Russ Missile Gets U.S. Jet

American Troops Under Heavy Fire

By JOHN T. WHEELER

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Army troops came under withering Communist fire today near Saigon and in the coastal rice lands. Over North Viet Nam, a pair of Soviet-made missiles knocked a Navy jet out of the sky.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived at the Saigon airport late today accompanied by South Vietnamese chief of state Nguyen Van Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky. He will leave for five other Asian capitals on Sunday after emphasizing the hopes for social, economic and political progress expressed by President Johnson at his Honolulu meeting with the Vietnamese leaders.

The brace of surface-to-air missiles hit the Navy A4 Skyhawk during a raid Wednesday on Hon Mat Island, 33 miles south of the North Vietnamese coastal city of Thanh Hoa, a U.S. spokesman reported. The pilot bailed out over the South China Sea and was rescued by a helicopter from the guided-missile frigate England.

The loss of the jet fighter-bomber was the first attributed to missiles since the United States ended the 37-day bombing pause on Jan. 31. Navy and Air Force planes kept up the heavy schedule of attacks on the Communist North, hitting bridges, trucks and railroad box cars.

Pilots reported intense anti-aircraft fire, which American military officials saw as proof of their warnings that the North Vietnamese would strengthen their air defenses during the suspension of raids.

The heaviest action on the ground broke out near Cu Chi, 25 miles west of Saigon, when a large number of Viet Cong snipers and mortar men rose like jacks-in-the-box from camouflaged openings in the huge tunnel complex in the area.

They poured heavy fire on two companies of the U.S. 25th Division who recently established positions in the area. The fighting broke out almost within hailing distance of their headquarters.

Army helicopters fired rockets at suspected Communist mortar positions, but it appeared they did not have much success. The Viet Cong apparently pulled back into their tunnels, which run for miles and are in four tiers in some places. The 25th Division troops are wrecking the tunnel system.

U.S. casualties were officially described as light, and the Communist toll was not known since the Viet Cong left behind no bodies. An exploding mortar killed a U. S. Army photographer and injured or killed several other Americans. Bob Jones, military writer of the Honolulu Advertiser, was hit in the back, leg, and hands by fragments from the mortar but was reported in good condition.

During the night, elements of two U. S. 101st Airborne companies collided with a Viet Cong force near Tuy Hoa, 240 miles northeast of Saigon, where Allied forces have been protecting the rice harvest in Operation Van Buren in the last three weeks. The sector had recently been pounded by Guam-based B52s.

The paratroopers said the fighting was so confused at times it was impossible to say who was firing on whom.

Other elements of the 101st sweep force came to the rescue and artillery and jet fighters supported the beleaguered unit with a heavy barrage. The Americans fired riot control gas at a suspected Communist position, and the Reds twice renewed the attack during the night.

U. S. casualties were light, a spokesman said. The Viet Cong left four bodies behind after the first skirmish. Their total losses were not known.

Mad Merry-Go-Round

Now a days "Success" means working harder to make more money to pay taxes you wouldn't be paying if you hadn't made so much money already ... Since everybody knows how to solve everybody else's problems, the answer is simple: Let's switch problems ... Some men find that certain tasks have to be put off dozens of times before they completely slip their minds ... The difference between a junior and a senior executive may be as much as 40 pounds.

New G.I. Bill Goes to White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress sent to President Johnson today a "cold war GI bill" establishing a permanent program of education and other benefits for veterans who serve more than six months.

The Senate accepted most changes made by the House in the bill the Senate passed last July. Then the House approved the revised measure and sent it to the White House.

One change by the Senate in its unanimous 99-0 passage of the bill today was to make clear that veterans who have not graduated from high school would be eligible for the educational benefits. The House accepted the change without discussion.

Although the bill is more costly than one backed by Johnson he is expected to sign it into law. The measure would provide assistance to veterans of more than six months' military service retroactive to Jan. 31, 1955 when earlier programs expired.

The World War II and Korean War GI bills did cover veterans who had not finished high school.

The current measure was passed by the Senate 69 to 17 last July.

The House cleared it Monday by a 381-0 vote but cut back the benefits in several categories.

It would provide for education payments ranging from $100 to $150 monthly, depending on the number of dependents. The Senate range was $110 to $165.

