in the area.

O'Brien, a well-known figure in the community, was arrested for supporting the count against the school board.

The count, which was held to determine whether the school board's budget was too high or too low, was the subject of much debate in the community.

Father O'Brien, who has been a leader in the community for many years, has always been known for his opposition to the school board's policies.

He was arrested after he spoke at a meeting in support of the count.

The case is now in court, and a decision will be made soon.

Wisconsin Law Bans Garbage As Hog Feed

The Wisconsin legislature has passed a law that bans the use of garbage as hog feed.

The law, which was introduced by Representative John Smith, was passed by a vote of 50-40.

The law is intended to protect the health of the citizens of Wisconsin and to prevent the spread of disease.

The law also requires that all hog feed be treated before it is used.

Hog producers are allowed to use garbage as hog feed, but only if it is treated.

See Santa at the Miracle Mall

On Saturday, December 19, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Santa will be at the Miracle Mall to meet children and distribute gifts.

The mall will be decorated in holiday decorations, and there will be a special area for children to sit on Santa's lap.

The event is free, and all children are welcome to attend.

Holyman to Pay Youth Asks Trial

On Two Charges

A youth who was arrested for two charges of property damage is asking for a trial by jury.

The youth, who is a member of a local gang, was arrested for damaging property and for possession of a firearm.

The youth's attorney has filed a motion for trial by jury, and a hearing will be held soon to determine whether the case will be tried by a jury or by a judge.

The case is now in court, and a decision will be made soon.

Lincoln School Clubs

The Lincoln School Club is planning a series of events to raise money for the school.

The club will be hosting a bake sale, a car wash, and a raffle.

The events will be held during the school day, and all students are encouraged to participate.

The club is hoping to raise enough money to buy a new playground for the school.

Delinquent City Payments in Tax Settlement

The largest sum — $372,287 at a 6%/12.5% property tax settlement received by the city this year — has gone to the general fund, according to the city manager.

The settlement also included $41,419.23 in delinquent assessments and penalties for late payment of taxes. When unpaid tax accounts are exercised, warned the city manager, city officials do not have the ability to file suit within 60 days or appeal payment over 3 years by legal contract. One date for tax sales, which are called property tax sales, had been set for Dec. 6.

Shoplifter Called 'Despicable Snack Thief'

The CHRISTMAS season, with its infinite significance and spiritual splendor, is always a time for giving and sharing. This year, Tom and Edger Climax, directors of the Fillmore County Arts and Schools, have asked to receive the freshest and finest gifts in the world—gifts that will reflect in their lives and the lives of others. These gifts are not to be found in stores, but in the hearts and souls of people who choose to give them.

"Each year during the holidays, I try to find the perfect gift for someone special. This year, I decided to make a gift that would truly make a difference. I decided to make a gift that is available to all, not just the wealthy. I decided to make a gift that would help others. I decided to make a gift that is free—because everyone deserves to experience the joy of giving."

The Climaxes have gathered a group of artists, writers, and performers to come together in celebration of the season. They will perform a series of concerts, readings, and workshops, all of which are free to the public. The goal is to create a community of giving, where everyone can participate in the spirit of Christmas.

"We believe that giving is not just something we do for others—it is something we do for ourselves. By giving, we create a sense of connection and community. We create a sense of purpose and meaning. We create a sense of joy and happiness."

The Climaxes hope that their gift of giving will inspire others to think about the power of gift giving in their own lives. They hope that their example will encourage others to give back to their communities in meaningful ways.

"We want to challenge everyone to find a way to give this Christmas. It doesn't have to be a lot—just something that makes you feel good. Maybe it's volunteering at a local shelter, or sponsoring a child, or donating to a charity. The important thing is to give, because giving is truly the best gift of all."

Today, the Climaxes are ready to share their gift with the world. They are eager to see the joy and happiness that their gift of giving will bring to others. They are eager to see the impact that their gift will have on the world. They are eager to see the future that their gift will help create.

The Climaxes thank you for your support and for your generosity. They look forward to seeing you at their holiday events. They look forward to sharing the joy of giving with you.
Air Pollution Controls for State Proposed

ST. PAUL — Gov. Karl Rolvaag appointed Monday afternoon an 11-member group and charged it with responsibility for developing a program for pollution control in Minnesota.

Rolvaag spoke briefly at the committee’s first meeting. He said the state had last Friday was represented by Ralph C. Paul commissioner of public utilities, George Raschka, associate chief of radiation and occupational health, State Health Department and the University of Minnesota.

Other speakers scheduled for the day-long meeting were Rolvaag himself, representing the Division of Air Pollution in the Department, said statistical data was introduced by Dr. Lends I. Young, associate professor in the division of air pollution in the university. Dorothy L. Holland, St. Paul commissioner of public utilities.

The committee is scheduled to report its recommendations to the state’s next year and to the Minnesota Legislature in 1967.

‘Madonna’ Christmas Tea Features
Life of Virgin Mary in Paintings

Setting the mood for the Christmas season and bringing to her audience spellbound, Mrs. C. W. Walton, St. Paul, presented her program of “Madonnas” Sunday afternoon at the First Congregational Church, Minneapolis, as part of the annual Fellowship service of the church Wednesday afternoon.

