U.S. Planes Bomb Area Near Haiphong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. planes brought the air war on North Viet Nam closer to Haiphong in the past 24 hours. A spokesman said they unleashed their bombs and rockets only 12 miles from the country's major port and paid a return call on the Uong Bi power station, which supplies electricity to Haiphong and Hanoi.

The Communists sent up several missiles against the U.S. Air Force and Navy planes but they missed their mark, the spokesman said. The American pilots spotted some MIG-17s over North Viet Nam, but the Communists did not attack the faster U.S. planes.

Air Force pilots made 52 assaults over the North, dropping 115 tons of 750-pound bombs and firing rockets and cannon as well.

Maple Plain Bank Robbed

MAPLE PLAIN, Minn. (AP) — A bandit held up the Maple Plain State Bank about 10:45 a.m. today and fled with an unknown amount of cash.

Maple Plain is in Hennepin County, about 15 miles west of Minneapolis.

Hennepin County sheriffs deputies and state highway patrolmen rushed cars to the area to set up roadblocks in an attempt to intercept the getaway car.

A helicopter also was ordered into the air to join the hunt.

First reports were the bandit fled with an estimated $3,000.

Titan Three Puts Up 4 Satellites

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A mighty Air Force Titan 3 rocket thundered into the sky today carrying four satellites toward an intended lofty orbit 21,000 miles above the equator.

The 12-story-tall Titan 3, most powerful rocket now in use by the United States, blasted off on its third test flight at 9 a.m. (EST).

Two solid-fuel motors strapped to a liquid-fuel rocket core spewed a 500-foot tall of flame as the big booster rumbled aloft to begin one of the most complex unmanned space missions ever attempted.

forest alongside a road near Di An, 15 miles northeast of Saigon.

Navy planes from the carrier Kitty Hawk went aloft at noon today and bombed a major highway bridge just north of Haiphong in the deepest penetration yet of the Haiphong-Hanoi industrial complex. Spokesmen said they scored five direct hits.

Earlier, the Kitty Hawk's planes attacked the Uong Bi power station, 14 miles northeast of Haiphong, following up a raid last Wednesday by a flight of Air Force F-105 Thunderchiefs. The Air Force pilots claimed their strikes, the closest until then to Haiphong, knocked out the plant with bulls-eye hits, cutting off 25 per cent of Haiphong's power and a third of Hanoi's.

Spokesmen gave no immediate explanation for the return visit but said the Navy pilots reported unloading their bombs in the target area. Reconnaissance showed sections of Haiphong and Hanoi still without electricity, the spokesmen said.

An Air Force F-105 took a burst of ack-ack and crashed into the Gulf of Tonkin. The pilot, Capt. John S. Rufio, 33, of Mount Morris, N.Y., was picked up within 10 minutes by an amphibious rescue plane. He suffered only superficial injuries.

Overhead a flight of U.S. planes giving protective cover spotted two MIG-17s approaching from Haiphong but they spun off at high speed and headed toward Communist China.

The four construction men were seized by the Viet Cong Monday afternoon near a rock quarry where they worked for a major military contractor. They had gone to the quarry without a military escort.

A platoon of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division surprised the Communists as they marched the captives with hands tied behind their backs in the dark. When the Americans opened fire, the captives dropped into a ditch but Otto Shulten, 58, a Dutch citizen living in South Burnaby, B.C., Canada, was slain by his Viet Cong guard.

Those rescued were Edwin D. Jones, 48, of El Centro, Calif.; Henry Hudson, 52 of Menlo Park, Calif.; and Hudson's Vietnamese chauffeur, Van Xuong. All are employed by R.M.K. International, a combine of five U.S. firms that does most of the big American military construction work in South Viet Nam.

Both Jones, the quarry superintendent, and Hudson, a contractor, are being held in a Viet Nam prison.

McNamara Cuts Army Housing Plan in Half

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army bears the heaviest portion of the $620 million freeze on about 500 military construction projects announced by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today.

A detailed list issued by the Pentagon disclosed that the "deference" in Army construction totals $206,323,000.

Next biggest cut is in the Air Force construction plans, reduced $132,101,000.

The Navy's share of the cut is $121,391,000.

The list did not include suspension of projects for about 8,500 family housing units, which were announced last October.

McNamara's slash of nearly half of this year's military construction foreshadows a new defense budget shorn of anything which cannot be justified by military necessity and the Viet Nam war.

The defense chief signalled this Monday in saying that indefinite postponement of much construction is "symptomatic" of his approach to the new defense budget now being put together.

The Pentagon announced today the list of projects deferred in 42 states, the District of Columbia and 18 overseas locations.

The Pentagon planned to announce today the list of deferred projects in 42 states, the District of Columbia and 18 overseas locations.

It also may announce another list of high-priority projects, totaling $685 million, which will go ahead in 36 states, the District, and 16 overseas sites.

Among the programs which may be put off because of the war-caused budget pinch are a start in production in the Nike X antimissile system and a proposed new atomic-powered aircraft carrier for the Navy.

Top officials believe there is no urgency to get under way in either of these projects. The Nike X could cost as much as $20 billion ultimately and the Navy carrier would come to several hundred million dollars in one lump sum.

Final budget decisions have not yet been made but there has been speculation that the new defense money request may top this year's $49 billion by as much as $10 billion.

At an unannounced news conference, McNamara declared that his department is eliminating or deferring everything that can possibly be sidetracked "without eating into the muscle" of U.S. armed might.

McNamara said that in addition to family housing and barracks the projects involved such facilities as additions to hospitals, bachelor officer quarters and modernization of training schools.

New Tension in Santo Domingo

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Tension gripped Santo Domingo today as a wildcat strike threatened to spread in protest against the weekend clash in Santiago between Dominican army regulars and former rebel soldiers.

After a day of sporadic sniping in the capital, Col. Francisco Caamano Dengo, the leader of the rebellion last April, took to the government radio Monday night and appealed to the people to remain "serene so that no one can justify aggression against you."

Business activity in downtown Santo Domingo was almost at a standstill. The administrator of the state-owned sugar corporation said walkouts closed all of its 11 sugar mills.

Snipers fired at U.S. and Brazilian troops of the Inter-American Peace Force Monday, but a U.S. spokesman said no American soldiers were hit.

The Brazilian and U.S. troops were reinforced in the heart of YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — A music classroom, gay with holiday song, became a death trap for nine children and three adults Monday night as a sudden flash of fire struck a Jewish community center in this New York suburb.

SCENE OF FATAL FIRE . . . Water-soaked debris litters the floor of the fire-blackened auditorium of the Yonkers, N.Y., Jewish Community Center, scene of Monday night's fire in which nine children and three adults died. 'Peace Feelers' Part Of Red Propaganda

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Recent Vietnamese Communist propaganda suggests the possibility that "peace feelers" are part of a psychological campaign to erode American and world public support of U.S. policy, in preparation for an upsurge of political warfare in South Viet Nam.

The Viet Cong's Liberation Radio couples a "we-can't-lose" propaganda campaign in South Viet Nam with highly exaggerated descriptions of various protest demonstrations around the world, and particularly in the United States.

In America, these broadcasts say, protests have risen to unprecedented intensity and have become "the most violent struggle in U.S. history," which has left the Johnson administration "extremely embarrassed and fearful."

Hints from North Viet Nam thus may have little to do with any real intention to negotiate on terms acceptable to the United States. Rather these "feelers" may be intended to add to the Johnson administration's troubles by placing it in the position of rejecting peace overtures.

This hypothesis becomes credible against the background of recent Viet Cong propaganda. This indicates Communist agents now can be expected to mount strong efforts to bring the war to the cities of South Viet Nam by means of political attack.

This would have a double purpose: first, to attack the Viet Cong's enemy from the rear and to make the U.S. presence politically untenable, and second, to persuade public opinion in America and elsewhere that the anti-Communist war effort has little South Vietnamese support.

Americans in Saigon often have expressed the opinion that a clear military decision is unlikely but that the war might be lost politically. The Communists indicate that they aim to step up their political efforts and coordinate them with military activities.

The Liberation Radio propaganda says the time is near in South Viet Nam for a "three struggle movement" — armed, political and recruiting — in the South, to be "closely coordinated and create a continual offensive against the enemy on three sides so that he is attacked everywhere and can be led to collapse rapidly."

Far West. The mercury dropped to 25 below zero Monday at Wanakena, N.Y., in Adirondacks.

The snow covering across most of the nation was reported generally light. Heaviest amounts, up to 30 inches, were in the western Adirondack foothills in New York State and in mountain areas in the West.

In the Midwest, snow measured 19 inches at Houghton, Mich., in the extreme northern Upper Peninsula. Amounts in other parts of the Midwest were generally light.

Snow fell during the night and early morning across broad areas from the Great Lakes region into the middle Atlantic states. Heaviest amounts appeared to be in West Virginia, with two inches in a six-hour period at Beckley, and one inch across most other areas. Washington reported light snow during the morning, the first of the season. Light snow also fell in Philadelphia.

The strike appeared aimed at forcing out military chiefs blamed by labor leaders for the bloody outbreak in Santiago Sunday.

The labor chiefs told President Hector Garcia-Godoy they were abiding by his request not to launch a general walkout until a special commission investigates the fighting in Santiago. But they said the strike's spread was beyond their control.

Estimates of the dead in the clash in the country's second largest city ranged from 9 to 13. One of the victims was Col. Juan Maria Lora Fernandez, former chief of staff of the rebel forces.

Bacall Choice for B'way Gal of '65

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Mark Twain — also a clever writer — once wrote that every man is entitled to his favorite brand of insanity. Mine is annually choosing my Broadway Bests.

It's my paradiisical pleasure to pick Lauren Bacall as B'way Woman of the Year for acting the hell out of "Cactus Flower" and making it a hit . . . and David Merrick a hero instead of a heel.

Jimmy Roselli, an unsung singer from Hoboken, in his late 30s, was the Boy Least Likely to Succeed, who Succeeded. Unknown last spring, he went into the Copacabana, packed it, and became so known that Boss Jules Podell often grunted a warm "Ahem" to him in the corridor.

Movie Smash: "The Sound of Music" blockbuster and Julie Andrews, a sure candidate for a second Oscar . . . Male Oscar Favorites: Oskar Werner and James Stewart . . . Most Famous Dropouts: James Aubrey, Robert Kintner and Gina Lollobrigida . . . Favorite TV stars: Michael Quill, Wm. Buckley, De Gaulle (Seriously, David McCallum, "The Man From U.N.C.L.E.", and Eva Gabor and Eddie Albert, "Green Acres.")

Most Overworked Word: "IN" (especially if you were OUT).

BIGGEST Medical Advance: LBJ's posing with his scars . . . Greatest Crowd Pleaser: Pope Paul . . . Success Story: Sybil Burton's. She created her own movie actor Jordan Christopher and her own glamour world Arthur, she gave the world her own special disease Arthrititis. Playwright Chuck Hornor in the show "Me and Thee" had a gag about a club called Irving "for people who can't get into Arthur." The leading school was Disco Tech . . . there were more fruggin' spots than you could shake your sacroiliac out of joint at.

Most Panegyrized: Frank Sinatra (even Mia Farrow gave him rave reviews) . . . New female luxury: Dames who could afford it marrying guys 10 years younger. Biggest cafe shockers: Closing of the Stork. Embers, International, and El Chico . . . Greatest athletes: Sandy Koufax, Jimmy Brown and Nal Bonet (the belly-dancer) . . . Mostest Hostess: Charmin' Sharman Douglas.

LOVELIEST New Sex Missile: Raquel Welch, a brunette from Chicago . . . Biggest Comeback: Bosoms! Burlesque returned. (You mean they went away?) . . . Cinderella of the Year: Julie Christie of "Darling" and "Dr. Zhivago" . . . British Man of the Year: Lord Snowdon . . . New York's most prized drink: Water.

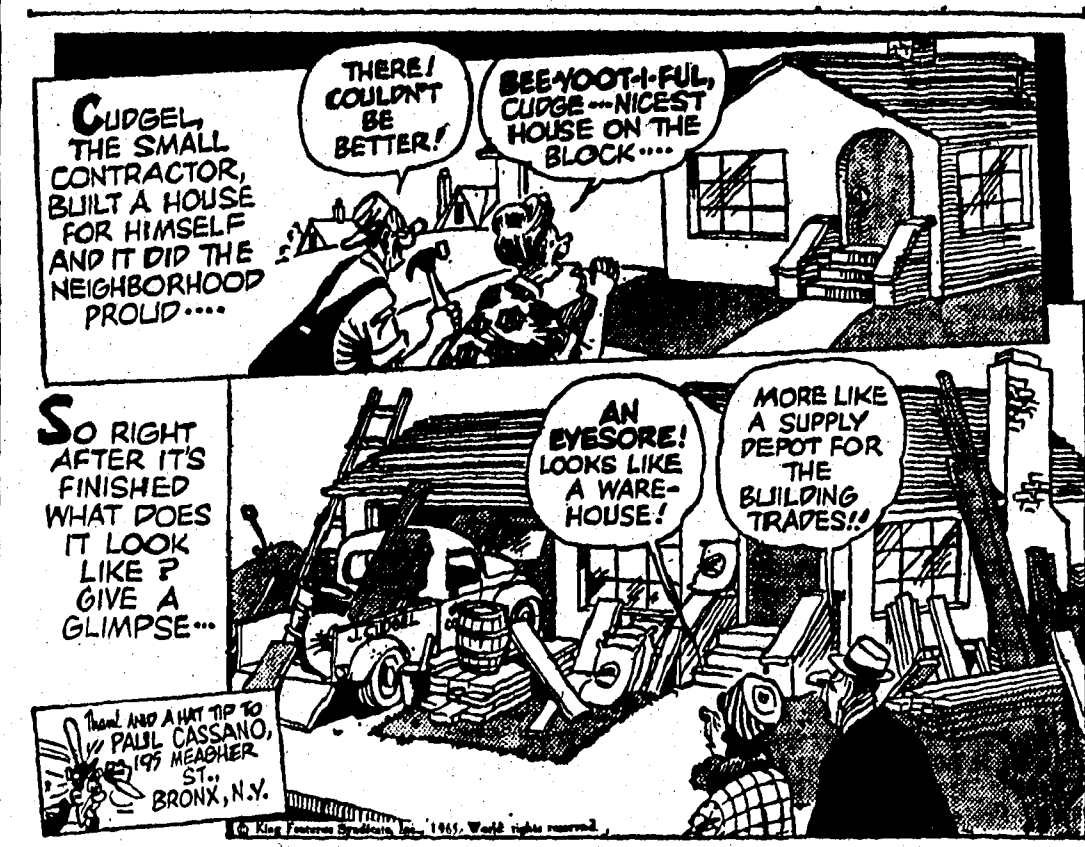

To have a hit song you just had to have "Hang On" in the title. The big ones included The McCoys' "Hang On, Sloopy," and the Four Seasons' "Let's Hang On." But the Supreme, those girls, and Sonny and Cher ("I Got You, Babe") were the biggest, and the Toys' "Lover's Concerto" as well as anything by Tajana Brass, was Big, Man!

Then there were: Alan King's "The Impossible Years" . . . and Sammy Davis' "Yes, I Can" . . . and well-I-I-I . . . sorry . . . time's up!

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A lot of New Year's resolutions (notes Arnold Glasow) are car-

Santa Becomes Yule Astronaut

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP) — Santa Claus, not to be topped by a few old Gemini flights, became a yuletide astronaut at a Christmas celebration.

The 80-foot-high orbit in a "cherry picker" basket atop the extension arm of a firetruck wasn't meant to last 30 minutes but it did. A switch failed, leaving Santa whirling until it was repaired. The crowd of children, unaware of Santa's plight, loved it.

Renewal Grants To 3 Communities

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Urban Renewal Administration Monday announced grants totaling $69,066 to aid three Minnesota communities in planning programs for growth and development.

Inver Grove Heights in Dakota County receives $24,933, the North Anoka Planning Area in Anoka County gets $33,412 and Rush City receives $10,721. The grants cover two thirds of the cost of the projects and will be supplemented by local funds.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WILLIE OUT WEST: Be careful with whom you "kill time" — or you'll be doing some. The girl is under age, and the "entertainment" is out of bounds.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 17-year-old senior girl with a question. I have always heard that no girl is so popular that she can refuse a boy when he asks her to dance. There is this boy at school who has asked me out, but I have never accepted because I don't care for him, but whenever he sees me at a dance he always asks me to dance. Abby, I am not stuck-up, but I can't stand this boy. I hate to hurt his feelings, but I can't seem to get rid of him. How can I get out of dancing with him? If I say I have a sore foot or something and he sees me dancing with somebody else later, he'll know I lied. Help!