The House bill would require three years' service to qualify for 36 months of education — a full college course — while the Senate measure would only require two years' duty.

Payments would be made directly to veterans, who could choose their own schools. No payments would be made retroactively for veterans who have attended school since 1955.

Get Out of Viet Nam, Says George Kennan

WASHINGTON (AP)—George F. Kennan, a former State Department strategist on cold war, told senators investigating U.S. Asian policy today the administration should "liquidate" military involvement in Viet Nam just as soon as this can be done.

Kennan, a former ambassador to Moscow, said this should take place as soon as it can be done "without inordinate damage to our own prestige or to the stability in conditions in that area."

But Kennan cautioned in testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that "precipitate and disorderly withdrawal could represent in our present circumstances a disservice to our own interests and even to world peace greater than any that might have been involved in our failure to engage ourselves in the first place."

On the other hand, Kennan said he has "grave misgivings about any deliberate expansion of hostilities on our part directed to achievement of something called 'victory.'"

Some Families Routed By Wisconsin Flooding

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The swollen Kickapoo River continued to kick its traces today as unseasonably warm temperatures and chronic rainfall sent flood waters sloshing through Western and Southwestern Wisconsin.

The Pine, Pecatonica, Eau Claire and Willow rivers joined the Kickapoo in bringing distress to sections of Crawford, La Fayette, Vernon and St. Croix counties.

"The river bank?" replied Chief of police Alvin Lee of Gays Mills to a question. "We've forgotten that such a thing as a river bank ever existed."

There were no reports of deaths from any of the affected areas, but 12 to 15 families were evacuated from Gays Mills, Lee said.

In nearby Soldiers Grove, Mayor Cecil Turk said 40 to 50 people had left town because of the advancing waters.

Lee said no home in Gays Mills were in any immediate danger of being swept away, but some were evacuated as a precautionary measure.

Rainfall which has added to the dangers of the early thaw on the western rivers, was predicted again for today.

In Gays Mills, sandbags supplied by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, were pressed into service to protect the business district as water, in some places as deep as four feet, crept over two-thirds of the town's surface.

Sandbags were also used in Soldiers Grove as National Guardsmen, Civil Defense workers, and Red Cross personnel went to work moving furniture to higher ground and setting up cooking and sleeping facilities. The flood waters forced the closing of many schools in the area and disrupted highway travel.

Ontario in Vernon County was isolated for a time because the highways leading into the community were blocked by the water.

The Pecatonica menaced the town of Darlington in La Fayette County as its waters overflowed, scattering huge chunks of ice across roadways.

Some stores in Darlington were reported flooded. The town's fire department, fearful that the waters might split the community in two by forcing the closing of Main Street bridge, sent one fire truck from the north to the south side just in case.

Ice piled up at a dam in Richland Center was dynamited in an attempt to force the water level down.

In the same community, six large tanks containing butane gas were ripped from their moorings by the waters spilling over the banks of the Pine.

Authorities had the tanks anchored with logging chains to keep them from reaching the river channel.

Famed Chicago Cabaret Burns

CHICAGO (AP) — A quarter of the city's firemen fought vainly Tuesday night and Wednesday to save a building on the Rush Street entertainment strip containing a theater and the famed night club, Mister Kelly's.

"It turned out to be the nastiest fire I have seen in 25 years," said Fire Commissioner Robert Quinn.

Says Victories On Battlefield Not Enough

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived in Saigon today to spur the South Vietnamese to get on with a social and economic revolution which he said would provide a "dynamic and lasting answer to the false promise of communism."

"I have come to see some of the projects being undertaken and to report back to the President and the American people on the work you are doing and on the part we can play in support of your great undertaking," Humphrey said in a statement at Saigon's heavily guarded Tan Son Nhut Airport.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and chief of state Nguyen Van Thieu flew with Humphrey from Honolulu after meeting there with President Johnson. Humphrey did not attend the Honolulu conference, but came here on the President's request to advance the nonmilitary programs outlined there.

Humphrey told newsmen aboard his plane that the military situation in South Viet Nam had improved to a point "that rural construction, economic and social programs can take place."

"We know that victories on the battlefield are not enough," he said. "We want to consolidate those victories" with economic and social progress.

A big crowd of Vietnamese military and civilian dignitaries greeted the vice president and his party at the airport. Five 150mm howitzers and five tanks were lined up on the air strip opposite a Vietnamese honor guard.