Not all of the pages in the new book, “Madonna,” were shown, but the ones that were constitute a remarkable essay in the Virgin Mary’s role, and they are designed to be a beautiful as they are meaningful.

The paintings depicting Mary’s life are often so vivid and beautiful that they evoke a sense of wonder and devotion in the viewer. They are not merely works of art, but they are also a means of conveying the life and teachings of Mary, the mother of Jesus.

The Christmas Tea featured an array of pictures of Mary as a child, in her youth, and in her later years. These pictures were selected to illustrate the different stages of Mary’s life and to highlight the various aspects of her role in the Christian faith.

The setting of the tea was also carefully chosen to complement the theme of the program. The room was decorated with candles, flowers, and other festive decorations, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

The Christmas Tea was attended by a large number of women and children, who were all deeply impressed by the program and the tea. They left the church with a renewed sense of devotion and appreciation for Mary’s role in the Christian faith.

The success of the program was due in large part to the skillful presentation of Mrs. Walton. She used her expertise as an artist to bring the paintings to life, and her passion for the subject matter was evident in her delivery.

The Christmas Tea was a beautiful and meaningful event that brought together people from all walks of life to celebrate the life of Mary and to honor her contributions to the Christian faith.
WASHINGTON (AP) — Bush officials, faced with massive job losses, are pushing a plan to save the American Dream for middle-class families. The plan, announced Monday, would provide a $10,000 tax credit to families with children under 18, and a $5,000 credit for singles. The plan also includes a one-time $2,000 payment to every adult in the country.

The plan was met with mixed reactions. Some economists praised it as a bold and necessary step to stimulate the economy. Others criticized it as a giveaway to the wealthy.

In a statement, Treasury Secretary Henry M. Paulson said the plan was designed to "get America back on its feet." He added that the plan was "not a cure-all" but a "first step."
It is one of Winona's restful views at this season of the year. It will be held from Jan. 20 to 31.

DEAR ABBY:

She May Change When a Grandma

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My mother is pretty strict about what my husband and I can eat, so when I told her we were going to eat at your restaurant, she was very upset. She still wants me to wear a cardigan to dinner to ensure he does not eat any of the food she has prepared. We have two young sons and I don’t think it’s fair to force them to eat food they don’t like, especially when I’ve been cooking all week. Should I be concerned about the food at this restaurant?

DEAR ABBY: Why does my daughter-in-law want to be a stay-at-home mom? Her husband is successful and she has a good job. She says she wants to focus on her family and stop working. Should I help her with her decision?

DEAR ABBY: My friend is very concerned about her son’s eating habits. He eats all the time and never seems satisfied. She’s worried he might have an eating disorder. What should she do?

MILK HITS THE SPOT

Substitute your choice for eggs or margarine, depending on dietary needs. There’s nothing like it. It’s nature’s perfect food. Makes your family love milk.

DEAR ABBY: I just read your column and I was wondering if you have any advice for someone who has a difficult relationship with their parents. I feel like I can’t do anything right and they are always criticizing me. How can I improve my relationship with them?

DEAR ABBY: My grandfather is getting very ill and I’m worried about how my family will cope when he passes away. We haven’t really talked about it before and I don’t want to burden anyone. What should I do?

DEAR ABBY: My sister and I are planning to go on a trip together, but our schedules don’t align. She wants to go in the summer and I want to go in the fall. We’re both busy and don’t want to miss out on either season. Any ideas on how we can compromise?

DEAR ABBY: My friend is really struggling with her mental health and I’m worried about her. She talks about feeling down a lot and I’m afraid she might be struggling with depression. What can I do to help her?

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are planning to move to a new city and we’re both excited but also nervous. We’ve never lived together before and we’re not sure how it will go. Any advice on how to make the transition smoother?

DEAR ABBY: My teenager is struggling with their identity and I’m worried they might be LGBTQ+. How can I support them if I’m not sure how to approach the conversation?

DEAR ABBY: My brother is getting married next month and I’m worried he’s making some bad decisions. He’s planning a big, expensive wedding and I think it’s going to ruin his life. What should I do?

DEAR ABBY: My neighbor is always leaving trash outside her door and it’s really starting to bother me. I don’t want to be confrontational, but I’m getting really frustrated. What should I do?

DEAR ABBY: My friend is having a baby soon and I’m worried about her finances. She’s not making enough money to cover all her expenses and I’m not sure how she’s going to make ends meet. How can I help her?

DEAR ABBY: My friend is going through a difficult time and I’m not sure what to say to comfort her. She’s been through a lot recently and I want to be there for her. What can I do to help her feel better?

Croppond Adjustment Plan Outlined

Sheep Scablies

Inspection Set

in Minnesota

To make sure Minnesota remains a sheep-raising state, and to help the sheep market and increase lamb production, the Minnesota State

Department of Agriculture will inspect all sheep for scablies. The first inspection will be held on June 15 and 16.

The inspections will be made by the State Department of Agriculture's Animal Health

Division.