DEAR CAN'T: Sorry, honey, but one of the penalties of popularity is attention from those who like you more than you like them. What's one dance more or less? You can't turn anyone down without getting the reputation of being a snob.

DEAR HOSTS: It depends entirely on the circumstances. If the caller bears regards from a dear friend or relative, and you WANT to entertain him, then entertain him as best you can in the time allowed. But you have no obligation to "wine and dine" the shirtil relatives of every casual acquaintance who dials your number. Tell them you regret that you are unable to see them on such short notice. And don't feel guilty.

DEAR ABBY: May I have your consent to name my lovely thoroughbred filly "Dear Abby"? I plan to show her as a conformation hunter.

AN ABBY FAN

DEAR FAN: Be my guest. I have had children, dogs, cats, birds, skunks, turtles and even a queen bee named after me, so why not a filly? I warn you, I am pushing 48, so don't expect too much of me on the jumps.

DEAR ABBY: We live at the air cross-roads of the world, and hardly a week passes without a call from someone who's at the airport with "regards" from a mutual friend or a relative. These travelers have anywhere from a few hours to an entire evening to kill. This means we must drive out to the airport and entertain them. If it's around dinner time (and it usually is) I either have to ask them to my home for dinner, a courtesy I am not always prepared to extend on a moment's notice, or we must take them out. We aren't poor, but we don't enjoy dining and the cousins, uncles and grandmothers of some casual acquaintance we haven't seen in years and may never see again. Some guests DO offer to pick up the check, but how are we to know if we can better afford to treat them than they us? Just what is our obligation to these people?

Lady Bird Pauses for 53rd Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson family pauses Wednesday in the midst of Christmas preparations to observe the First Lady's 53rd birthday.

Born Claudia Alta Taylor on Dec. 22, 1912, in the little town of Karnack in East Texas, she never uses the formal name her parents gave her. She's known now throughout the world by the name of Lady Bird, given her by a childhood nursemaid.

There's no formal party planned for Mrs. Johnson. As usual, the family will give her personal gifts, not usually disclosed to the public.

At 53, Mrs. Johnson is 5 feet 4, and still maintains a trim size 10 figure.

As First Lady, she presides at numerous White House social events and now devotes considerable time to the beautifying of the nation's capital and a campaign to make American more beautiful.

Last month, President and Mrs. Johnson observed their 31st wedding anniversary. The date — Nov. 17 — coincided with a formal White House dinner for Britain's visiting Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, President Johnson, in a champagne after-dinner toast, proclaimed he was married to "the most wonderful woman in the world."

Their partnership in marriage and in politics is well-known. The President frequently tells how his wife loaned him money to get started in politics, campaigns for him, and backs him at every turn.

In the President's most recent personal crisis — his gall bladder operation — Mrs. Johnson moved into the hospital.

Johnson's recuperation period at the LBJ Ranch in Texas gave his wife her first long rest and respite from public duties this year.

Until then, she had traveled almost 14,000 miles and made 33 speeches in behalf of beautification projects and some antipov-erty causes.

Her press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, said Mrs. Johnson reported the two months at the ranch had given her "a wonderful respite with her family — to walk, think, talk with her husband, and to read."

NEW YORK (AP) — Michael J. Murphy, president of the National Automobile Theft Bureau, says preliminary estimates indicate a record of 48,114 cars were stolen in November.

Durand Wins Division in Own Tourney

DURAND, Wis. — Durand High School played host to its first invitational debate tournament in history Saturday. A total of 25 Minnesota and Wisconsin high schools sent 49 teams.

At the end of four rounds of highly competitive debate, Durand emerged as the victor in the varsity division and Chippewa Falls McDonnell captured the B division trophy.

Durand varsity was composed of Barbara Morey and Gary Weikin, affirmative, and Mary Shafer and John Hess, negative. The affirmative lost to Richfield and defeated teams from Osceola, Winona, Cotter and Sibley. The negative pair won all four over Winona High, White Bear Lake, Schofield and Red Wing.

Durand had two teams entered in B division, both finishing with a 7-1 record.

In addition to the first place trophies in each division, gold medals were presented to the all-tournament team in each division. In varsity, John Hess, Durand, was named the outstanding debater of the tournament with 56 out of 60 total speaker points. He was followed by Mary Shafer, Durand, with 54, and Wendy Vanstrum, Hopkins, with 50 and Lynn Haggarty, Chippewa Falls McDonnell, and Mary McNaughton and Kathy Forslund, Durand, each 49.

The Durand squad will take a Christmas vacation break and resume debating Jan. 8 at the Eau Claire State University invitational.

Autograph Party Set at Museum Thursday Evening

A Christmas party will be held at the Winona County Historical Society museum in the Lumbermen's building Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

The highlight will be delivery of "Pioneers Forever," a history of Rupperecht Valley, with Marvin Simon, the author, autographing each copy.

Six children from grades 1-4 at Dakota school—Gary Grant, Thomas Wilson, Linda and Mary Malenke, Susan Smith and Kathy Knutz—trimmed the Christmas tree in the museum Sunday, with the help of their teachers, Mrs. Clyde Grant and Mrs. Lamar Fort. All the ornaments were made by students at the school.

At 8 Thursday Simon will give a brief talk on his experiences in writing and publishing his book, the fulfillment of a dream of many years. Copies of the book will be available to persons who have not ordered in advance.

Members and friends attending are invited to bring small wrapped gifts for exchange, preferably something old—toys, ornaments, candles, lamps, books, glassware, tools, kitchen utensils, wearing apparel, etc. Santa Claus will distribute them. A group of girls from Dakota school, junior members of the society, will sing carols. Entertainment will be provided by some old-time musicians, and refreshments will be served.

Saint Teresa Gets Theatre Arts Grant

The College of Saint Teresa has received a National Defense Education grant of $55,215 for an English institute in applied arts, according to Sister M. Camille, president.

John Marzocco has been named director of the institute which will be held from June 20 through July 29, 1966.

PURPOSE of the institute is to provide teachers of English in grades nine to 12 with an opportunity for instruction and participation in theatre arts with a semi-professional resident producing company together with accredited courses.

Both the academic program and the production company will enable the participants to gain an extensive knowledge of theatre arts in the specific areas of the analysis of the comic play, stage directing with the emphasis on composition, set design, scenic construction and costume.

Eligibility requirements are a bachelor's degree or its equivalent; a minimum of two or three years of teaching English in the secondary school system and at least one year of experience in directing or producing dramatic activities in the high school or an assignment for directing or producing dramatic activities in the 1966-67 academic year.

ALL participants in the program will be given laboratory theatre experience by working with the Winona Summer Theater.

In its second year, the theater will be a semi-professional resident producing company. However, it will not be financed by the NDEA grant. It is a separate program in theater, although participants in the institute will work with the summer company. The summer theater program, however, is not restricted to NDEA participants; it will be open to interested students, teachers and community residents who do not qualify for the NDEA grants.

General Assembly Of U.N. Ending Session Tonight

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. delegates pushed wearily to close the lid tonight on a General Assembly that has plowed through two years of accumulated business and broken a few precedents.

Assembly President Amintore Fanfani was expected to gavel the grueling session to a close late tonight or in the early morning hours, depending on the volume of windup oratory.

It will mean the end of an assembly that had to take time out from current business to clean up financial and house-keeping items untouched during last year's session paralyzed by the voting deadlock over peace-keeping finances.

In the past three months, the delegates also were host to such figures as Pope Paul VI, British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, Austrian Chancellor Josef Klaus and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan.

Cutting in on the work schedule of key delegates were Security Council debates on the strife in Cyprus, the independence declaration of Rhodesia's white minority government, the India-Pakistan conflict and the situation in Portugal's African territories.

The assembly session saw Red China's boosters make the strongest showing yet in their 15-year struggle to capture the Chinese seat for Peking.

It also saw the big Asian-African group maneuver itself into the power role it has been seeking since 1955, when new Asian and African states began flocking into the organization.

Brushing aside U.S. objections, the Asian-Africans Monday night rammed through the 117-nation assembly a proposal which in effect junked the long-standing rule that important issues require a two-thirds majority for approval.

Despite warnings from U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg that a dangerous precedent would be set, the assembly decided that a resolution before it calling for elimination of colonialism required only a simple majority for approval.

Western diplomats were plainly disturbed at the move. They predicted it might be applied successfully to such questions as the seating of China and even disarmament.

The Asian-African group, which now numbers 61 nations, can make or break any question before the assembly under the simple majority rule if it doesn't break ranks.

The United States set a few precedents of its own. In its first U.N. boycott, the U.S. delegation walked out on Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa as he was assailing U.S. foreign policy in the general debate.

Great Week in Space For United States

WHAT A WEEK in space it was for the United States!

The utter spectacularity of the whole space accomplishment beginning with the rendezvous of Gemini 6 with Gemini 7 and ending with the arrival on the deck of the aircraft carrier Wasp of Frank Borman and James Lovell, came home to millions of Americans as they were able to witness both recovery events by live television far out in the Atlantic Ocean.

It was a thrill to see Astronaut Walter Schirra and Co-Pilot Thomas Stafford flash happy smiles following their rendezvous triumph in Gemini 6 and it was a thrill to see Astronauts Borman and Lovell walk along the deck of the Wasp after 14 days in space during which they traveled 5,129,400 miles in Gemini 7.

The pioneering expedition was a scientific marvel which with other space research will literally open new worlds and bring new benefits to mankind.

With the flights of Gemini 6 and 7 — called "The Spirit of 7-6" — the Gemini program has achieved all but one of its major goals.

THE NATIONAL Aeronautics and Space Agency now will start applying what has been learned to more sophisticated missions leading to manned landings on the moon.

The thrilling feat of our astronauts last week again placed us ahead of the Soviets, though no one today pays as much attention to that as we once did when the Russians started the race well ahead. Actually, the rendezvous and endurance flight probably were not as thrilling to most people as was the blast-off of the first craft to venture into space. But it was the triumph of all time.

We still have a long way to go before reaching the moon. Actually, man hasn't ventured very far into space as yet. Great technical problems still remain — but difficult hurdles have already been cleared.

There are today, as there always have been through history, some critics who want to hold back progress, who argue against the inevitable advances of civilization. Their ancestors argued against the exploration of the New World wilderness.

BUT THE WORLD moves on. And Schirra, Stafford, Borman and Lovell have added a new chapter. Our heartiest congratulations to these four intrepid heroes.

Farm Price Increase Boosts Area's Economy

AS MEASURED by most statistical business series, economic activity in the Ninth Federal Reserve district has moved at a brisk pace during 1965, the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis reports in its monthly economic review.

Perhaps of major significance to the region's economy has been the higher trend in farm commodity prices, particularly for livestock, and the record or near record farm outputs. Final crop production estimates, with the exception of corn, show sharp increases over 1964 as well as from 1959-63 averages.

Nonagricultural employment data available through the first ten months of 1965 indicate about a 3 percent rate of growth from the same period a year earlier, the bank said. Also, the existence of a relatively tight labor situation has been spotlighted by a spectacular increase in the area's "help wanted" advertising index.

REGIONAL INDUSTRIAL output also has registered growth. The district's Index of Industrial Use of Electric Power and the Index of Production Worker Manhours are up about 5 percent and 3 percent respectively from year-earlier data.

The bank debits indicator series, reflecting the dollar value of checks written against depositors' accounts, through October was up 9 percent from the same period in 1964.

One business indicator which has dropped is that of total valuation of construction contracts awarded. For the first ten months of the year this indicator registered 20 percent below the year-earlier level.

A BRISK demand for loans in 1965 has characterized the district's banking picture. Activity in commercial and industrial loans has been particularly strong although most other loan categories, including agricultural loans, also have increased. Bank deposits, especially time deposits, have increased but not at a sufficient rate to prevent a moderate further increase during the year in the loan-to-deposit ratios at both "city" and "country" banks. In mid-November these ratios stood at 63 percent from the so-called "city" banks and 53 percent from the "country" banks. (City banks are the larger banks that report certain banking data on a weekly basis while country banks report bi-monthly.)

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

New Crisis in School Prayers

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court of the United States may not have intended to prescribe a "religion" which could be taught in the public schools, but it has given an involuntary assist to the cause of non-belief in God.

The high court has just rejected the plea of a group of parents of Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, and Armenian apostolic faiths who asked, through court action, that their children in public schools be allowed voluntarily to engage in a prayer that mentions the word "God." As a result of the court ruling, the impression is conveyed to the pupils for all time that there is something wrong with a belief in God. This is exactly what atheism claims. Atheism is regarded by some people as a kind of "religion" in itself.

The high court's decisions heretofore have been based on the idea that the government must remain "neutral" as between religions. But not until the latest ruling, specifically banning voluntary prayer requested by the parents of children of virtually all faiths, has the Supreme court placed itself squarely on record against even a prayer that is neutral as between the sects.

THE CONSTITUTION says that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." This would appear to mean that neither can the Supreme Court help to establish any religion, whether it is atheism or anything else.

The controversy has been getting more and more tangled ever since the Supreme Court in 1962 tackled the question of prayer in the schools. The high court ruled then that the educational officials of a state or local government cannot lawfully compose a prayer and direct that it be uttered by pupils in public-school classes or assemblies. Nothing was said by the court about the right of students to engage in silent prayer or to recite aloud prayers prepared for them by a group of parents of all faiths.

THE LATEST case involves a request by the parents to the principal and teachers to let the pupils say, during the classroom periods when they are served milk and crackers or cookies, one of two familiar prayers which have no sectarian connection: One prayer says simply: "God is great, God is good, and we thank Him for our food. Amen!" The other reads:

"Thank you for the world so sweet,

"Thank you for the food we eat,

"Thank you for the birds that sing —

"Thank you, God, for everything."

New York school officials forbade the prayers, but a federal district court upheld the right of the parents. Then, a U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, relying on previous rulings by the Supreme Court, reversed the lower court. The case was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, which let the Appeals Court ruling stand.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Troops in Viet Nam May Be Doubled, Guard Called

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — At the approach of Christmas, as Americans sing of peace on earth and good will toward men, President Johnson has made the painful decision to escalate the Viet Nam war.

In the year ahead, the U.S. commitment in South Viet Nam will be doubled. This means an end to the era of war-in-Viet Nam-but-peace-at-home, the end of both guns and butter. The home front must now be mobilized. Guns must come first, and the President is seriously debating whether to ask Congress for a formal declaration of war.

Manpower — Gen. William Westmoreland, the American commander in South Viet Nam, is calling not only for a build-up to 400,000 troops next year, but is almost frantic in demanding replacements now.

Battle casualties, heat exhaustion and malaria have taken a more terrible toll than the public has been told. The First Cavalry Division (Air Mobile) was so short of replacements that it was forced to withdraw from the fighting around Plei Me. We simply have been flying out casualties faster than we have been flying replacements in.

ANOTHER problem is that enlistments have been dropping. Literally thousands of GIs have arrived in South Viet Nam barely in time to arrange for their transportation home. Some had less than a month to go before their enlistments were up. Others, with 60 to 120 days left to serve, are now waiting to go home.

To raise the necessary manpower, not only will draft calls have to be increased in 1966, but Reserve and National Guard units will be ordered to active duty.

Tax Increase — The President's financial jugglers are freely predicting that the Viet Nam war will take a $6 billion slash out of next year's budget. Others insist the cost will be closer to $10 billion.

This almost certainly means that taxes, so recently reduced, will have to be increased again. It also means postponing money for some of the great social programs that Congress passed this year.

MILITARY Outlook — American forces have won some impressive victories, but it cannot be truthfully claimed that they have taken over the initiative. The Viet Cong, reinforced by North Vietnamese regulars, still control most of the countryside. We are still on the defensive.

The bombing of North Viet Nam, which was supposed to pound the Communists to the peace table and stop the flow of reinforcements to the guerrillas, has completely failed in its objectives.

The North Vietnamese have become more, not less, militant since the bombing began. And the flow of both men and supplies from North to South Viet Nam has increased in spite of the bombing.

Gen. Westmoreland has acknowledged privately that air attacks alone cannot seal off the jungle supply line. This network of jungle trails, many of them invisible from the air, would have to be seized and held by American ground forces in order to choke off the supplies, Westmoreland says.

MEANWHILE, Americans have been fighting bravely in Viet Nam. It would be a head-in-the-sand attitude, however, to claim that Americans are better jungle fighters than the guerrillas who have spent their lives in the jungle.

The blunt truth is that Americans get exhausted from the heat and humidity, must be rotated every few days back to their base camp for rest, relaxation and recuperation.

Peace Prospects — A truce, like the tango, takes two. Not even the President's most optimistic advisers now believe the Communists will sit down at the truce table except on their own terms.