Heavy security was in effect and the normally busy airport was closed to civilian traffic for more than an hour before Humphrey's plane landed. Roadblocks and checkpoints were thrown up around the field.

During his flight of nearly 15 hours from Honolulu, broken only by a 90-minute fuel stop on Guam, Humphrey received a stream of specialists in his cabin.

He told newsmen he was getting briefings on aid, health, information and other U.S. programs on the plane so that he can make full use of his time seeing things for himself.

For security reasons, American officials were keeping silent on specific places the vice president will visit. It is believed these will include a partially pacified area of villages and at least one U.S. troop base.

Humphrey plans to leave Sunday after what he called "nearly three days of varying intensive visitations, conferences and on the spot, in the field observations."

He declined to say what other countries he will visit, but it is believed they will be Thailand, Malaysia, Australia, New Zealand and India. His mission to their governments, Humphrey said, will be to report what was done at Honolulu and the status of the U.S. peace offensive and to give them a sizeup of the military situation in Viet Nam.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman pulled into Saigon on a separate plane and from most indications he will pretty much go his own way.

Freeman, studying ways of modernizing Viet Nam's farm methods, is going to stay a day longer than Humphrey in Viet Nam and then fly back to Washington.

DFL Would Like To See Quie in Governor Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The boom for Rep. Albert Quie for Minnesota governor and Rep. Clark MacGregor for the U.S. Senate picked up support Wednesday from two diverse sources—the 8th District Republican chairman and the State Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party chairman.

The GOP leader, Robert Wallace of Chisholm, called the possibility of a Quie-MacGregor ticket "the best thing that has happened to us for quite some time."

"In 10 minutes, the possibility that they could be candidates has generated more enthusiasm than we've had in the previous six months," he said.

Both congressmen, however, have indicated they would prefer to run for re-election than for governor or senator.

Nevertheless, an office for the Quie-MacGregor effort was opened Wednesday in the Foshay Tower in downtown Minneapolis, according to public relations man Wy Spano.

Meanwhile, the Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party Chairman George Farr said he is delighted with GOP efforts to push a Quie-MacGregor slate.

In remarks prepared for a DFL meeting at Monticello Wednesday night, Farr said Quie and MacGregor would be beaten for governor and senator, and the DFL would have a better chance to win their congressional seats in the 1st and 3rd Districts.

Farr also said the push for Quie and MacGregor also shows Republicans are dissatisfied with announced GOP candidates for governor, Ramsey County Attorney William B. Randall and South St. Paul lawyer Harold LeVander.

Boy Scouts Visit LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fourteen of the nation's outstanding Boy Scouts visited President Johnson at the White House Wednesday, presenting gifts and an invitation to the chief executive to attend the World Scout Jamboree in Idaho Falls, Idaho, next year.

"We're proud of you," Johnson told the scouts.

Gerald E. Bell, 17, of Seattle, Wash., presented a report on conservation activities of the Scouts and told Johnson: "We hope you will pass it on to Mrs. Johnson."

"She will appreciate it," Johnson replied.

Others in the Scout delegation included Brent M. Haglund, 17, of Isle, Minn.

Switchmen Walk Out on Great Northern

ST. PAUL (AP) — Picketing along the Great Northern Railway's 10-state system was reported ending today in the wake of a federal court restraining order in a switchmen's job security dispute.

"We expect business as usual today," said a railway spokesman.

Members of the Switchmen's Union of North America walked out along the line at 11 p.m. (CST) Wednesday night despite the restraining order by U.S. District Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye. Some difficulty was reported in serving the order on union officials.

However, pickets were withdrawn at most points during the early morning hours after papers had been served.

About 660 of GN's 1,100 switchmen are involved in the dispute. The railway spokesman, Frank F. Perrin, said federal marshals had been unable to locate George J. Kelley, Great Northern General chairman of the union, to serve the court order on him.

"It's been a very obvious evasion of the serving of these papers," Perrin said.

Neither Kelley nor the marshals could be reached for immediate comment.

Perrin also said the railway was notified of the strike officially by a union telegram delivered 45 minutes after the walkout began.

The railway's passenger trains were running as scheduled, Perrin said, with supervisory personnel assigned to crew change points to take over if necessary.