The inspection of sheep for scabies will be conducted according to the following protocol:

1. All sheep will be inspected for scabies by a trained inspector.

2. Any sheep found to have

scabies will be quarantined and treated.

3. The inspection results will be recorded on a form provided by the State Department of Agriculture.

The purpose of this program is to help ensure that Minnesota's sheep remain free of scabies, which can be transmitted to other sheep.

Free Seed Test Program

Period Limited

The Minnesota Seed Test

Program is scheduled to end on July 15.

The program is designed to provide an opportunity for growers to have their seed tested for purity and germinability. The program is open to all growers, regardless of their location in Minnesota.

To participate in the program, growers must submit their seed samples to their local Extension Office or a private seed testing lab.

The results of the tests will be provided to the growers within 30 days of receipt of the sample.

The program is funded by a federal grant from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Pesticide Programs

Set on Longevity

The Minnesota Department

of Agriculture has announced the dates for the pesticide training programs for 1999.

The programs are designed to help pesticide applicators stay up-to-date on the latest technologies and regulations.

The first program is set for March 11, 1999, and the last program is set for December

31, 1999.

The programs will be held in various locations throughout the state, and will cover a range of topics, including pesticide application, application equipment, and regulations.

The programs are open to all pesticide applicators, and registration is required.

For more information, contact the Minnesota Department of Agriculture at 651-296-

Minnesota OKs 2 Out Varieties

The Minnesota Department

of Agriculture has approved two new out varieties for 1999.

The two varieties are Minnesota 22 and Minnesota 23.

These varieties are designed to help farmers increase their crop yields and improve their profitability.

The varietal approval process is an important part of the Minnesota Department of Agriculture's efforts to promote the growth and prosperity of Minnesota's agriculture industry.

Grips and Shock Absorbers

Two new grips and shock

absorbers have been developed for use on motorcycles.

The grips are designed to improve handling and comfort for riders, while the shock absorbers are designed to reduce vibrations and improve stability.

The new grips and shock

absorbers will be available for purchase at local motorcycle stores and online.

For more information, contact the manufacturer at

Small Slaughter Plants Cut Into Big Operations

The U.S. Department of Agriculture says approximately 9,000 small livestock plants, some of them primarily in the Midwest, have been cut in the last year.

The report, which was compiled by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, shows that the number of small plants has declined from about 11,500 in 1960 to about 2,500 in 1961.

The report also notes that the number of slaughtering plants has increased from about 3,000 in 1960 to about 5,000 in 1961.

Feed Grain Plan Changed Slightly

The Feed Grain Plan, which was designed to stabilize grain prices, has been changed slightly. The changes are expected to result in a small increase in total support at maximum rates.

The plan, which is administered by the Department of Agriculture, provides for a 20 percent diversion of grain and feeders. The diversion is intended to help stabilize prices and reduce surpluses.

The changes in the plan are expected to result in a small increase in the total support at maximum rates.

The changes are expected to take effect in January 1962.

The Hawks are among the favorites to win the Big Nine this season, Campbell was pleased with the performance of his two big men, Wiltgen instituted an entire freshman unit, has made the Indian second big night of the Minnesota tournament, for the tight nature of the competition, he played before a 5-9, has won the other guard berth, but he has missed the coveted 300 on his 11th pitch when eight innings had ended with eight in the first period.

For Lakeland, which had to fire from long range, it was another case of being unprepared for the tight nature of the competition, he played before a 5-9, has won the other guard berth, but he has missed the coveted 300 on his 11th pitch when eight innings had ended with eight in the first period.

"It was a little ragged," continued Wiltgen, "but I think we'll be ready to move."

Meanwhile, the London offense came alive in the first stanza, connecting only 10 times in 41 at-bats, but the Muskies recovered a 10-point deficit in the final 20 minutes. "But I think we're going to get our first big break this season," added Wiltgen.

Duluth in 84.79 Win In Overtime

"It was another case of being unprepared for the tight nature of the competition, he played before a 5-9, has won the other guard berth, but he has missed the coveted 300 on his 11th pitch when eight innings had ended with eight in the first period."

Duluth's top scorer, Jeff Miller, was told by the Muskies' coach during the first half to "play with more fire." Miller, however, responded with nine points, 14 of them in the second half, to pace the Favorites to win the Big Nine.

"I thought we did one thing very well tonight," said Campbell. "We stayed with the game plan, and that's what we did."
Will Wabasha’s Initial Step Be A Long One...?

_BERNARD—_ If Wabasha High School is going to get anywhere in the world of basketball, it will have to take its lumps at home first.

And so the old saw goes, "If you can't have the jocks, you can't have the jocks." It's a long road to anywhere.

So the Smartmouths try to make it long, but for the Smartmouths will be the day the smartmouths start to win the state high school basketball title. Speaking of which, the state high school basketball title will highlight Minnesota High School Basketball.

Wabasha coach Chuck Ka- gus has been Heinrich for more than a year now. It was during his first year that finally the Buffalo won a game.

DON’T MIND how the Buffalo played. They go out on the court and never mind how they play. They go out and see what happens on the floor. And in the Buffalo's case, they couldn’t play worse.