The Communists, who take the long view, even see a propaganda advantage to provoking the Americans. The harder the United States strikes, the more world sympathy little North Viet Nam arouses for its Jack-the-giant-killer stand.

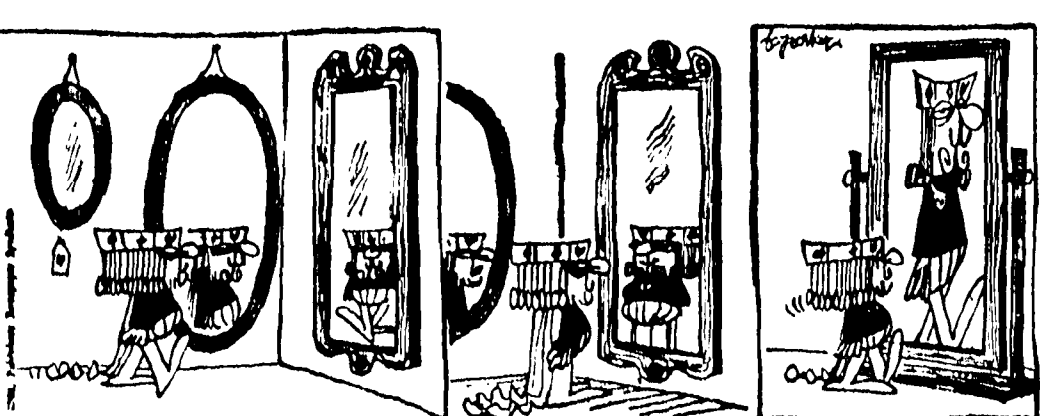

The Communists are increasingly effective in selling this as a war of Americans trying to impose their system upon people halfway around the world. The Reds have been able to convince many that this is also a war of Americans against Asians. No one in Asia buys LBJ's plea that this is a war to help helpless South Viet Nam.

De Gaulle Gives France Stability

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Charles de Gaulle became president of France seven years ago it was in bad shape. Rightists and French military leaders in Algeria were in rebellion against the government.

It was a crisis but France, with one government after another toppling since the war, badly needed some kind of political stability. Its multiplicity of political parties made any permanent government impossible.

Hematoma Like Bruise But Bigger

By J. G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is a hematoma and what causes it?

The delivery of my baby supposedly went fine, but afterwards I had to have evacuation of a vaginal hematoma. The doctors don't explain it clearly enough for me to understand.—MRS. W. G.

This isn't something that applies only to childbirth. It can relate to any part of the body, and I'll try to explain why.

A hematoma is a swelling which contains blood. It is more than a bruise or black and blue mark, because it contains free, red, liquid blood. It's a bruise but bigger, because a bruise is just a small seepage of blood.

A hematoma may look like a bruise from the outside, and usually does, but the swelling causes pain. While a bruise heals as the body absorbs the escaped blood, a hematoma usually doesn't cure itself because there is too much blood to be absorbed. The answer is to evacuate, or remove this pool of blood, after which healing is rapid.

WHAT caused your hematoma? Some injury, which is the usual cause. You say that the delivery of the baby, "supposedly went fine." I don't doubt this. But sometime in the process, there evidently may be an injury to the birth canal, and the hematoma results.

It may have been a combination of causes: An injury which ordinarily might have been inconsequential, combined with the presence of a weak spot in a blood vessel. Or there may have been tearing of some tissue underneath the skin or membrane.

Don't worry unnecessarily over an event which, while a nuisance, doesn't deserve too much concern.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can a boy of 13 take too many cod liver oil capsules? I give my son three a day, each containing 12,500 USP units of Vitamin A and 1,250 of Vitamin D. I also give him Vitamin C tablets plus a multiple vitamin capsule with 5,000 units of A and 500 of D.

The boy has always had allergic rhinitis with wheezing in the chest. Since I started giving him the cod liver oil two years ago his chest noises have seemed to lessen and his allergy (sneezing seems to have diminished). Am I giving him too many vitamins? Is it safe to continue so much Vitamin A? — MRS. W. N.

Add it up and the lad is getting over 40,000 units of Vitamin A per day, and over 4,000 of D. These are fat-soluble vitamins and it is possible to give too much. You are at the top limit.

You could omit the multiple capsule and reduce the dose by that much. Vitamins A, D and C are helpful in some instances but they are not the entire solution to allergic rhinitis. Rather, put your emphasis on finding out the allergic factors.

Dear Dr. Molner: My son is 19. I am a widow and he is an only child and has had his own way most of his life. He started smoking when he was 11½ and was a

The French called De Gaulle to power. His programs? He fuzzed his answers, letting the French take him on face value. Could he give France stability? He could and did for seven years.

But it was only a personal stability, built around him. When he was re-elected to another seven-year term Sunday there was nothing to show he had prepared France for stability on its own, now or seven years from now.

It has been a one-man show, and he admitted as much recently when he said: "Naturally, the day will come sooner or later when De Gaulle is gone. What will happen then?" He is 75 now.

He had previously revealed what he thought the answer was. Asking the people to give him a second term, he said the choice was between him and catastrophe.

He had seemed like a sure winner but in the first test Dec. 5 against five opponents he got only 44 percent of the votes and had to go into a runoff Sunday against Francois Mitterrand, 49. This time De Gaulle won with 55 percent of the vote.

Mitterrand himself is an aloof if not arrogant man and had the endorsement of an odd collection of Frenchmen: Communists, Socialists, and extreme right-wingers. Confronted with that, the French apparently thought De Gaulle was a safer bet.

Now that he has been restored to power — after a few human and homey campaign appearances on television — he can be expected to be his old haughty self, and that can mean misery for the United States and Britain.

It will not be surprising if, before his second seven years are up, he wrecks the Western nations' NATO alliance through his insistence everything must be played his way or not at all.

He has small stomach for politics. But it is possible he will outlive his usefulness before his term ends. Nations, while appreciating their heroes, do get impatient with them. The British showed that.

As soon as World War II ended they threw out Prime Minister Winston Churchill. They restored him some years later but as he got older he grew feeble. When he was 80 his own Cabinet asked him to quit. He did.

De Gaulle has always been difficult for the French army before the war, for the Allies during it, after it, and ever since. At the war's end Churchill said: "I am sure that in the long run no understanding will be reached with Gen. de Gaulle."

heavy cigarette smoker until a couple of years ago when he switched to pipe and cigars.

I was pleased until I noticed that he inhales all the time. I am wondering if the switch has been beneficial. — MRS. E. R.

We know that pipes and cigars are less hazardous so far as the lungs are concerned, probably because most people don't inhale the smoke from them. We don't yet know how hazards compare when they do.

In other respects, the nicotine from any source can affect the body in different ways. I therefore would hope that your son would stop inhaling (because that certainly increases the amount of nicotine he absorbs) but apparently he's going to have to find out for himself.

Dear Dr. Molner: What percentage of surgery for cornea transplants is successful? My wife is blind from glaucoma and is 64. — J. W.

I'm sorry, but corneal transplants will not help in glaucoma. These transplants are highly successful when vision is blurred or destroyed because the cornea has lost its transparency, usually resulting from injury or infection. Unfortunately, glaucoma damages the eyes at a deeper level, so new corneas cannot help.

Immunization Clinics Set In Pepin Co.

DURAND, Wis. — A series of clinics to immunize school students against diphtheria, lockjaw and whooping cough has been arranged by the Pepin County public health nurse, Lois Von Holtum.

First clinics will be held Jan. 10 at Lima school; Jan. 12 at Arkansaw school; Jan. 14 at Grandview school; Jan. 17 at Pepin school; Jan. 19 at Durand Unified school with Eau Galle and Urne schools attending, and Jan. 21 at St. Mary's school.

PROTECTION against diphtheria and tetanus toxoid (lockjaw) is available to anyone over the age of 6. A series of two injections should be obtained one month apart. To keep a level of protection, booster injections should be taken every three years.

A second serum, providing protection against diphtheria, lockjaw and whooping cough, can be administered to young people between the ages of 3 months and 6 years. A series of three injections is offered at one-month intervals. To maintain levels of protection, booster immunizations should be obtained at the ages of 1½ and 3.

Smallpox vaccinations should be taken first between the ages of 4 and 6 months. Revaccinations should be taken every five years.

While the first round of injections will be offered at six schools, second and third injections will be given only at Durand and Pepin. The second clinic will bring second diphtheria and tetanus injections for those who took the first series, a second diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough injection for those 3 months to 6 years old, or a diphtheria and tetanus booster and smallpox vaccination for students absent from the first clinic.

The third series clinics will bring only third diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough injections for the 3-month to 6-year age group.

PARENTS were encouraged to have young people take advantage of this program if they have not had care by a private physician. Juniors and seniors are urged to take advantage of the program as these immunizations are necessary for college entrance requirements.

Immunization fee of 50 cents per shot is to be paid to a registrar at each clinic. Do not deprive your child of this protection if you are unable to pay, said the nurse.

Voice of the Outdoors

White Christmas Assured

Winona and the surrounding area received sufficient snow over the weekend to assure a white Christmas, although it does not look very promising for winter outdoor sports for the school vacation. It has been too warm to flood the artificial rinks in the east and west ends, and the ice on Lake Winona is unsafe. In fact, there was open water there up to a couple of days ago.

As to snow sports, the fall that assured the white Christmas just whitens the ground. It was not sufficient for coasting, not to mention skiing and tobogganing. So unless the weatherman smiles and turns on the snow it is not going to be much of an outdoor vacation for the thousands of outdoor loving children of the Winona area.

However, this lack of snow is not going to interfere with Santa's reindeer. They pull him and his overloaded sled on the snowy clouds in the sky, above the chimneys and above the rooftops. Park-Recreation Board crews stand ready to flood the skating rinks as soon as water will freeze as it is sprayed over the rink areas.

Someday someone will find a way to construct a winter arena so that skating can be assured through the winter and more hockey can be played here. We have in the St. Mary's team a top college competitor but the college has no enclosed rink in which to play. They even have to go to St. Paul to practice. An arena is a recreation need for a round winter sports program here.

Deer Endangered
The heavy early snow over the deer range of Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin may develop into a serious deer wintering problem. In fact, the rise in the Mississippi here is a result of the melting of some of the snow the last couple of weeks. Here is a summary of the Minnesota situation as provided by the state Conservation Department:

Record snowfalls late in November have caused grave concern for deer in the northern areas of the state, but the recent warm spell has relieved the situation.

By Nov. 27, snow on the level measured two feet deep in St. Louis, Cook, Koochiching and Itasca counties. Warm temperatures and rain during the second week in December, however, caused melting and settling of at least half of the snow in most areas.

Department officials say that conditions now are about normal for this time of the year. However, Conservation Commissioner Wayne Olson said that a coordinated plan for winter deer habitat management and emergency browse cutting has been developed.

Thirty snow recording stations have been established in the deer range to record weekly changes in snow depth. Milt Stenlund, regional game manager at Grand Rapids, has been named field coordinator to compile these and other reports concerning the condition of deer and deer yards. Game managers, game wardens, foresters and even state parks personnel will have active assignments in gathering information.

Crews of Neighborhood

Youth Corps trainees already are beginning deer yard improvement under the supervision of game managers. These crews will be expanded to accelerate cutting of natural feed if this should become necessary. If critical situations develop, local groups and individuals who want to help will be given advice and direction by department fieldmen.

Olson said that the plan has been developed to assure coordination in the event of an emergency and to give direction to efforts to help deer through the winter. Primary emphasis is placed on the trimming of natural browse in key areas. This not only provides immediate nutritious food for hungry deer, but also allows regrowth which will provide more food for future years.

"It is impossible to save all of the deer during an adverse winter," Olson said, "but we can alleviate a serious situation if our efforts are coordinated and our energies are expended in the most practical and effective manner."

BUSINESS MIRROR

A Lot of Yule Spending on Cuff

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Where is all that money coming from for all that Christmas shopping? People are crowding the stores and buying higher-priced items and spending more than ever before.

A lot of it may be going on the cuff to be paid for later. But this year people have more money in their pockets and bank accounts than ever before.

And they are parting with it, some because their own personal finances are healthier, some because they believe the war in Viet Nam will set off a boom like the Korean War did, some because they think goods are going to be higher priced in the future and better be bought now.

Back of all this feeling of well being are such things as record personal incomes, more jobs at higher pay, and orders pouring into the factories which seem to guarantee that prosperity will be around for awhile. Personal income has made a big gain this fall. In November it was running at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $545.6 billion. All signs point to a further advance this month. That's a lot of money to spend. Wages and salaries account for $370 billion of it, up $3.1 billion from October. Of the November advance, factory payrolls account for a gain of $1.4 billion to $120.2 billion.

Much of the buying of high-priced goods in the stores today may be traced to the big gains this year in cash dividend payments on stocks. Merchants say sales of luxury goods often follow the ups and downs of the dividend rates.

This year dividends are running 10 per cent above a year ago, for a total so far of $15.6 billion. This month is seeing a flood of extras or year-end payments. They are expected to push the total well above $16 billion.

Store buying is likely to reflect guesses on how families will fare next year as well as how they are making out currently.

Many signs point to a further advance in the general economy. Many of these indicators are too esoteric for most families to pay much attention to. But here are some down to earth ones:

Factory workers take cheer that the backlog of factory orders for durable goods has risen to $61.3 billion. Most industry groups reported moderate increases in November. For many workers that statistic can be translated into steady jobs for some weeks or months to come.

Those in the construction trades also have good news as Christmas draws near. Prospects for more contracts and more work next year are brightening. Corporations are planning to spend more next year on building new plants or expanding old ones.

And the fairly sluggish housing construction business is having a year-end pickup. Housing starts in November ran 9 per cent ahead of October to reach a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,534,000 units, the highest it's been since June. Home builders hail the gain as the healthiest in a long time.

Wisconsin Planners To Be Paid $129,000

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — A Madison firm of planning consultants will be hired at $129,000 by the Mississippi River Regional Planning Commission if approved by the state Department of Resource Development.

If approved, the contracts will be signed and application will be made to the federal government for cost sharing. The total includes $124,000 for services of Candeb, Fielesig, Adley & Associates, the consultants, and $5,000 as the state administration fee.

FEDERAL FUNDS would pay two-thirds the cost. Of the remaining $43,000, $6,000 would be contributed by the state, $7,000 would be represented by staff services by extension agents, and $30,000 by the seven counties in the commission, all bordering the Mississippi River.

The commission now has $20,000 in cash and $10,000 will be available this year through appropriations of the county boards of the seven member counties — La Crosse, Trempealeau, Buffalo, Popin, Pierce, Vernon and Crawford.

If the planning project is approved, the following projects will be completed in a two-year period, hopefully beginning early next year:

THE REGION will be mapped so a separate map will be available for each town in each of the seven counties. The maps will portray the location of county, township, section and quartersection lines; the high water line of all streams and lakes; all roads, streets and publicly owned properties including county, state and federal highways; railroad rights of way with names of railroads; identification by symbols of location and extent of wood tracts larger than 40 acres in area, and other significant topographic features.

Population analysis to provide information concerning the number of people being planned for and the factors or characteristics that will determine their basic needs for public facilities.

An economic analysis to identify the region's economic activities since 1900, with special reference to resort-tourist industry and its potential for development within the region, new enterprise development possibilities including commercial fishing, relationships between economic development and provision of highway and transportation facilities, and availability of raw materials and labor.

THIS ANALYSIS will identify the region's economic resources, prospects, problems and needs and will outline the specific actions that might be considered in connection with efforts to sustain and improve the economic outlook. The land use analysis will identify the major characteristics of the development in the region, its natural resources, limitations due to natural conditions and development problems.

Land use plan will relate growth prospects to land use and indicate a means of dealing with the region's development problems. A transportation plan will include an identification of the location, capacity and general condition of air, rail, river and highway facilities, including major terminal facilities and their various effects upon the region.

A regional facilities plan will identify the sites that will need to be constructed, improved or abandoned to meet the future needs of the region's population for county or municipally-managed parks, libraries, vocational schools, fire stations and health facilities.

Hurley Tavern Operator Must Post $1,500 Bond

HURLEY, Wis. (AP) — A tavern operator was ordered Monday to post a $1,500 bond as a good conduct guarantee in the first of five cases in which the state is seeking to close Hurley taverns on public nuisance grounds.

The bond would be revoked upon any complaint of lewd activity in the next two years. Circuit Judge Lewis Charles described the Band Box tavern as "a clip joint" and originally ordered it padlocked for one year, but he agreed to stay execution of the order if the operator posted bond.

The tavern operator, Mrs. Teresa Kalasardo, was warned by the judge that no proof of further illicit activities would be required to close the bar. He said any complaint by the attorney general's office would revoke the bond.