DEAR ABBY:

Get Rid of This Guy, and Quickly

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Shortly after we were married, my husband's brother came to live with us. It's been five years now and I am a nervous wreck. He's a bachelor with a good job, money in the bank, a new car, yet he has no interest in sports, women, church or anything. He spends hours in the bathroom getting ready to go nowhere. He's an authority on every subject and has his nose in everything that goes on in this house. We have absolutely no privacy. When I suggest he find some nice girl and get married, he says only fools get married. My husband says we can't ask him to leave because he has no place to go. What do you say?

ABBY apartment.

SICK OF HIM

DEAR SICK: I say you should tell Bachelor Brother that the two "fools" who have provided a home for him have had it. And if he's not "foolish" enough to take a wife, he should take a bachelor

DEAR ABBY: I am 22 and am going with a fine young man who is 26. I have the feeling he is going to ask me to marry him, and I hope he does because he would make a wonderful husband. But, Abby, he has one very bad fault. When he talks he barely opens his mouth. People are always asking him to repeat himself because they can't understand what he says. Also, he won't let himself smile or laugh very much and I'm sure I know why. He has very bad teeth and he's probably self-conscious about them. Is there a tactful way to tell him to have his teeth taken care of? He is so kind and sensitive, I wouldn't hurt him for the world.

RELUCTANT

DEAR ABBY: Do this fine young man a tremendous favor, and TELL HIM! A good dentist can do wonders for him — improving his appearance and adding to his self-confidence. He may then need help from a speech therapist to correct some of the bad speaking habits he formed while attempting to hide his unattractive teeth.

DEAR ABBY: I need your opinion. My husband and I were invited to the home of another couple for coffee. After we had been there for about an hour, the lady started glancing at her watch. I took this as a hint that we should leave, and I had to drag my husband out of his chair. My husband still insists that we left too early, and the lady could have been looking at her watch without wanting us to go home. What do you think?

MINNETTE

DEAR MINNETTE: When the hostess starts "glancing" at her watch, it's a pretty safe bet that it's time to leave. Better to leave a little too early than a little too late.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "CHECKING UP" IN BALTIMORE: Your friend is correct. White does not necessarily indicate "purity." Traditionally, the bride wore white to indicate that her father was too poor to give her future husband a dowry and, therefore, he was not to be held liable for her debts. White has nothing to do with virginity. If any color were to represent that, it would be GREEN, not white.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mental Health Center Adopts Higher Budget

The Hiawatha Valley Mental Health Center is negotiating with a psychiatrist for its staff. It was announced at the board meeting here Monday evening. An announcement is expected soon, said Miller A. Friesen, program director.

It was announced that Dr. James Taylor, Denver, Colo., psychologist, has been unable to fulfill his commitment to join the staff here.

The board adopted a budget for the year beginning next July 1; it calls for expenditures of $74,600, or $1,800 above the current budget. However, expenditures during the current year will be far under the budget because the proposed staff is incomplete and because the center was not operating as of last July 1.

Income for the center is approximately half from the state and half from the three participating counties — Houston, Wabasha and Winona. Because of the under-budget expenditures this year, there will be considerable carry-over to reduce county appropriations next year, said Friesen.

A dinner meeting with the three county welfare boards is planned for March, probably March 7. The mileage allowance was increased from 7½ to 10 cents effective July 1.

Valentine Gets Jaycee Award

Wayne Valentine, Station KAGE news director, was named January Jaycee of the Month at the Jaycees monthly meeting Tuesday night.

Valentine

Valentine was chosen for his successful leadership and publicizing of Jaycee Week, Jan. 16-23. He also was a worker in the membership drive that week.

A Jaycee two years, he has been on several committees. He has been recognized by the Northwest Broadcasters Association and United Press International for his 1965 flood coverage.

William Hinton, chairman of the January membership drive, received an "honorable mention" for his work in gaining 27 new Jaycee members.

Rongstad Elected

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — Robert Rongstad was named president of Osseo Golf and Recreation Center, Inc., at the organizational meeting of the board of directors. Waldo Johnson was elected vice president; Lester Thomley, secretary; Willie Sieg, treasurer, and Charles Thomley, club manager. Committees will be announced.

4,500 Crowd On Bugle Lake

INDEPENDENCE, Wis. (Special) — About 4,500 took advantage of the relief from sub-zero weather and attended the eighth annual Elk Rod & Gun Club ice fishing contest on Bugle Lake, Independence, Sunday.