GOP Committee To Meet Jan. 7

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Republican State Central Committee meets in Minneapolis Jan. 7-8 with reports by the chairmen of the 15 GOP task force groups studying state problems topping the agenda.

Also to be discussed in the 1966 "Republican Care" program, the adoption of state, district and county convention plans, the apportionment formula for the 1966 district and state conventions and plans for the $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner Jan. 25. Robert Taft Jr. will be the speaker for that affair.

MODEL zoning regulations to guide private development objectives outlined in the study and development goals identified on the land use plan.

It will include model subdivision regulations to indicate the procedure to be followed in processing a proposed plat; design standards that should apply in new developments; appropriate use of statutory authority to prohibit sales of land for development purposes by metes and bounds descriptions; required dedications and reservations for streets, highways and other public uses; the responsibilities of the developer; and means whereby the ordinance can be administered and enforced.

A special study on organization and administration. This will identify the relationships between various public improvement efforts in the region; outline recommended organizational changes; suggest where-by necessary technical and other assistance needed to keep the program active might be identified elements of a continuing development program.

Children Accept Military Awards For Dead Father

ST. PAUL (AP) — The poignant words of an 8-year-old schoolboy brought the war in Viet Nam a little closer to home Monday.

"I wanted to be a soldier, but he told me not to," said Michael Halbauer. "He told me to join something else."

Michael and his 9-year-old sister, Linda Jean, accepted four military awards for their father.

The awards were made posthumously, in ceremonies at Cathedral School here.

Staff Sgt. David M. Halbauer, a career soldier, died in action in Viet Nam Oct. 13.

Michael and Linda Jean accepted the silver star, bronze star, purple heart and combat infantryman's badge for their father.

"My father wrote me lots of letters," Michael said. Then he told of the admonition from his father to "join something else."

Mrs. Halbauer was not present. She and Halbauer were divorced five years ago and the children live with their paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Kraft, here.

Maj. Gen. Walter A. Jensen, commander of the 14th U.S. Army Corps, who presented the medals, said Halbauer was killed when he returned to help a wounded man during a withdrawal from an engagement with the Viet Cong.

When it was over, Michael said, "My father was tall. He had black hair and brown eyes. God, I'll always miss him."

Suspect Held in Northwoods Slaying

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minneapolis police are holding a suspect for investigation of homicide in the shotgun slaying Sunday night in a northside apartment of Merle W. Pawelk, 26, Minneapolis.

Pawelk was cut down by two blasts from a shotgun as he watched television in the apartment of Mrs. Mary Danaher, 26. Two of her four children were in the apartment at the time, but slept through the shooting.

Held is the woman's estranged husband, Michael Danaher, 31. Police said she recently filed for divorce and moved into the apartment Saturday. The couple's other two children are staying with relatives in Monticello.

Woman's Leg Caught in Rising Elevator

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An elderly woman's leg was caught in the door of an automatic elevator as she entered it Monday and she was carried, screaming with pain, up 12 floors.

Her husband was trapped outside the elevator when it closed and ran up a nearby stairs following his wife's fading screams.

When firemen freed the woman, Ida Herman, 66, she was taken to Graduate Hospital where her condition was later reported as satisfactory.

Her husband, Morris Herman, 72, said they had gone to Central Medical Building to see a physician.

When one of two self-service elevators came down to the lobby, Mrs. Herman preceded her husband into it. Before he could enter, and while her leg was still partly out, the door closed and the elevator started for the top floor, Herman said.

An employee of the building, James Bland, 50, who was in the other elevator at the eighth floor, heard Mrs. Herman's screams and called the firemen who freed her by prying open doors. Battalion Chief Charles Holland, who directed the rescue, said her ankle was crushed.

Winonan Gets Probation at Alma

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — A Winona man, Daniel Wicka, 24, 661 E. Sanborn St., was placed on probation for four years in Buffalo County Court last week on a charge of taking indecent liberties with a female under the age of 16.

The offense was committed Aug. 29. He was arraigned Sept. 3 and placed under $500 bond. At the preliminary hearing Sept. 16 he pleaded guilty. On Oct. 7 he was committed by Judge Gary B. Schlosstein to state prison hospital at Wau-pun for psychiatric examination was returned to Alma last week.

He was placed on probation to the state Department of Public Welfare and transferred to the Minnesota department of probation and parole.

Kellogg Farmer Loses Arm in Hammermill

KELLOGG, Minn. (Special) — Aiden Norton, Kellogg farmer, underwent amputation of his left arm at the elbow Saturday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital after it was caught in a hammermill while he was grinding feed on his farm. His condition is reported as satisfactory.

Also Charles Robinson underwent minor surgery Thursday at St. Elizabeth's and will have tests and X-rays. Mrs. Lillian Haley was admitted there Friday with an asthma attack.

DODGE PATIENT

DODGE, Wis. (Special) — Mrs. Dominic Wener is a surgical patient at St. Joseph's Hospital, Arcadia.

Excess Savings Go Into Banks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans are putting most of their excess income into bank savings rather than the stock market.

A Securities and Exchange Commission report covering the July-September period revealed that pattern Monday.

During that quarter individual savings set a post-World War II record of $10.7 billion. The previous peak was $8.5 billion in the final quarter of 1964.

There was a $7.9-billion increase in bank deposits and a $2-billion increase in loans incurred for the purpose of purchasing securities.

Ever since the stock market's sharp break in mid-1962, individuals have been selling more corporate stock than they have been buying.

Council Asked For Mileage Hike

A request for increased mileage allotments by the county service officer was put over for a committee report by the City Council Monday night.

Ald. Harold Thiewes moved that the council authorize a rise from 74 to 10 cents per mile, as requested by Philip Kaczowski, service officer. Kaczowski's letter had pointed out that Winona County commission-ers recently made 10 cents per mile the standard for county personnel. The city and county share in the expense of the office.

The motion to refer the matter to a committee was authorized by Ald. James Stoltman and carried without audible dissent. Momentary confusion prevailed as President Harold Briesath asked which committee Ald. Stoltman would suggest. A search of the 17 committees revealed none specifically charged with veterans affairs, so Briesath directed it to the health and welfare committee, of which Ald. Stoltman is chairman.

The death toll stood at 21 Monday when two more of the critically injured died in Keokuk hospitals.

Gary Glazier and Laverne Lietzke of St. John, Mich., drove here with toys from a Lansing, Mich., toy manufacturer and $50 donated for the Swing-Ezy Disaster Benefit Fund. The money donation was arranged by Dick Kenyon, a square-dance caller from Lansing.

The explosion occurred while members of the Swing-Ezy Club were holding a square dance.

Keokuk Death Toll Up to 21

KEOKUK, Iowa (AP) — Two Michigan men brought a truckload of toys to Keokuk Monday for children of victims who were burned in a Thanksgiving eve explosion and fire that destroyed the National Guard Armory here.

What About Winter?

Ask the Perch Or Caterpillar

By JERRY BUCK

Associated Press Writer

If you want to know what winter holds—it comes tonight—just ask a caterpillar or a perch, look at the moon or consult the almanac. You'll get a different answer every time.

If caterpillars speak your language, it'll be a run-of-the-mill winter. The perches say it will be mild at first—so does the moon, although the rockets kind of get in the way.

But the fog-counters, volcano-readers and the almanacs predict a bitter time of it with more than enough snow to keep even the hardest of skiers happy.

When winter comes rushing in tonight it's likely to find more pine needles than snow on the ground. But, those resorts where snow has fallen are packing them in.

In Miami, at resorts of a different sort, vacationers are hoping to get brown under the sun—while their winterbound neighbors turn green with envy and blue from the cold.

Winter comes officially at 3:41 p.m. (EST) today, hours after darkness will have fallen on the day of the year with the least amount of daylight. If it's any compensation, Venus will attain her greatest brilliance.

Ski lodges are going great in Colorado, New Mexico, upper New England and California—where some winters the resorts never open for lack of snow. In other places, the bare ground isn't luring many skiers.

In the weather predicting business there are as many ways of arriving at the wrong conclusion as there are snowflakes in a blizzard.

The Old Farmer's Almanac predicts 91 inches of snow for the winter season (starting Nov. 1), which is 28.6 inches above normal. The almanac also predicts temperatures will average 33.67—3.5 degrees below normal.

In the upstate New York hamlet of Charlton, George Casabonne, 79, known locally as Cousin George, says the winter will "not be too bad." Casabonne bases his predictions on moon signs and confesses to a little trouble reading them this year because of "those darned rocket shots and sputniks."

Mathon Kyrtis of Waukegan, Ill., reads the peregrinations of perch for his advance tips on the weather. He said a two-inch snowfall hasn't shaken his prediction of a green Christmas for the Midwest. "Whoever hears of a fish fibbing" he asked.

He makes his predictions according to how deep the perch are running. Kyrtis says the fish are getting deeper and deeper and "that means it's going to turn cold about two weeks hence."

Louis Rubin of Richmond, Va., who has gained national fame for his long-range predictions based on volcanic eruptions, says this will be a colder than usual winter.

Down in Crab Orchard, Tenn., Helen Lane, correspondent for the Crossville Chronicle, makes her forecasts on the number of snows in Tennessee from the number of fogs in the Cumberland plateau area during August.

"If it snows for all the fogs," she writes, "we will have to tie a string to the coal pile in order to find it this winter. Indications of a rough winter are thick corn husks, low-hanging hornets nests, heavier than usual leaves on the tree. These low-hanging leaves are nature's way of providing protection for spring flowers."

Tubby Toms, outdoor writer for the Indianapolis News, predicts a normal "run-of-mill" winter. His clues include loose corn shucks and an equal abundance of brown and black caterpillars. He said if there were more black ones that would mean a nasty winter ahead.

$400 Voted for Airlines Fight

A $400 contribution to the Local Airline Service Action Committee was voted Monday night by the City Council.

LASAC is an organization of eight Minnesota cities which was formed to seek a congressional review of Civil Aeronautics Board policies on small-city airline service.

It is a temporary group, explained City Attorney George Robertson Jr., that has banded together to deal with a common problem.

All members have suffered continuing harassment by airlines, Robertson said, necessitating long, expensive hearings by the CAB and congressional bodies.

Organization efforts seem to be bearing fruit, however, since hearings are set for next spring by Sen. Mike Monroney, chairman of the Senate aviation subcommittee, Robertson said.

Member cities are Fairmont, Brainerd, Bemidji, Worthington, Mankato, Thief River Falls, International Falls and Winona.

Christmas Eve in the Suburbs

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — It was Christmas eve in the suburbs. "Tell us a story, Gramps," asked one of the little tots.

"Naw, I told you one last night," said Gramps. "Get your grandmother to tell you one."

"Okay," said one of the tots. "Grandma, you tell us a story."

"Well, all right," said Grandma. "Would you like to hear an old-fashioned Christmas story?"

"Oh, yes, Goody goody!" "Well, I'll tell you how they used to celebrate at the office in the old days before your grandfather retired," said Grandma.

"Somebody put gin in the water cooler early in the morning of Christmas Eve, but the party usually didn't get going until they all came back after a three-hour lunch."

"Then, I'll tell you, it sometimes got quite lively."

"The men gathered around the office Christmas tree and sang carols. Then they sang old war songs, and started drinking out of bottles."

"After that, somebody hunted up a bit of mistletoe, and then all the office wolves began chasing all the pretty girls around the room."

"How did wolves get invited to the party, Grandma?" asked one of the tots.

"Oh, all the offices had wolves in those days, didn't they?" replied Grandma, looking at Grandpa. Grandpa cleared his throat and looked the other way.

"By quitting time," continued Grandma, "nobody wanted to leave. Some men were leaning out the window whistling at girls on the street below. Others were telling the boss to go fly a kite. And still others were leaping from desk to desk like goats."

"Didn't they ever fall and hurt themselves?" inquired one of the tots.

"Well, your Grandpa fell one year and didn't get off his crutches until Easter."

"That's not true!" broke in Grandpa. "I marched in the St. Pat's Day parade that year."

"In any case," resumed Grandma, "many of the men didn't get home until after Santa Claus had come and gone. I remember one year when you didn't arrive until 3 a.m., and then you attacked our Christmas tree. You thought it was a mugger."

"When I came downstairs you had it on the floor and were trying to choke it. Remember?" "I tripped on the rug, and just happened to knock the tree down," said Grandpa lamely.

"Those old-fashioned Christmas parties don't sound like fun, Grandma," said one of the tots. "They sound awful. Do they have office parties like that anymore?"

"Well, not so many since Grandpa retired," answered Grandma.

After Grandma and Grandpa had tucked them into bed, kissed them and left, one of the tots said:

"Do you think that was a true story Grandma told us?" "I don't know," said the other tot. "That's the trouble with grownups—you never know when to believe them."

First Voter Intimidation Suit Filed in Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The nation's first voter intimidation suit filed under the 1965 Voting Rights Act accuses a Louisiana registrar and seven landowners of forcing Negro sharecroppers from their life-long homes.

Louisiana Atty. Gen. Jack P. F. Gremillion said he will not defend the registrar, Fletcher Harvey, named in the federal court suit Monday.

"I'm not responsible for the predicament that he is in," said Gremillion. "He caused it of his own accord."

When told of his state's legal attitude, Harvey replied, "I don't want to know what he says."

Harvey, six landowners and one farming company were charged with forcing from their homes Negro tenant farmers who registered to vote.

U.S. Dist. Judge E. Gordon West has scheduled a hearing on the matter in Baton Rouge on Thursday.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach said the case was the first voter intimidation suit under the 1965 Voting Rights Act. His department seeks a court order to ban interference with Negroes seeking to vote in the parish.

Named defendants, in addition to Harvey, were Edward I. Daniel, Jordon Truitt, John Spillman, R. Harry Daniel Sr., R. Harry Daniel Jr., B. Harrison Barrow and Daniel & Truitt, Inc., a farming firm.

The defendants refused to comment or were unavailable for questions.

Earlier Monday, Katzenbach designated four more Mississippi counties — Carroll, Newton, Simpson and Warren — for federal examiners, bringing to 36 the total so designated under the 1965 Voting Rights Act.

Katzenbach said registrars would go to the four Mississippi counties immediately after the first of the year because local registrars have continued to use literacy as a voting qualification.

The state of South Carolina filed a brief with the U.S. Supreme Court explaining in detail its contention that the Voting Rights Act is unconstitutional.

Briefs as friends of the court also were filed by Louisiana, Georgia, Mississippi, Virginia and Alabama, contending the voting rights legislation exceeds congressional authority.

Another friend-of-the-court brief filed in Illinois supported constitutionality of the act.

In Louisiana, the complaints said Negroes who registered in West Feliciana Parish have been subjected to a variety of economic penalties — usually the termination of long-standing sharecropping agreements — since October.

None of the 2,700 eligible Negroes was registered to vote in the parish by the end of 1963 and nearly all of its 1,400 eligible whites were registered, the Justice Department said.

Wisconsin Law Changed on Stop For School Bus

MADISON, Wis.—The law requiring motorists to stop for school buses has been modified to encourage a free flow of traffic, according to an announcement by the Wisconsin Motor Vehicle Department.

The main revision now requires motorists to stop "not less than 20 feet from the bus and shall remain stopped until the bus resumes motion or the operator extinguishes the flashing red warning light."

Previously, the law ordered motorists to stop immediately (no matter how far from the bus) and to resume motion only when the bus operator extinguished the flashing lights.

Sometimes, the bus driver forgot about his flashing lights and motorists didn't know whether they should pass or not.

Other changes in this same law restrict the use of flashing lights by the bus driver so that traffic will be hindered as little as possible. In general, the bus driver is not allowed to use his warning lights in areas having curbing and sidewalks on both sides of the road or in those loading areas where the bus is completely off the highway.

Students Send Christmas Cards To Wounded Vets

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Five hundred wounded soldiers in Viet Nam know someone back home is thinking about them this Christmas, thanks to the efforts of Shanley High School students here.

The Shanley student body numbers only 558, but in one day's time the students contributed 500 cards.

They will be sent to the GY's at the 8th Field Hospital in Nha Trang, Viet Nam.

Army Capt. Larry Lubenow, Northwood, N.D., an information officer who is stationed at Nha Trang, suggested where the cards could be sent.

Lodge Leaves Saigon For Yule in Bangkok

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge left Saigon today to spend Christmas in Bangkok with his wife.

17 More Viet Nam Dead Identified

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department Monday identified 17 U.S. servicemen killed by the Communists in the Viet Nam war.

They include Army Pfc. Lewis J. Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Cunningham, 3318 8th St. Sioux Falls, S.D.

Farm Output For Year New Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Agriculture Department said Monday in its year-end crop report that American farmers produced a record volume of foodstuffs in 1965.

Total production for the year, the department said, represents 117 per cent of the 1957-59 base years average. This figure is six per cent higher than 1964 and four per cent above the 1963 record.

Crop yields per acre increased this year, regaining an upward trend of recent years—a trend which moisture shortages interrupted in 1964.

The composite index of yields per acre for 28 major crops was reported 123 per cent of the 1957-59 average, which was 6 per cent above the previous high set in 1963.

This year's harvested acreage for 59 major crops totaled 294 million acres, up one million from last year but far below the average of the past third of a century.

Featuring this year's production was a record high corn crop of nearly 4.2 billion bushels—a crop grown under government acreage restrictions.

The harvested acreage, average yield per acre and production, respectively, of major crops included:

MINNESOTA—Corn for grain 4,428,000 acres harvested, 61 bushels per acre and 270,108,000 bushels produced; winter wheat 720,000, 27.5, and 19,800,000; spring wheat other than durum 720,000, 27.5, and 19,800,000; durum wheat 68,000, 31 and 2,108,000; oats 3,004,000, 55 and 165,166,000; 18.5 and 58,571,000. Flaxseed 432,000, 14 and 6,048,000; sugar beets 122,700, 11 and 1,350,000; potatoes 94,200, 142 and 13,368,000.

BUS AT LA CRESCENT
LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — Ready's Bus Service is increasing its schedule of runs to La Crosse for this week only for the convenience of Christmas shoppers.

The bus will leave La Crescent at 8:40 a.m., 12:40, 3:30, 5 and 9 p.m., and leave La Crosse at 9 a.m. and 1:30, 5:10 and 9:10 p.m. Joe Ready, owner-manager, said the schedule will revert to normal after this week.

8 Million Enroll for Medicare

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Social Security Administration says 8,368,587 persons over 65 have enrolled for the voluntary medical care coverage under the medicare program.

The agency says that as of Dec. 11 it had completely processed 9.4 million responses of 10.1 million received.

Medicare information was sent to 15.1 million persons. They are those who receive either Social Security or railroad retirement benefits.

Another 4 million persons, however, aren't receiving either of those benefits and must be contacted to be advised of the medicare program.

In order to receive coverage from the effective date of the program next July 1, persons already 65 must enroll by March 31.

Pedestrian Area At High School Site Approved

Purchase by the Board of Education of land for additional pedestrian access to the new high school site was approved Monday night by the City Council.

The land is a strip 200 feet long and about 44 feet wide, extending south from Gilmore Avenue opposite Francis Street. It is one block west of South Baker Street, which will be extended to the school site for regular traffic.

According to Robert Langford, board attorney, the price of acquisition is $2,650 for the walkway. This will help divert foot traffic from Baker Street, he said, and provide increased safety.

VIET NAM

struction executive, said the Viet Cong treated them well and even gave them beer on a fast march apparently toward Zone D, the Communist jungle redoubt.

About midnight, the group was suddenly fired on when it ran into the platoon commanded by Lt. George Steinberg, 24, of Milwaukee, Wis. Steinberg said he and his men opened up when they spotted about 25 Viet Cong.

A Viet Cong jumped on top of Jones in the ditch in an effort to escape the machine-gun fire. When the Americans directed grenade launchers at the Viet Cong, they fled, leaving the captives behind.

One of the construction workers shouted: "Don't fire. There are Americans here."

"Who are you kidding?" Steinberg replied, recalling past attempts by English-speaking Viet Cong to lure U.S. troops into traps.

The construction workers persisted in their pleas. The GIs eventually satisfied themselves after the Americans gave details about life in the United States.

Shulton's body was found riddled. He had been the quarry manager. Neither Hudson nor Jones saw him shot but said they were convinced his guard opened up with a grease gun, a type of submachine gun, as soon as the Americans began firing. Many bloody trails were found in the area but no Viet Cong bodies.

In Washington, it was disclosed that the U.S. Command in Viet Nam had been authorized to allow troops operating near the Cambodian and Laotian borders to return fire from Communists across the ill-defined frontiers.

Although U.S. military officials have repeatedly contended the Communists use Cambodia as a sanctuary to launch attacks on South Viet Nam, the State Department and the Pentagon have refused to say whether American forces had been given broader latitude in fights along the borders.

Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, broke diplomatic relations with the United States last May, charging South Vietnamese forces had raided Cambodian border towns in pursuit of the Viet Cong. He has repeatedly denied that Cambodia was letting the Communists use its territory for bases or sanctuary.

In a dispatch from Saigon, the New York Times quoted authoritative sources as saying U.S. field commanders had been authorized not only to call for artillery barrages and tactical air strikes across the border if necessary but also to send troops into Cambodia after a retreating enemy force still locked in combat.

However, sources in Washington told AP military writer Fred S. Hoffman they doubted the new authority to U.S. forces included crossing into neutralist territory to fight.

AFS Students Relate Yule Customs for Catholic Women

Members attending the Monday meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women at Holy Family Hall, Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, enjoyed a description of Christmas customs of Germany and Spain, given by two American Field Service students now attending Winona Senior High School.

Miss Angela Behnke, of Germany, told of the Christmas season customs in the Lutheran community where she lives. The season begins on the first Sunday of Advent with the family ushering in the holidays with carol singing and the reading of Christmas stories. On Dec. 6, the good children receive nuts, candy and apples in their shoes. On Dec. 24, there is a church service at 5 p.m. to permit attendance by the entire family, including the small children.

UPON THE family's return, the doors to the living room, which have been shut during the day, are thrown open and the Christmas tree and gifts are seen for the first time. The Christmas story from the Bible is read and carols are sung. Then the gifts are opened.

In Germany, Santa Claus is called the "Christmas Man." The season ends Dec. 31, which is celebrated with a "little champagne and many good wishes."

In contrast to Angela's celebration, gift giving in Spain is deferred until Jan. 6. Juan Jose Achutegui Rodriguez explained the similarity of customs by pointing out that gifts, caroling and church services are the chief celebrations in Spain. Christmas is a family day with relatives having dinner together. Gift giving by the Three Kings takes place Jan. 6. Children in Spain put out their shoes with feed in them for the Kings' camels. And gifts are placed in the shoes, a happy exchange, they feel. The Nativity Scene is of more importance than the Christmas tree. It is an elaborate portrayal of the village and area where Christ was born. This will be given a place of importance in every home.

COMMITTEE reports were heard at the meeting, at which Mrs. James Frankard, vice president, presided. St. Clare Guild, Mrs. Elmer Hammann and Mrs. Fred Knaut, chairwomen, were hostesses at the coffee hour which followed.

Pickwick OES Holds Yule Party

PICKWICK, Minn. — Members of Pickwick Chapter 191, Order of Eastern Star enjoyed a Christmas party and program following their Friday meeting.

The chapter room was decorated with a lighted Christmas tree.

Mrs. Robert McNally, worthy matron, opened the program with a reading, "The Star." Other numbers were a recitation by Richard McNally and a humorous reading by Diane McNally.

A solo, "Star of the East," was sung by Diane, who was accompanied by Mrs. Arlie Morcomb.

Mrs. Joe Miner and Robert McNally, worthy patron, showed colored slides illustrating the Christmas story.

Members joined in the singing

LA CRESCENT Unit Sends Newspaper To Serviceman

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — Mrs. Mary Lou Beckman, First District president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Minnesota, was a guest at the Tuesday meeting of Gittens Leidel Unit 595.

She spoke on "Operation Hometown," a program in which servicemen serving in Viet Nam can request that their hometown newspaper be sent to them. The names of those requesting this service are sent to the American Legion Auxiliary National Headquarters where they are forwarded to the individual units in the specified hometowns. Members of the unit voted to send the La Crescent Echo to James Mades, who is serving in Viet Nam.

Mrs. Beckman was presented a gift from Mrs. Alvilda Anderson, unit president and was a guest at the Christmas party and lunch which followed.

The annual spaghetti dinner was set for Feb. 12. The Legion's 20th anniversary dinner will be Jan. 29 in the Crucifixion Auditorium. Members and husbands are invited.

A silent auction will be held at the January meeting. Members are asked to bring items they cannot use themselves. Proceeds will go to the sunshine fund.

'Cardinal Tree' Presented to Carl W. Lauer

The Community Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Board announced today that the winner of the "Cardinal Tree" is Carl W. Lauer. Presentation was made by chairman of the recent Holiday Market and Gift Sale.

The flocked Norway Pine, adorned with cardinals made of red felt and trimmed with beads and jewels is the original creation of Mrs. Frank Allen Jr.

At the regular meeting of the board, Mrs. T. H. Underdahl, president, extended holiday greetings to board members and commended them for a successful year.

"The greetings and best wishes of the entire auxiliary go out to every member of the hospital community and we extend our thanks to all for their gracious and generous support of all auxiliary activities, services, and projects," Mrs. Underdahl said.

Committee chairmen reporting at the recent meeting of the board heard Mrs. Rudolph Miller's tentative report of the recent Holiday Market and Gift Sale. She thanked all those present for their help in making this project a highlight of the holiday season. A full report of the proceeds will be released after Christmas.

Sewing committee chairman, Mrs. Carl Bretflow, announced that 101 working hours were tabulated by her sewing group to make the holiday table cloths which underlaid the wide display of gift articles during this last project of the Gift Shop.

Mrs. Underdahl announced that the date for the annual meeting has been set for Jan. 25 at 1:30 p.m. in the Hospital Solarium, to which all representatives, board members, and hospital volunteers are urged to attend. A program is being planned which will include an auxiliary skit with songs and a soft shoe dance by six auxiliarians. Mrs. Tom Kraut will serve as commentator.

Mrs. Harold J. Doerer, secretary of the Auxiliary Board, requested that committee chairmen submit their yearly reports to her immediately. She then will prepare her cumulative year-end report which will be distributed at the annual meeting.

Coffee was served by the hospital committee with Mrs. Frank Coffield as chairman.

ALMA Resident Honored on 97th Birthday

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — Open house was held for Mrs. Anna Gobar here Monday on her 97th birthday. The party was held at her apartment in the Theodore Buehler residence.

She was born Dec. 20, 1868 to Jacob and Louisa Zimmerman Lehman on the Town of Alma farm now owned by George Stiehl. There were 11 children in the family. One brother and two sisters are left.

She was married to Joe Gobar, who died 20 years ago. Their three daughters and one son have died.

Mrs. Gobar is alert, has a good memory, has a wide correspondence, and attends church regularly. She is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and a Gold Star mother.

Many friends called on her birthday, bringing flowers and other gifts with their greetings.

NSP Area Budget in '66 Tops Million

Northern States Power Co. will spend a total of $1.1 on new construction in 1966 in the Hiawatha Division, which includes the old Winona division area and the Red Wing area.

Manager Stanley J. Pettersen said that $781,000 is authorized in the old Winona area and $304,000 in the Red Wing area.

"In Winona," said Pettersen, "we anticipate spending $58,000 for permanent flood protection at the Liberty Street steam plant. We plan to spend $300,000 for gas mains, improvements to gas mains and gas extensions. We plan to spend approximately $95,000 on additional transmission line facilities in La Crescent. The balance of the expenditures in the Winona area will be to take care of new business and firming up the electric facilities to assure our customers of an adequate supply of electric service."

"In the Red Wing area, approximately $68,000 will be spent on gas facilities and the balance, $237,000, will be spent on new business and rebuilding electric facilities."

In the entire NSP area a total of $77 million will be spent, beginning a four-year program in which $37 million will be expended. Expenditures in 1965 were about $82 million.

About 19,000 new customers were added in 1965.

Council Buys Dump Truck On Lone Bid

The City Council voted Monday night to accept the single bid it received for a 1966 dump truck for street department use.

The bid, submitted by Winona Truck Service for an International truck, was for $7,260.15, less $2,190.27 trade-in on an older truck, for a net of $5,069.88.

Also accepted was the lower of two bids for city gasoline supplies for the coming year. Standard Oil Division of American Oil Co. bid $7,744 for 55,000 gallons, or 14.08 cents per gallon.

The higher bid was by Mobil Oil Co. for $7,947.50, or 14.45 cents per gallon.

A series of contractors' estimates was approved:

Winona Plumbing Co., first and final estimate, storm sewer in Royce-Sather Addition, $2,615.72.

Winona Plumbing Co., Liberty Street storm sewer, second and final estimate, $4,850.78. Full contract price was $25,214.14.

Kramer & Toye Plumbing & Heating, 8-inch trunk sanitary sewer (nonassessable) to Sauer Memorial Home, first and final estimate, $2,349.28.

American Plumbing & Heating Co., separating storm and sanitary sewers, Walnut Street, from 2nd Street to the Mississippi River, first and final estimate, $7,332.48. The project was jointly financed with Peerless Chain Co., whose costs were $6,400.

Judge Concludes Preston Service

PRESTON, Minn. — Judge A. C. Richardson, Austin, presided at his last term of District Court here Monday. He is retiring the first of the year.

Fillmore County attorneys and Clerk of Court Kenneth Hall entertained him at a luncheon at the White Gate Cafe here and presented him a farewell gift.

At the final special District Court session of the year, Rachel Anderson, Rushford, represented by Clinton Hall, Rushford, was granted a divorce from Dennis Anderson, Houston, on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Anderson was granted custody of their two minor children. Support money for the children was ordered at $100 per month.

Ronald Sutherland, 20, Chatfield, was sentenced to a five-year term with the Youth Conservation Commission on a charge of indecent assault. The

Young Klansman Ordered to Jail

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Collier Leroy Wilkins Jr., a young Ku Klux Klansman charged with conspiracy in the murder of civil rights worker Viola Liuzzo, goes to prison Jan. 4 to serve a year's sentence on a firearms violation conviction.

Wilkins, 22, was ordered Monday to begin serving the sentence after he was found guilty in U.S. District Court of violating probation provisions.

Wilkins pleaded guilty to the firearms charge in November 1964, after an indictment was returned by a federal grand jury in Birmingham Aug. 26, 1964, charging him with illegal possession of a sawed-off shotgun. U.S. District Judge Clarence W. Allgood suspended a one-year prison sentence and placed Wilkins on probation for two years.

Allgood ruled Monday that Wilkins had broken the probation on four counts.

2 Young Men Dead in Crash Near Willmar

WILLMAR, Minn. (AP) — Two young men were killed and two others were injured in a highway crash on Highway 71 near Willmar early today.

The accident, discovered about 8 a.m., was believed to have occurred several hours earlier.

Dead were Jerry Rue, 22, who lived at Eagle Lake near Willmar, and DeWayne Stene, 21, Willmar, married and the father of two children.

Taken to a Willmar hospital were John L. Heveron, 21, Spicer, Minn., and Orin Stene, 21, of the Eagle Lake area, a relative of DeWayne Stene.

The car, reported to have been driven by Rue, left the highway and struck a tree. Authorities said the accident apparently occurred about 3 a.m., but went unnoticed until daylight.

The Rue family moved to Eagle Lake from Alexandria, Minn., about a year ago. The two dead men were employed in Willmar, Stene at a service station and Rue at a turkey processing plant.

The deaths raised the state highway toll for the year to 811, one more than through this date a year ago. The deaths also brought to 20 the number killed in traffic accidents in Kandiyohi County this year.

Sentence was stayed and he was placed on probation.

Sutherland pleaded guilty to the charge last fall and was placed on probation. It was revoked when he broke probation and he was returned to jail here and to court Monday.

TOUCHED BY WARMTH OF STRANGERS... Stephanie Smith, 22, of New York City, says she is flabbergasted at the flood of good will letters she has received since stories of her seven-year battle against a rare blood disease have appeared in print. She was to leave a New York hospital today to spend Christmas at home. (AP Photofax)

FIGHTS DEATH FOR 7 YEARS

Flabbergasted By Greetings

NEW YORK (AP) — Stephanie Smith goes home for Christmas today, "utterly flabbergasted" at the outpouring of good-will letters touched off by news stories of her seven-year battle against death.

"I'm getting out of the hospital in time for the holidays," said the pretty 22-year-old blonde, "just as I knew I would. 'But I never counted on this — the greatest Christmas present in all the world.'"

Hundreds of strangers at home and abroad wrote the victim of a rare blood disease at the Hospital of the Rockefeller University here. American servicemen wrote from overseas stations.

"It gives you a funny feeling, a real warm feeling," Miss Smith said in her hospital room Monday night.

"You somehow get to thinking that people today are just too taken up with themselves to worry about anyone else, much less care about a total stranger. Then along come all these beautiful letters and you see just how wrong you were."

"People do care."

Stricken at 15, Miss Smith has been in and out of hospitals 26 times, received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church six times and was on the critical list "at least a dozen other times."

The blood disease, lupus erythematosus, once was considered progressively fatal but now is controllable with proper medicines.

"Any courage and determination I have I owe to my mother and I'm going to be home with her and Dad for the Christmas holidays," Miss Smith told The Associated Press 12 days ago.