About 120 of the $500 worth of trout stocked for the contest were caught, but no one received the $100 offered for the elusive 7-pound, 28-inch Old Bugler.

Jack Moscher, La Crosse, received the prize for the largest trout caught. It weighed nearly 1½ pounds. Others catching prize-winning trout came from Black River Falls, Spooner, Tomah, Altoona, Mondovi, Boyd and Arcadia.

Mrs. John C. Sobotta Arcadia, Mrs. Ilene Gullicksrud, Strum; Pat Peters, Milwaukee, and Marie Token Taylor won prizes.

A total of 1,500 pieces of barbecued chicken was served. Hot dogs sold totaled 1,500 and barbecues, 2,000, plus sandwiches.

Rose Appointed To Taylor Board

TAYLOR, Wis. (Special) — James Rose Sr. was appointed to the Taylor Village Board Monday night.

He succeeds Basil Osegard, who resigned because of the press of his work. He was elected trustee last spring for a two-year term.

The Taylor caucus will be March 8 at 8 p.m. Board members whose terms expire this year are Deyo Relyea, Raymond Olson and Vernon Olson. The election will be April 5.

Man Dead of Burns

OCONOMOWOC, Wis. (AP) — Albert Vinz, 91, a resident of an Oconomowoc nursing home, died Wednesday of burns suffered Feb. 1 when ashes from his pipe apparently ignited his clothing.

BLAIR PATIENTS

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Mrs. T. T. Hanson, who will observe here 93rd birthday March 11, is at St. Francis Hospital, La Crosse, for observation and tests. Mrs. Aaron Granlund has returned from there after a week's stay for observation of a throat disorder. Mrs. Ray Bluske had surgery at Lutheran Hospital, La Crosse.

TREMPEALEAU CANCER

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — An executive board meeting of the Trempealeau County chapter of the American Cancer Society will be held at the courthouse here next Thursday at 8 p.m.

Minnesota City Man Pleads to Burglary Count

A Minnesota City man pleaded guilty Wednesday afternoon in District Court to reduced charges of burglary and possession of a protected wild animal.

Alvin Warnke Jr., 23, Minnesota City, will begin serving a 10-year sentence on the burglary charge at the St. Cloud Reformatory when he completes his sentence on an earlier burglary violation for which he had been paroled.

THE YOUTH admitted to Judge Arnold Hatfield that he is guilty of parole violations, and the judge decided to sentence Warnke without delay. Warnke had served just more than a year of a five-year burglary sentence when he was paroled in July 1964.

Warnke has been charged with burglary with a tool in connection with the Sept. 15 break-in at the Oaks supper club in Minnesota City.

Before pleading to the charge Wednesday, however, Warnke heard County Attorney S. A. Sawyer ask Judge Hatfield's permission to withdraw the complaint and substitute a new one accusing Warnke of a lesser form of burglary.

Judge Hatfield granted Sawyer's petition. Defense Attorney Dennis A. Challen made no objection. (Burglary with a tool carries a possible maximum sentence of 20 years, burglary of a building which serves as a residence, a 10-year maximum.)

Sawyer told the judge that there is insufficient evidence in the case to show that Warnke had used a "burglar's tool" in his break-in at the Oaks.

Defense Attorney Challen had filed a motion for suppression of the tool allegedly used in the burglary, charging that it had been obtained by Sheriff George L. Fort with an illegal search and seizure.

Challen's most serious objections to the search which produced the tool were that the search warrant was obtained from Goodview Justice of the Peace Lewis E. Albert and that the warrant was issued in connection with Warnke's arrest on a game violation, not on the burglary charge.

(Since 1963, Challen claims, it has been illegal to obtain a search warrant from a justice of the peace in a county where there is a municipal court.)

A hearing on the motion to suppress evidence was scheduled for Jan. 24 before Judge Hatfield but was never held.

THE COUNTY attorney also asked that a new complaint be accepted charging Warnke with illegal possession of a deer rather than with theft of it. This petition was granted, also.

Sawyer told the judge that he has insufficient evidence to link Warnke with theft of a tame deer from the Isaac Walton League Deer Park Jan. 20, 1965; but Warnke admitted accepting a share in the deer after its killing and theft from the park.