"You can count on that."

About half the letters came from victims of the disease or relatives of victims.

"So many of them said they never knew of anyone else suffering with the disease," Miss Smith said. "And they said it gave them added hope and encouragement to know that they are not alone — to know that there are others who have the disease but are fighting it all down the line."

"This morning I woke up feeling very sorry for myself," wrote Bob Hacker, serving in West Germany with Company D of the Army's 9th Engineer Battalion.

"I had been thinking about home and Christmas and feeling blue because I couldn't be home with my family for the holiday season."

"I proceeded to read an article written about you and after I had finished, I felt very stupid and foolish. I thought to myself how very lucky I was to have my health and be able to do my part for my country."

"I would like to express my sincere admiration and respect for your determination and courage."

Miss Smith had summed up her success against the disease: "I guess I'm just too stubborn to die."

"Dear Stephanie: Pray for me. I am stubborn too," wrote Dolores Touzet, of New Orleans, La., on a Christmas card.

One Illinois man who said he was 74, sent a Christmas card and a dollar bill. He said it was all he could afford.

Mrs. Arthur Sawski, of Baltimore, Md., wrote that she too suffers with the disease.

"But I have fooled them and so have you," she wrote. "I will keep praying for you and please say a prayer for me."

Miss Smith, sufficiently recovered from her latest siege which began during the summer, will spend the holidays in her family's Manhattan apartment with her mother, father and a sister, Antonia, 25.

PEACE

are confident that the current situation practically offers us a very favorable opportunity to step up further our armed and political struggles, as well as military recruitment. These three movements must be carried out simultaneously."

Viet Cong propaganda claims control of four-fifths of South Viet Nam's territory with 10 million of the 14 million population. It concedes the Saigon government's control of the larger cities, so its emphasis there is on political attack.

In Saigon and other cities, say broadcast instructions, the movement is to reach a higher level now, concentrating on exploiting every evidence of public discontent. The broadcasts call for agitation for strikes on wages, cost of living, housing and other issues, and a movement "particularly to oppose conscription by every means possible, such as holding discussions among youths and high school and collective students."

They add: "Although the political struggle movement has developed and achieved a number of successes, compared to the armed struggle movement it has not yet developed proportionally."

The Viet Cong has many agents in South Viet Nam's cities. These now presumably are under orders to join with and encourage every discontented element.

Exploiting the conscription issue would not be difficult. The Saigon regime already has trouble with it. Over the past two years there have been about 160,000 desertions from the ranks of the new recruits, although desertion in Viet Nam cannot be viewed in the same light as desertion in a Western sense. In many cases the recruits just wander off to visit their families. Some straggle back and are forgiven.

Durand Canning Gross To Top $2½ Million

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — Sales by Durand Canning Co. are expected to exceed $2½ million this year, according to Manager John Mayer.

The payroll will exceed $300,000 and farmers in the area who raised the peas and beans that were canned will receive about $400,000 for their raw products.

THIS IS the combined business of the plant at Durand and Mondovi Canning Corp., which was purchased this year by the concern here and continues in operation.

Durand Canning Co. was organized by a group of local businessmen in 1921 and has been in continuous operation 44 years. Operations were kept at a comparatively modest level until the 1950s, when a great many small canneries throughout the nation went out of business. Those that survived found it necessary to expand.

Sales of the Durand company had never exceeded a half-million dollars until that time. By 1958, sales had doubled to about a million dollars annually.

In 1957, 1959 and 1961 new warehouses were built to handle expanded activities and many new factory additions were constructed, including a new office. Another new warehouse is under construction at the present time.

TWO NEW warehouses were constructed at Mondovi this year to handle increased production there. Under new management, the Mondovi plant produced nearly 400,000 cases of canned vegetables this year.

Mayer has been manager of the company since 1951. He handles all sales and general administration of both plants. K. F. Lange, former manager of Lange Canning Corp., Menomonie, is his assistant.

Plant manager at Mondovi is Vernon Kern. Delbert King is production superintendent at the Durand plant. Kern and King are in charge of personnel; including hiring of pack employees at their respective plants.

OFFICE managers are Ronald Hemmy at Mondovi and Marie Shaw at Durand. Fieldmen are Wallace Hemmy at Mondovi and Ross Larson at Durand.

Officers of Durand Canning Co. are: W. H. Gillmore, president; M. H. Ward, vice president; John T. Nicklas, secretary; Robert F. Goodrich, treasurer, and Henry E. Nicklas, Philo W. Goodrich and Mayer, directors.

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Germany has publicly stated it seeks no nuclear weapons of its own, and wants at this time only a bigger say in their possible European use.

A West German spokesman announced the position Monday after Chancellor Ludwig Erhard conferred with President Johnson. The two leaders wind up two days of talks today.

Said State Secretary Karl Guenther von Hase: "Germany, the chancellor stressed, is not interested in national ownership, but asks for closer co-termination and for continued consultation."

Johnson and Erhard met in closed session with only interpreters present, and their spokesmen gave few details of the conversation.

White House press secretary Bill D. Moyers said only that they talked about "nuclear policy and the President's efforts to assess the present German position."

There was neither confirmation nor denial of reports that the Germans favor an Atlantic nuclear force under which European nations would share ownership of a 10-submarine fleet armed with Polaris missiles. The submarines would be under command of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The ANF is Britain's alternative to the U.S. proposal for a multilateral force — MLF — which would involve NATO control of surface vessels armed with missiles and manned by sailors from NATO countries.

Britain has objected to the mixed manning as unworkable. Its plan would fit in with the Labor government's pre-election pledge to abolish what Prime Minister Harold Wilson once called his nation's "so-called independent, so-called deterrent" — the expensive-to-maintain submarines.

The Erhard-Johnson meeting also triggered talk of cooperation in other areas. These were made publicly at a state dinner.

Both came from Johnson in his formal toast.

He proposed that the two nations join in "exploration of space," perhaps "a probe to the sun, and another, a probe to Jupiter."

Johnson said this was an "ambitious plan to permit us to do together what we cannot do so well alone."

The President also announced he will send a mission headed by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall to West Germany next month. Its goal will be to study the German anti-pollution program which, Johnson said, is one of the most effective in the world.

In his toast, Johnson also said "the reunification of Germany in peace and freedom is a major goal," and he related U.S. support in Viet Nam to Europe.

"If it is not good in Viet Nam, who can trust it in the heart of Europe?" he asked, then answered: "But America's word is good in Viet Nam, as it is good in Berlin."

The President said the United States will push on every door for peace in Viet Nam, "but it takes two to talk and it takes two, as well, to stop the fighting."

The Erhard toast also included a reference to Viet Nam. He said the United States is making great sacrifices to preserve freedom in Viet Nam, and "I feel ashamed because what we can contribute is very modest compared to what you do."

Blood Donors Names to Be On Yule Tree

HARMONY, Minn. (Special)

— The names of the 101 persons from the Harmony area who donated a pint of blood to the Red Cross bloodmobile Monday will be printed on small replicas of the pint containers and hung on a Christmas tree in the post office that was donated for the purpose by a local florist, Mrs. L. J. Wilson, Rushford, Fillmore County blood chairman, said this morning.

This visit of the bloodmobile got off to a good start here. It's at Spring Valley today; will be at the Lanesboro Community Hall Wednesday from 2 to 7 p.m., and at the Chatfield Lutheran Church Thursday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The theme of this near-Christmas visit is helping — "Will this be your gift to the community?"

There were 19 walk-ins at Harmony and 18 rejects. Mrs. Clara Karl received a two-gallon pin. One-gallon pins went to George Johnson, Donald Tammel, Arden Wilford and Mrs. Everett Anderson, who was local chairman of the project.

Donors came from Mabel, Canton and Granger and areas as well as Harmony.

23 Killed in Portugal Wreck

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Investigators today counted 23 persons killed and approximately 70 injured as they sought an explanation for the Iberian Peninsula's third serious railroad accident in as many days.

Christmas shoppers homeward bound from Lisbon filled a six-car suburban electric train which smashed into a local freight train Monday coming toward the capital on the same track. Railway officials said they believed all the victims were Portuguese.

The trains collided at Alguirao.

Wisconsin Wreckers Lose Right to Use Red Flasher Lights

MADISON, Wis. — The Wisconsin Motor Vehicle Department has reminded garages and service stations operating wreckers that they must comply with a new law by Jan. 1 which requires a change of lighting equipment on their vehicles.

In general, the change eliminates flashing red lights and authorizes flashing amber lights instead.

Previously, sheriffs and chiefs of police were permitted to authorize the installation of red lights on tow trucks for use only when moving disabled vehicles. This permission can no longer be granted.

No Change In De Gaulle Program

PARIS (AP)—Charles de Gaulle, re-elected to a new seven-year term as president, said Tuesday night he considered he had a mandate from the whole of the French people to continue his efforts for "independence and peace."

De Gaulle got 55 per cent of the votes in Sunday's election against Francois Mitterrand, who was presented as the candidate of the left.

Opposition leaders have been saying De Gaulle's failure to get a first-round majority showed that his policies no longer have the support of the nation. In the first ballot, against five opposition candidates, De Gaulle got just over 44 per cent of the vote.

But the 76-year-old De Gaulle said Tuesday night:

"Since Dec. 19, 1965, the chief of state holds, indeed, a direct mandate from the whole French people. Moreover, the campaign showed that the entire country intended it to be this way, whatever the electoral division of its citizens."

Milwaukeean Slain, 2 Policemen Wounded

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A man was shot to death and two policemen were wounded critically in an exchange of gunfire in front of a South Side residence early today.

The victim was identified as Gary Lee, 25. The shooting occurred in front of the building where he lived.

Johnson, his wife, two daughters and about 200 guests marked the Christmas season in honor of Erhard with costumed University of Maryland madrigal singers, the American Light Opera Company carolers and opera star Robert Merrill singing yuletide songs in English and German.

The Marine Band concentrated on slow, romantic dance numbers and the usual Christmas selections.

She was born here Nov. 28, 1889, to Mr. and Mrs. John Ludwig. Mrs. Thimmesh was a teacher in the Chisholm, Minn., public schools before her marriage. She and her husband lived all their married lives in Caledonia.

Pursue Peace Feelers, Says Vermont Solon

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said today the United States must pursue diligently any Viet Nam peace feelers—no matter how tenuous they may appear.

"The alternative to negotiations may be a long war, costly in lives and national resources," Aiken said in an interview. He is the senior Republican in the Senate and a member of the Foreign Relations Committee.

While the Vermont senator was emphasizing the need to pursue peace feelers, a leading House Republican, Rep. Melvin E. Laird of Wisconsin, praised the Johnson administration for stepping up bombing in Viet Nam and urged greater use of U.S. seapower in the Viet Nam war.

"They've decided to escalate the war on the ground," he said in an interview. "We think greater consideration should be given to a Kennedy-type quarantine, which we think will bring about the national goal of unconditional discussions with the North Vietnamese."

The Wisconsin congressman referred to the type of tight naval blockade President John F. Kennedy set up around Cuba during the missile crisis of 1962. Other Republican leaders have spoken in favor of such a technique in Viet Nam.

Laird said President Johnson has clearly set a goal of unconditional discussions.

"The question is how best to bring about this goal," Laird said. "Couldn't you do it and cut casualties by means of a Kennedy-type quarantine? Ninety per cent of their war material is coming in by sea."

Increasing ground power would be moving into the area where the Viet Cong is strongest, Laird said. "Why not operate in areas where we have superiority? We believe a Kennedy-type quarantine would bring a settlement much faster than sending in 150,000 more troops."

Aiken expressed disappointment that a conditional peace offer by North Viet Nam—later repudiated by Hanoi—had been made public by the State Department.

The Vermont senator said this feeler had been reported to a delegation of senators, headed by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, during the course of a world fact-finding trip they completed Saturday night.

"We had our fingers crossed," he said. "We didn't think it was true. But the fact is that offers to negotiate must come in some such lower level because they can't come from the top."

A reputed offer by President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam to go anywhere and talk to anyone about possible peace was relayed through two Italians who visited him in Hanoi. It was made public last Friday by the State Department after published reports said such an offer had been rejected.

Hanoi called the reported offer a fraud but admitted that Ho had conferred with the two Italians.

Commanders Can Cross Into Cambodia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department indicated today that U.S. military commanders in Viet Nam have authority to fight across the Cambodian border if it is "essential" for the protection of their forces.

A spokesman said "American military commanders throughout the world have authority to take those actions essential in the exercise of the inherent right of self-defense to protect their forces."

"Discretion in the application of this authority is lodged at the highest levels of command compatible with effective self-defense."

The United States has long complained that Communist troops fighting in South Viet Nam used rest areas in Cambodia, fleeing to them through the protection of the jungle.

Goodview Sets Enforcement on Gas Permits

The village of Goodview will crack down on building contractors who fail to obtain permits for installation of gas furnaces, Clarence Russell, village clerk, told the village council Monday night.

A village ordinance has been in effect since June 1961, but has not been rigidly enforced, and many contractors have failed to get the permits.

The permit must be taken out by the person installing the furnace before any construction starts, Russell said.

NORTHERN States Power Co. does not inspect such installations, he said, so the village must. The permits allow the village to maintain adequate safety standards and uniformity in the gas-line system.

Failure to obtain a gas permit is a misdemeanor, and can be punishable by a fine of not more than $100 or 90 days in jail.

In other business, Leonard Merchlewitz, 202 High Forest St., submitted a proposal to establish a trailer court on property he owns between 41st and 44th Streets, north of 5th Avenue. He plans to begin with 24 units and enlarge to 68 units. No action was taken.

The council hired Oscar Steurnagel, Lewiston, as village assessor, at a salary of $6,500. The council interviewed Steurnagel and Conrad Brandt, rural Lewiston.

Goodview Fire Chief Joseph Trochta presented specifications for a new fire truck. The council scheduled a special meeting in January to examine specifications.

COUNCIL members authorized moving one street light from in front of Brems Sign & Display Co., at the intersection of Highway 61 and 34th Street, to a location between the Goodview fire hall and liquor store. A light is needed here to discourage loitering around or behind the liquor store at night, it was explained.

The council authorized payment of all village bills.

BUILDING permits authorized were:

E. J. Chick, 4730 6th Ave., adding to garage and dining room, $350.

Frame house, 4150 Service Dr., unattached garage, 54 by 28 feet, $12,000.

Ed Whitten & Son, 916 38th Ave., frame house and attached garage, 64 by 24 feet, $13,500.

Gophers Win

Clark, Sophs Take Up Slack 92-88

DETROIT (AP) — Few basketball games they ever play will mean as much to one savvy old senior and a band of eager, hustling young sophomores as the Minnesota Gophers' fifth straight victory of the season here Monday night.

Archie Clark, the 24-year old Army veteran who is the pappy and captain of the Gophers, poured in 38 points to lead Minnesota to a 92-88 victory over Detroit University.

He got a lot of help from five clean-faced yearlings — Bill Moore, Nick Prikladka, Fred Kusch, Tom Kondla and Wayne Barry.

The sophomores stood tall on a night when the Gophers had to overcome the adversities of the loss of scoring ace Lou Hudson, some foreign court officiating and a hostile crowd.

And veterans Paul Presthus, Wes Martins and Dennis Dvoracek did their share, too.

"Just say we wanted it badly," said Clark, whose 38 points on 15 of 25 field goals and 8 of 12 free throws were two more than Hudson ever scored on his last night.

"We really wanted to win this one for Louis," added Presthus, who chipped in with 17 points.

Martins, the Gophers' No. 3 scorer with 13 points, paid tribute to the sophomores. "What a great feeling to see those guys come off the bench swinging," he said.

"It's a real tribute to this team," enthused Coach John Kundla. "They wanted to go out and get this one. Archie's leadership was great. He knew the weight shifted to him when Louis got hurt. He really responded like a champion."

The Gophers' stirring show wiped out a brilliant individual effort by Detroit's 6-foot-9 center Dorie Murrey.

He scored 44 points on 15 of 24 field shots and 14 of 18 free throws, and also grabbed 34 rebounds, which was seven more than the Gophers got credit for. Minnesota spurred late in the first half to take a 47-40 lead at intermission and then once built a 17-point bulge at 88-71 with about four minutes left. Then the Gophers got a little careless to enable Detroit to erode the final margin to only four points.

Kondla drew his fourth foul only seven seconds into the second half and fouled out with 14 minutes left. Then Dvoracek drew his fifth foul with 12 minutes remaining, meaning the Gophers had three usual regulars on the bench down the stretch. Dvoracek got 10 points and Moore 8.

Kondla and Dvoracek both fouled out in vain efforts to guard Murrey, who repeatedly benefited from officials' calls which had Kundla walking onto the court time after time.