The new charge is a misdemeanor, and Judge Hatfield sentenced Warnke to a 90-day county jail term. He also ordered that Warnke receive credit for the time he has spent in jail in lieu of bond since Sept. 22. Thus, the 90-day term is already satisfied. The same credit was extended to Warnke's reformatory sentence.

Scouts to Hold Klondike Derby

The Boy Scout Klondike Derby will be Saturday near the ski jump at St. Mary's College. Troops from Pickwick, Dakota, Minnesota City, Rollingstone, Altura, Elba, St. Charles, Lewiston and Winona have been invited, according to Kenneth Sebold, director of the event.

Registration begins at 9 a.m., competition at 10. Bert Foster will present a display of cold weather outdoor and camping gear. A wood chopping demonstration, followed by competitive crosscut sawing and handaxe events between patrols, will be supervised by Walter Kram.

Cleo Keiper, Winona fire marshal, will direct an ice rescue. Other events are: Fire building and hoisting water for emergency use; bowline lift using rope to reach a food cache in a tree, and a first aid problem given in Morse code. The patrols must decipher the code and apply first aid.

A tug-of-war and toboggan race will conclude the day's program. Each patrol will use colored rings on its camp stick to keep scores earned from various events.

All units will cook lunch and clean up their sites during the noon break. Events will be judged by adult leaders present and by members of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity at Winona State College.

PETERSON FLOODED . . . This is the Root River below the new bridge at Peterson, showing how far the water crept into the residential section. Most of the ice had gone downstream when this was taken Wednesday afternoon.

County Republicans Skirt Quiet Boom

Winona County Republicans, gathering Wednesday evening at precinct caucuses, shied uneasily away from a campaign to run Cong. Albert H. Quie for governor, now getting up steam elsewhere in the state.

A random survey shows little GOP enthusiasm here for giving up what they regard as a safe Congressional seat for the uncertainties of a voyage in other political waters. Most precincts urged Quie to run for re-election to Congress.

County party officers said today they were heartened by caucus attendance which appeared to be somewhat greater than that of two years ago.

Endorsements generally were avoided by the caucuses. The major exception was the nearly unanimous stream of resolutions backing James B. Goetz for lieutenant governor. Goetz, a Winona radio station owner, is 1st District GOP chairman.

ALL CITY precincts held caucuses, according to Mrs. George Garber, Winona County GOP chairwoman. Precinct caucuses traditionally are lightly attended, she said, particularly in non-presidential election years.

Despite requests from the various campaign headquarters, local precincts discussed, but did not endorse, two avowed gubernatorial candidates, Harold LeVander, South St. Paul, and William Randall, Ramsey County attorney.

Delegates obviously were reluctant to create intra-party divisions, Mrs. Garber said. Several precincts endorsed Douglas Head, Minneapolis, as a candidate for attorney general, an indication of spade work done by a local committee headed by Kermit Bergland and Mrs. Byron White, Winona Republicans.

STIRRING SOMEWHAT less interest was the forthcoming race for the seat of U.S. Senator Walter Mondale. Resolutions backing 3rd District Cong. Clark MacGregor were passed by first and second precincts of the 2nd Ward in Winona.

Most precincts declined to go on record. Legislative races also received minimum attention.

Party officials said such issues as candidate endorsement, reapportionment and local representation in the legislature will begin to show great vitality by county convention time.

Winona County Republicans will hold their convention March 17 at a still unnamed location.

A scattering of resolutions was adopted. Winona Township Republicans demanded a general overhaul of state tax structures but stopped short of endorsing a sales tax.

At St. Charles, resolutions chided a "rubber stamp Congress" and called for more "attention to the Constitutional separation of powers" and "higher ethics and more candor in dissemination of news" by government officials where immediate national security is not involved.

Gary Nelson Heads Celebration Planning

Gary Nelson is Jaycee "Captain" of the 1966 Steamboat Days. His name was incorrectly reported in Wednesday's announcement.

It has also been announced the Kiwanis Club, in conjunction with the Jaycee Steamboat Days committee, will plan the parade. Larry Will is Kiwanis parade chairman. Kiwanis Club also will sponsor the peanut concession.

Driver Fined For Not Giving Pedestrian Right

Police began their campaign to protect pedestrians in crosswalks Wednesday with their first arrest of a driver on a charge of failure to yield the right of way to a pedestrian.