Murrey would back into the Gopher defenders, or push his way toward the basket with the referees continually whistling the Minnesotans for fouls.

Minnesota now goes to Logan, Utah, Thursday night to meet Utah State.

Gophers Athletic Director Marsh Ryman said Monday there is no chance that Hudson, who broke his right wrist last Saturday, can get another year of eligibility in the Big Ten. He cited conference policy which holds that if a player competes in more than one game before he is hurt he cannot get another year.

MATTE MESSAGE . . . Tom Matte, converted Baltimore linebacker who will play quarterback against the Green Bay Packers Sunday in the playoff of the National Football

Packers Wary of Matte

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — In Green Bay Packers' eyes, Baltimore quarterback Tom Matte may be a leftover but not a pushover.

"The feeling of the players last Saturday was this Matte looked as good as any quarterback we've seen," said Packers' defensive tackle Henry Jordan.

The Colts are left with only Matte to guide their attack against the Packers in the playoff for the National Football League's Western Conference crown here Sunday.

Injuries have sidelined Johnny Unitas and back-up man Gary Cuozzo, and the Colts decided Monday not to ask a rules waiver to make newly acquired Ed Brown eligible for the game.

The Packers watched on television as Matte led Baltimore to a 20-17 decision over Los Angeles the day before a 24-24 tie with San Francisco forced Green Bay into the playoff.

"He's a real professional. He's cool and he's poised," said Jordan.

Matte, who appeared in only two series when the Packers beat the Colts 42-27 two weeks ago, will be the third starting quarterback for Baltimore that Green Bay has faced in three games this season.

The Packers, who enjoyed a day of rest Monday, were to meet today to go over game strategy. Jordan, the All-NFL tackle who bulwarks Green Bay's front four, said, "I'd guess we'll be expecting a running offense, so we'll have to change our defense."

Green Bay nipped Unitas and Baltimore 20-17 in Milwaukee in the second game of the season, then blasted Cuozzo and the Colts at Baltimore in a showdown for first place two weeks ago.

Coach Vince Lombardi said then the Packers were at their psychological peak and there may be a question whether the team can reach the same readiness.

"At this stage it's not the physical things, but mostly mental," said Jordan, a 250-pound, nine-year veteran from the University of Virginia.

"We might have been a little too high last Sunday in San Francisco," he added. "Everything we did, it seemed nothing clicked. We may have been trying too hard."

With Matte, a converted running back who has thrown only sparingly, at the reins of the Colts, Jordan said the Packers defense will probably concentrate on a containment policy, such as used against Minnesota's scrambling quarterback, Fran Tarkenton.

The San Francisco tie left the Packers with a 10-3 record identical to that of Baltimore. Despite their two victories over the Colts, the Packers lost during the season to Chicago, Detroit and Los Angeles.

"It looks like everyone is trying to give us the championship, but we keep throwing it away," Jordan said.

He saw one advantage in the playoff to determine which team will be host to Eastern Conference titlist Cleveland in the NFL championship game Jan. 2.

"This playoff will help whoever wins, Green Bay or Baltimore. A week layoff, I think, hurts you. You get out of the habit of hitting."

Matte to Carry Plays on Wrist

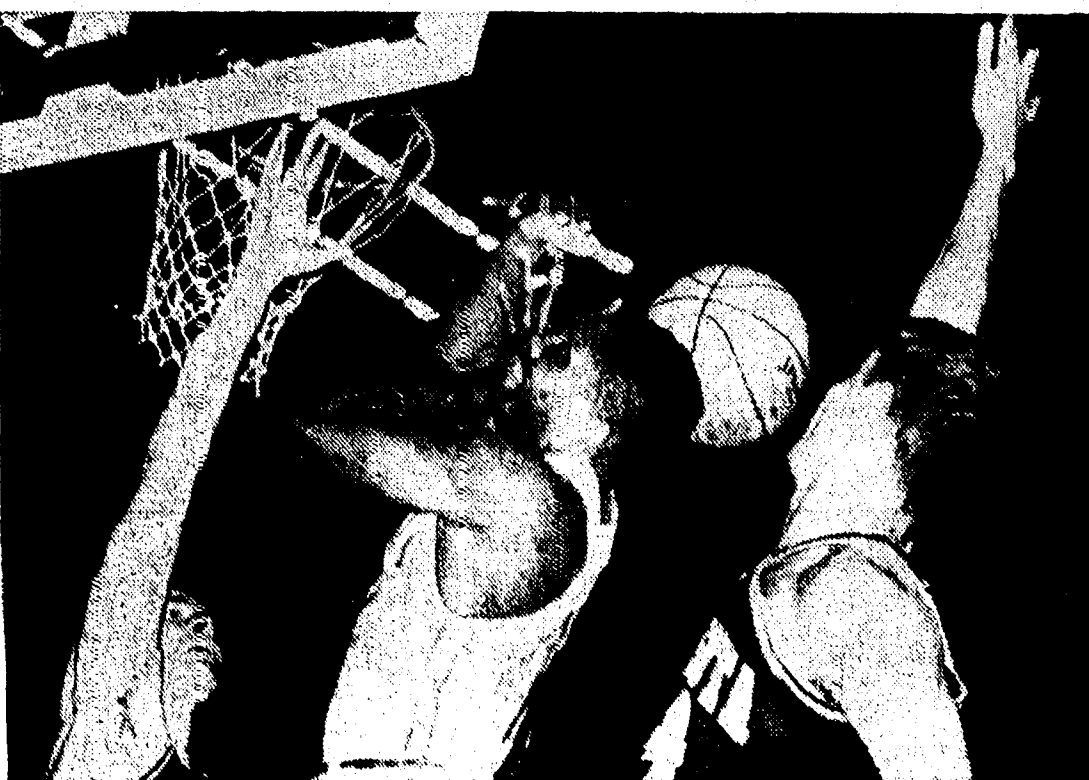

BALTIMORE (AP) — Tom Matte, carrying a list of plays on a wristband for easy reference, will quarterback the Baltimore Colts in their decisive game against the Green Bay Packers Sunday.

The plastic-covered "peep sheet," suggested by Baltimore Coach Don Shula, was used by Matte last Saturday when he started his first National Football League game at quarterback and helped direct a 20-17 upset victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

Matte, a converted halfback, was guaranteed the starting job in Sunday's playoff for the Western Conference title when NFL owners declined Monday to make quarterbacks Ed Brown and George Haffner eligible for the Green Bay contest. The winner will play Eastern Conference champion Cleveland for the NFL title on Jan. 2.

"At least I know where I stand now . . . all alone," Matte said. "But I can't have any more pressure on me than I had last week, so what difference does it make?"

ral the loose ball for the Gophers are Bryan Grohne (40) and Dennis Dvoracek (24). (AP Photofax)

Nett Seeks End To Rebound Woes

Mike Twomey needs help, and John Nett hopes he's going to get it, starting tonight.

Twomey, Cotter High School's 6-5 center, has been the entire Rambler rebounding attack this season. And although the husky pivotman has done an adequate job, rebounding has definitely been one of the sore spots in the Rambler's 2-3 record.

"We don't have real good size mentioned Cotter cagers about on a par with the biggest Columbus has to offer.

Besides an improved board game, what else will Nett be looking for tonight?

"AN IMPROVEMENT on our won-lost record," chuckled the veteran coach. "Actually, it would do us good if we could win this one after that loss the other night."

"In spite of the fact that we have five lettermen, we're still inexperienced. We have boys who are new at their positions and a lot of the errors we make are because of this."

Cotter's loss Friday night to Rochester Lourdes by a 51-50 score did have one bright note in it, however. The Rambler, who Nett has felt all along have been good shooters, showed it for the first time in the second half, hitting over 50 percent of their shots.

PRIOR TO tonight's varsity affair, the Cotter B squad will battle the Cotter freshmen in a game slated to start at 6:15 p.m. Wednesday night, the Rambler travel to Owatonna for a scrap with Marian. That game will be the last before Cotter hosts the third annual invitational holiday tournament at St. Mary's Dec. 28-29.

New Cage Poll Due for Shakeup

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
UCLA's defending national champions, victims of the latest shuffle in college basketball's power struggle, can expect company before the next accounting.

No sooner had the weekly ratings been adjusted Monday night, with Duke clinging to the No. 1 spot and UCLA off the roll for the first time in three years, than pot shots knocked off two more members of the Top Ten.

Houston, paced by sophomore Elvin Hayes, surprised Providence, No. 7 in The Associated Press poll, 102-89 while Southern Illinois went on a 24-1 spurt in the second half and startled eighth-ranked Wichita 89-68.

There'll be at least one more loser among the elite teams after tonight's action. The top-ranked Blue Devils meet No. 3 Michigan at Detroit and second-ranked St. Joseph's of Philadelphia has a tough road assignment at Brigham Young.

Fourth-ranked Vanderbilt entertains California Santa Barbara and Montana visits No. 5 Bradley tonight in other games involving the top clubs.

Providence, which had won its first five starts, couldn't cope with Houston's height advantage on the Cougars' court. The 6-foot-9 Hayes did the heaviest damage with 33 points and led a 20-8 spurt early in the second half that shot Houston ahead to stay 72-63. The Cougars out-rebounded Providence 22-4 during the decisive rally.

Jim Walker led the Friars with 30 points, hitting on 10 of 15 shots from the floor.

At Carbondale, Ill., Southern Illinois turned a 47-42 deficit into a commanding 66-48 bulge by reeling off 13 and 11 points in succession around a single free throw by Wichita. Boyd O'Neal and Clarence Smith each scored six points and George McNeil four in the SIU spurt.

O'Neal topped Southern Illinois, the nation's No. 3 small-college team, with 22 points and 15 rebounds. The Shockers, who were unbeaten in four previous games, lost the battle of the boards 68-37.

Duke, which whipped UCLA twice two weeks ago and improved its record to 6-1 with a come-from-behind victory over Virginia last Saturday, received 28 of 40 first-place votes in The AP poll of sportswriters and broadcasters. UCLA, which slipped to 3-3 when beaten by Cincinnati, fell out of the Top Ten after placing eighth a week ago.

Mantle Receives Hutch Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle has been named winner of the first Hutch Award, it was announced today.

The voting, by major league broadcasters and baseball writers, was based on "the player who best exemplifies the fighting spirit and burning desire of the late Fred Hutchinson."

Hutchinson, former American League pitching star and manager of the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds, died of cancer Nov. 12, 1964.

Mantle will receive his trophy at the annual dinner of the New York Baseball Writers chapter next Jan. 30.

Tarkenton, Flatley, Cox Set Viking Records

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fran Tarkenton, Paul Flatley and Fred Cox set Minnesota Viking team records for most yards passing, most yards on pass receptions and field goal kicking in the 1965 National Football League season.

Tarkenton passed for 2,609 yards to break his own club season record of 2,595 yards set in 1962. He wound up with 171 completions — which tied his own club record for completions set last year — in 329 attempts and had 19 touchdown aeriels and 11 interceptions. His 329 attempts also tied his own club record, set in 1962.

Flatley caught 50 passes — one shy of his club record for receptions — but they went for 896 yards as he wiped out his team mark for yardage of 867 set in 1963. Flatley led the Vikings in touchdown catches with seven.

Cox booted 21 of 35 field goal attempts this year to break his record of 21 fielders set last year when he tried 33 kicks. Cox also broke his own record for points scored, adding 41 straight extra point kicks for a season total of 113 tallies. Also in the club record department, defensive back Ed Sharockman's six pass interceptions tied the mark held by Sharockman (1962) and George Rose (1964).

For the second straight year, fullback Bill Brown topped the Minnesotans in rushing. He gained 699 yards on 160 carries for a 4.4 average. Tommy Mason was next with 597 yards on 141 carries, a 4.2 average.

Brown also was the runner-up in pass receiving with 41 catches for 593 yards. Mason and Gordie Smith each caught 22 aeriels, Mason for 321 yards and Smith for 431 and five touchdowns.

Bobby Walden's punting average slipped from an NFL-leading 46.4 average to 42.1 this year on 51 kicks.

Mason led the Vikings in punt returns, carrying back nine kicks for 63 yards. Rookie Lance Rentzel topped the kickoff return department with 23 carries for 602 yards, while rookie Dave Osborn carried 18 for 422 yards. As a team, the Vikings held a 277-242 margin over their opponents in first downs and out-gained their 14 NFL foes 4,824 to 4,248 in total yards. Still, the Vikings allowed a league-leading 403 points while scoring 383 themselves.

Minnesota led its opponents 2,278 to 1,755 in rushing yardage and 2,546 to 2,493 in passing yards.

The Vikings also broke all their season attendance records, both at home and away. They played before 683,497 fans in 14 league games, an average of 48,821.

At home, Vikings attendance totaled 321,119, including four sellouts, for an average of 45,874. On the road, with 83,505 watching them at Cleveland, Minnesota played before 362,378, an average of 51,768.

LET'S TALK SPORTS

VIC GISLASON, WINONA HIGH School athletic director, recently received the following letter from Minnesota Governor Karl F. Rolvaag:

"How well do we guide our young people? How can we do a better job in helping them achieve a responsible, mature and balanced understanding of the problems of society and of their own place in it?"

"The Governor's Advisory Council on Children and Youth has, over the years, provided invaluable service in examining these and other questions relating to youth, and in proposing new approaches to the assignment that confronts us. I depend heavily on the recommendations of the dedicated volunteers who serve as council members."

"The purpose of this letter is to ask you to accept membership on the Physical Fitness Committee of the Governor's Advisory Council on Children and Youth. You have already made important contributions in this area and I am hopeful that you will wish to continue by serving on this committee."

"I am pleased to announce that Robert W. Johnson of Anoka has agreed to serve again as chairman of the Advisory Council on Children and Youth. You will be working under his direction in the development of the Biennial Conference scheduled for April 1966, and in carrying out the other work of the Council."

"I hope that you will accept appointment and share in this most important activity."

Gislason, of course, accepted the appointment. In fact, he attended a meeting of the group in the Twin Cities Saturday. He reports that the plan now is to bring successful programs developed in the pilot communities, of which Winona was one, into a wider area.

GISLASON ALSO POINTS OUT an article in the December issue of the Minnesota State High School League bulletin.

Written by Clifford B. Fagan, executive secretary of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations, the article deals with the differences between professional and amateur sports.

Pens Fagan: "Misunderstanding results when a person or group does not differentiate between the reasons for professional athletics and athletics which are sponsored by educational institutions. Trouble ensues when a fan or official uses the same standards to judge professional and school athletics."

"Unless the interscholastic program serves educational purposes, it has no place in the school program. School athletic policies must be determined on the basis of the effect athletics have on the education of the student. When this principle is observed, the conduct and nature of the program is crystal clear."

"Professional sports are, of course, entertainment. They are a phase of show business. This is perfectly legitimate. Their purpose is different from that of interscholastic athletics. Because of the differences in purposes of educational sports and professional sports, it is necessary that there be separate and individual standards for each level. The knowledge and acceptance of this fact dictates that officiating procedures in professional sports and for the school-college community cannot be identical."

"While it may be perfectly justifiable for officials of professional games to tolerate abuse from professional coaches, unprofessional acts by school coaches and players cannot be tolerated. The contention that abuse from coaches is excusable because it isn't personal is, of course, a most ridiculous alibi. Nothing is, nor can be, more personal than a coach's or player's abuse of an official. Because such abuse is excused at the professional level, makes it in no way acceptable at the interscholastic level and it must not be tolerated there."

"The professionals are not particularly concerned with contributing to the education of those who participate in their games. By contrast, unless participation in interscholastic athletics does contribute to the participant's education, there is no place for athletics in the school program. Such contributions can, and will, be made only when coaches accept the decisions of officials and when officials promptly and consistently penalize those coaches who are violating the standards of the game."

At the same time, it might be pointed out that the fan, too, should have a moral obligation to refrain from booing and abusive statements. The bunk that it is legal to "boo because I paid to get in" is ridiculous. Your boos only serve to push the players and coaches beyond their bounds.

We, in Winona, can consider ourselves fortunate that our coaches act like gentlemen. And, for the most part, this has been true of the fans. That's a healthy situation.

THERE COMES A NOTE from Lanesboro correspondent Vienna Drake, a familiar name to District One coaches since she does their reporting, about a former resident here.

One Robert (Bebop) Hegg, a junior at Hawthorn, Calif., High School, was recently awarded the most valuable player plaque for his performance during football, including 124 tackles for the season.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hegg. His performance should serve an optimistic note for the little fella. Bebop stands 5-5 and weighs 140.

In other words, it's not the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog. Marv Gunderson, Winona High grid coach, will tell you desire is the most important attribute a footballer can have.

THE SWAMI PICKED correctly 26 of 38 last weekend. That ran his total to 183 of 252 for a .726 percentage.

For this week: COTTER over Marshfield Columbus 68-64. "The Swami says the Ramblers will rebound."

Owatonna Marian over COTTER 59-54. "The Marrians will be too hot to handle on their home floor."

Forest Lake over Faribault 63-54. Stewartville over Grand Meadow 67-60. Rochester over Minneapolis Southwest 67-62. Harmony over Mabel 68-63. Albert Lea over Wells 66-35. Irene Bronk Spills 239 for 3rd Place

For the second time in less than a week, a woman bowler has shaken up the top 10 standings with a fine single game effort. Six days ago Irene Trimmer socked a 243 for the highest in the city, and Monday night Irene Bronk blasted a 239 to move into third place. Rolling for Coca Cola in the Pin Topplers League at Westgate Bowl, Irene used her 239 to anchor a 572 series that sparked Coke to a 846.

Main Tavern grabbed series laurels with 2,580.

Other honor counts went to Yvonne Carpenter 541, Helen Englerth 518, Jane Maschka 514 and Marianne O'Brien 500. Irene Trimmer collected a 495 errorless, while Vivian E. Brown converted the 470-10 split.

On the male side of the alleys, the City League at Hal-Rod Lanes also had a pair of high singles. Arnie Breitlow smacked 245-611, and Rod Doebbert came up with another 245 as the pair sparked Bunk's Apco 1,061-2,923.

Bob Jandt had 616 for Country Kitchen, while Earl Kane came up with a 610 errorless. Ken Tepe also had an errorless 567.

Westgate was the site of the high men's series, a 625 by Dennis Daly for Sunbeam Bread in the Community League.

Eugene Schuele hammered a 232 to pace Schmidt's Beer to 1,040-2,927.

WINONA ATHLETIC CLUB: Go Getters—Lois Schacht socked 167-472 to lead E.B.'s Corner to 2,449 and the first half title. Graham McGuire hit 834. Monday—Rick Chuchna's 576 sparked Schlitz Beer to 989-2,786, but Ahrens-Platt Oil Co. held onto the lead behind Rich Schreiber's 213.

WESTGATE: Ladies — Had-dad's totaled 898-2,591 behind Elaine Bambenek's 194. Esther Klein ripped 528 for Grulkowski Beauty Shop, and Shirley Gehlhaart picked up the 6-7 split.

Alley Gaters—Sharon Fiedler came up with 198 for Nash's, but Fenske Body Shop garnered team honors of 899-2,611 behind Jan Wiecezorek's 549. Joann House tumbled the 6-7 split.

Sunsetters — In last week's action, Mitzie Troke's 154-482 triplicate was inadvertently omitted.

RED MENS ALLEYS: Monday Nite—Steve Belisle topped 463 for Bub's, and George Wenzel Jr. laced 189 for Sunbeam. Schmidts totaled 921-2,604.

HAL-ROD: Park Rec Jr. Girls—All Stars came up with a clean sweep to move their record to 8-0 on a 1,265 series and Carol Lilla's 169-329. Castaways totaled 685.

VFW — The Milkmen took most of the laurels as Tom Drazkowski hit 591 for Winona Milk, and Polly Meadows tallied 978-2,853. Bob Kratz managed to break the dairy monopoly with a 226 for Hamm's.

From Frying Pan To Fire for CFC

From the frying pan to the fire goes the old saw, and who ever thought it up must have been thinking of the Cochrane-Fountain City High School basketball team.

The Pirates, who have been struggling to a 2-4 record this year, played Alma Center a week ago tonight. Alma Center, at the time, had the toughest one-two scoring punch in the Dairyland Conference.

Wednesday night, just one week and one day later, Cochrane-Fountain City goes up against another such crew, only this week's foe has the toughest one-two punch in the entire area.

Alma, No. 1 ranked in the first Daily News area basketball poll last Sunday, will provide the competition for CFC Wednesday night. Leading them will be John Stohr and Mike Moham who hold 22 and 21.2 scoring averages, respectively. Cochrane-Fountain City met Alma earlier in the year, losing a 91-65 decision. Last Tuesday, the Pirates fell before a similar one-two punch in losing to Alma Center 69-55. But last Friday night, coach Dave Feindt may have found the right combination.

The Pirates exploded offensively for the first time this season in pasting Augusta 87-52. Feindt hopes his team can keep up the momentum for the same type of effort against Alma.

Wisconsin Wins 2nd On TD Pass

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—An arching, full-court pass gave Wisconsin the clinching bucket for a 76-72 basketball victory over Montana Monday night after erratic passing at short range had dissipated a 10-point lead.

Wisconsin had a two-point edge with nine seconds left when Dave Roberts took the ball out of bounds after two Montana free throws, sighted Ken Gustafson unguarded at the opposite end of the court, and hurled a long, looping pass to him for an easy layup and the Badgers' second victory in seven tries this season.

Roberts, who came off the bench as a reserve, hit four of five free throws, including a foul shot that had given the Badgers a 74-69 command before Montana closed in.

"Roberts really won this one for us," said Wisconsin Coach John Erickson. "He made one important free throw that gave us a five-point spread and then came through with the long pass. You can't beat experience, and he's a senior."

Gustafson led the scoring with 24 points, sinking 11 of 16 tries from the floor.

Former Olympian Collapses, Dies

GROVE, Okla. (AP)—One-time Olympic high jumper Tom Poor collapsed at the Grand Lake Sports Center near here Monday. The 62-year-old former University of Kansas track star was pronounced dead on arrival at a Grove hospital.

Poor, who took fourth in the 1924 Paris Olympics, resigned last April as executive secretary of the Grand Lake Association, a post he had held for 10 years.

Poor was a resident of Seneca, Mo.

Will Grabowski Break Hornung-Taylor Duo?

CHICAGO (AP)—Can a young athlete who was forward enough to break Red Grange's college rushing records beat out Jim Taylor or Paul Hornung for a starting berth in the Green Bay Packers' backfield in his first year in the National Football League?

That's what everyone was asking Jim Grabowski Monday after the Packers announced they had signed the University of Illinois fullback to a three-year contract.

Grabowski wouldn't predict whether he'll nudge Hornung or Taylor out of the starting lineup next year but Packer Coach Vince Lombardi said anything is possible.

"I think I'll learn a lot from them," Grabowski said of Taylor and Hornung. But, he added, "I'll do my best to break into the starting line-up."

"He's a real fine rushing back," said Lombardi, adding: "A good rushing back definitely can become a starter as a rookie in the National Football League."

Neither Lombardi nor Grabowski would reveal terms of the three-year contract, but scuttlebutt has it Grabowski will receive $50,000 a year plus a $100,000 bonus.

Lombardi feels the Illini All-America has the left to grind out the yardage in the tough NFL. He said he expects Grabowski to add another 100 pounds to his 215-pound frame.

Grabowski broke 16 rushing marks at Illinois, including four Big Ten records.

His conference records include most yards rushing in a season, 996; three-year career rushing total of 2,106 yards; three-year total yards, 2,078, and a single-game rushing record of 239 yards against Wisconsin as a junior. The last mark was two yards better than Grange's best performance, as a collegian at Illinois.

Gusties, St. Cloud Blast Cage Foes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gustavus Adolphus may emerge as the top challenger to St. Thomas in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference basketball race this season.

The Gusties of Coach Whitey Skoog ripped South Dakota State 84-69 Monday night for their third victory in five games. Gustavus, which led 41-36 at halftime, got 25 points from Al White and 24 from Bill Laumann. Elsewhere Monday night, St. Cloud ran its record to 8-2 with a 53-43 victory over Concordia of the MIAC, while Minnesota-Morris edged Huron, S.D., 90-89.

St. Cloud cracked a tough Concordia zone defense in the second half to win. Bob Moe of the Cobbers was high with 18 points and Izzy Schmiesing got 15 for St. Cloud.

Wayne Brabender collected 23 points and Doug MacIver 21 for Morris.

All state college teams are idle for a week before engaging in a multitude of holiday tournaments.

St. Cloud and St. Thomas could meet in the Dedication Tourney at St. Cloud State next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Also playing in that one are Hamline and St. John's, neither regarded in the class of the Huskies and Tommies.

Mankato State plays in the North Central Conference meet at Sioux Falls, S.D., Augsburg and St. Olaf in the Luther, Iowa, tourney, Winona and Carleton in the Carroll, Iowa, meet, and Concordia, Bemidji and Moorhead in the Red River Classic at Moorhead State. In addition, St. Mary's is at the St. Ambrose, Iowa, tourney and Gustavus in the Pan America meet at Edinburg, Tex.

Hope Launches Christmas Tour

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Bob Hope and his troupe of entertainers flew to Udon, in northeast Thailand, today to launch the comedian's 14th annual Christmas tour for U.S. troops overseas.

After a brief return to Bangkok, the troupe was to fly to Takli air base, 280 miles north of Bangkok, to entertain another group of American servicemen.

The group, which includes actress Carol Baker, bandleader Les Brown, singer Anita Bryant and beauty queen Diane Lynn Batts, arrived Sunday night.

Hope takes his troupe to South Viet Nam on Christmas Eve.

Part of Wilson Street Vacated

Vacation of a narrow portion of Wilson Street was approved Monday night by the City Council after a scheduled public hearing produced no opposition to the proposal.

The vacated portion is a strip one foot wide, between the sidewalk and the east wall of Hal-Rod Bowling Lanes, 403 W. 3rd St. The strip is 140 feet long, extending from the south line of 3rd Street south to the alley.

In its request to the council last month, the firm asked for vacation so it could move the building wall and make room for some interior improvements.

Vacation is accomplished by passage of an ordinance.

In another ordinance the council confirmed a previous action allowing use of three spaces on 5th Street for the approach to a curbside mailbox. The spaces are the easternmost of five lying between entrance and exit of the post office drive.

The new box now is in use, according to Acting Postmaster Lambert Hamerski.

City Council

BOARD REJECTS

chase price has been obtained and the cost of acquisition is only an estimate) — Leveling, excavation and backfilling for site improvement, $67,700; sewer and water extension, $50,000; land acquisition, $80,000, for a total of $97,700.

In the general assessment of the three sites the architects commented:

Siebrecht's area — Very good roads lead to the site from all directions. Buildings will be above the high water mark based on past flooding experience although the general area would be — at present — subject to flooding. Buildings can be seen from Highway 61.

The site is close to Community Memorial Hospital where students in the course for practical nursing take their training. The site is close to the city for supervision and administration. There are no problems as far as land is concerned for possible future school expansion.

Wincrest — Buildings and land would be high above water and there is no problem for future expansion. Immediate access from Winona on the Garvin Heights road might not be satisfactory although there is access from the south on a county road which is improved. A new road up Garvin Heights might entail a construction cost of around $250,000. The site is at a relatively great distance from the hospital and from the city school administration center. Possible assessments against loss could reduce the cost of sewer and water extensions.

Knopp Farm — Building and land would be high above flooding levels. Expansion would pose no problems. There is no convenient access to the property now; to provide access might require an additional expenditure of $20,000. There could be a traffic problem in the area although there is a good highway to the area at the present time.

AFTER DATA compiled by the architects had been discussed, Board President Lawrence Santelman asked whether the board felt that this information should simply be passed on to the Planning Commission or whether there should be a recommendation by the board as to its feelings about a school site.

Dr. C. W. Rogers, 3rd Ward, said that he, personally, felt that it would be fair "just to pass them the ball. I, for one, would be willing to take a stand. I'd hate to speak for the board but it seems to me that there has been a general consensus among us that the Siebrecht area is preferred. Whether the school would be located in area A or B is something that would depend on whether it was thought that sometime in the future a grade school might have to be built out there. I'm against Wincrest because of its accessibility."

TILLMAN, who referred to the gift of land at Wincrest as "a very charitable offer," said that he was concerned about accessibility, among other things.

Since the vocational-technical school students are of post-high school age "there would be no provisions for transportation for them, except by their own cars," Tillman commented, "unless the school board wants to get into the transportation business and I don't think it wants to."

"I also think that a school should be located where it can be seen and in the Siebrecht's area — especially if it were to be located at the north end — it would be seen easily from Highway 61 and I think it might prompt some prospective students to become interested in attending the school even though they might not have thought about it before."

FRAANK J. Allen Jr., 3rd Ward director, said he felt that there is "the obligation to make the school as readily available as possible. I also think it's important that it be in a location where it can be seen."

Dr. C. R. Kollafski, 2nd Ward, said he thought that the board had expressed its preference for the Siebrecht's area by taking building wall and make room for some interior improvements.

Vacation is accomplished by passage of an ordinance.

In another ordinance the council confirmed a previous action allowing use of three spaces on 5th Street for the approach to a curbside mailbox. The spaces are the easternmost of five lying between entrance and exit of the post office drive.

The new box now is in use, according to Acting Postmaster Lambert Hamerski.

OTHER COUNCIL business:

- A solicitation permit was granted to 7th Day Adventists who hope to raise $1,000 in the city for use in overseas welfare, medical, education and missionary programs.
- Darrel Johnson, assistant city recorder, was appointed secretary to the City Planning Commission at a salary of $25 per month. Council action followed a commission recommendation in the matter.
- An ordinance permitting installation of two underground 20,000-gallon fuel oil tanks at College of Saint Teresa was passed.
- Temporary transfer of $6,000 from general fund to the 1965 Emergency Flood Control Fund was authorized by resolution. The amount was needed to pay $6,161.50 balance to the Sam Miller Bag Co., Minneapolis, for emergency sandbags. The amount will be returned to the general fund when further federal disaster funds are allotted to the city.
- A one-hour parking stall was authorized at the front of Durley Studios, 177 W. Wabasha St. Ald. Henry Parks suggested that police not be burdened with enforcement of such scattered zones but that benefited persons assume responsibility for reporting violations.
- The state public examiner's office will be asked to help convert city bookkeeping from manual to mechanized form, effective April 1. Aldermen decided not to accept a proposal by a La Crosse accounting firm for management surveys and account conversion, at a figure of $7,800. A proposal by Evan Henry, Winona accountant, for converting the existing system to the standard state system, also was declined.

Feed Mill Burns

At Merrimac, Wis.

MERRIMAC, Wis. — Firemen from three communities fought a blaze which destroyed the Merrimac feed mill early today.

Merrimac firemen were aided by units from Sauk City and Baraboo after the first alarm was turned in around midnight.

Wilbur Zurbach, 58, owner of the mill, was hospitalized at Sauk City for treatment of over-exertion in helping to combat the flames.

an option on the Winona Management property.

Tillman agreed, adding, "I think we indicated this by our unanimous decision some time ago on the Noeske-Winona Management property."

Allen said that he thought it should be made clear that prior to its decision to recommend the East End area the board had made a careful study of suitability of a number of possible sites in the city.

Allen said that he thought that there might have been some misunderstanding on the part of the City Council when the board drafted its formal resolution recommending acquisition of the Winona Management property.

"WE MET with the Council that night and it was then that the downtown site was eliminated (a tract proposed in the urban renewal area)," Allen recalled. "Then we came back here and voted to recommend the acquisition of the Winona Management property. The Council may have thought we acted hastily but it should realize that prior to the decision we had made a careful study of all sites."

He added that although the offer of land as a gift on Wincrest was a generous one, "I think that we determined in our study that Wincrest would not suit our best purposes educationally."

AT THIS point a motion was presented to advise the Planning Commission that the board felt the Noeske-Winona Management property would provide the best school site and the motion was adopted without dissent.

There were plans for several school board members to meet with several planning commissioners informally at lunch today to review Monday's discussions of the board on the site issue.

No definite date has been set for consideration of the site matter by the commission.

Steels, Blue Chippers Up, Trade Active

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and assorted blue chips gave the stock market a substantial rise on average early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

The steels racked up some solid gains as they responded to another sharp gain in weekly steel production.

At the same time Wall Street's concerns about Viet Nam peace feelers, a possible tax increase and spreading interest rate boosts seem to have subsided considerably.

Many issues were rebounding on a technical basis from an oversold condition, analysts said.

A generally higher tone prevailed among aerospace issues, electronics, utilities and chemicals. A good many key stocks showed little or no change.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 8 to 354.9 with industrials up 1.8, rails unchanged and utilities up 4.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 6.68 at 858.90.

As steels advanced, Lukens rose 4 and Jones & Laughlin 2.

A 2-point jump by Eastman Kodak bolstered the averages. Also helpful in that respect were gains of nearly a point by American Telephone and Texas and a full point advance by Johns-Manville. More strength was contributed by Du Pont, Union Carbide, General Motors and United Aircraft, all of which made fractional gains.

Prices were mostly higher on the American Stock Exchange. Corporate bonds were mostly unchanged. U.S. Treasury bonds declined.