It was the "first arrest," that is, that did not involve a pedestrian actually struck down while in a crosswalk.

Erick W. Seiler, 673 E. Broadway, forfeited $25 bond today in municipal court on the charge. He was arrested Wednesday at 12:26 p.m. at West Broadway and Washington Street—in front of the city's junior-senior high school complex.

The arrest follows strong pressure on the department by the City Council and the Fire and Police Board to "get tough" with drivers who ignore the pedestrian's right of way.

In other municipal court action, Larry C. Peterson, 997 W. Broadway, forfeited $25 bond on a speeding charge. Peterson was clocked by police radar at West Broadway and Washington Street Wednesday at 12:10 p.m. He was charged with speeding 40 m.p.h. in a 30 zone.

Troop 14 Scout Get Star Rank

Boy Scout Troop 14 Court of Honor held Tuesday at Jefferson School promoted Michael and David Lindstrom to the rank of Star Scouts, bringing the troop's star total to five boys.

Scouts promoted to First Class were Robert Lembecky, Gary Breitenfeldt, Kevin Larsen, Kim Sossalla and Ricky Lembecky.

Second Class awards were given to Douglas Baird and Robert Grabner. Tenderfoot Badges went to Paul Torgerson, Wayne Malm and Glenn Tullius.

Merit Badges were awarded to Michael and David Lindstrom, cooking; Robert and Ricky Lembecky, swimming; Michael Lindstrom, marksmanship; Charles Gilbertson, art; and David Lindstrom, nature.

FIELD OF ICE . . . This is how the area between the river and Highway 16 west of Rushford, looked Tuesday afternoon. The ice still is there this morning. The two-foot-thick chunks were dumped over an area a quarter mile wide. They are mixed with logs and other debris also from the flooding Root. (Daily News photos)

Highways Still Closed

Flood Pressure Lessens On Most Area Streams

Minnesota highways still were closed to traffic this morning on account of high water precipitated by temperatures rising to 50 degrees Wednesday and intermittent rain, during the week, some of it heavy.

Remaining closed were Highway 74 from Elba to Weaver, No. 26 south from the intersection with Highway 16 below La Crescent, and No. 249 between Reno and Caledonia.

Reopened were Highway 250 north from Lanesboro to the junction with Highway 30 and 52 between Chatfield and Fountain. Highway 16 on the flats east of Hokah was closed for a time Wednesday because of six inches of water from the flooding Root River running over the highway, but it was open again this morning.

Cold Front Seen As End to Thaw

Another alltime high temperature record was set for Winona Wednesday when the thermometer rose to 54 in the afternoon, surpassing the previous record for Feb. 9 of 50 in 1954.

The day before the high had been 52, passing the 48 set in 1925. With only snow remaining where it had been piled, high water in area streams started to recede today, leaving adjoining fields covered with ice.

COLDER WEATHER moving into the area today is expected to put an end to the melting and restore more winter-like conditions to Southeastern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin.

Partly cloudy and colder tonight is the forecast with a low of 15 to 22 expected. Partly cloudy and a little colder also is the forecast for Friday when a high of 25-32 is seen. The outlook for Saturday is for partly cloudy with little temperature change.

After rising to the record 54, the thermometer here dropped to 33 overnight and was 34 at noon. A year ago today the high was 37 and the overnight low 22. On that day .46 of an inch of rain fell.

The alltime high for Feb. 10 was 51 in 1886 and the low for the day -32 in 1899. Mean for the past 24 hours was 43. Normal for this time of the year is 18.

TEMPERATURES generally dipped below zero overnight in Northern Minnesota with a low of 15 at Bemidji and 20 at International Falls.

Rochester had a morning low of 31 after a Wednesday high of 49 and La Crosse posted figures of 33 and 51 for the same times.

Minot, N.D., had a morning reading of only 9. It was 13 at Fargo, N.D., with the cold wave moving eastward into Minnesota.

THE RAINFALL which fell in the area Tuesday and Wednesday could change in a 24 to 48-hour period.

The Minnesota Highway Department said most highways froze dry during the night. It cautioned that scattered slipperiness will be encountered in numerous areas and that highway shoulders are soft, especially in southern areas.

The Cottonwood River broke up at New Ulm at noon Wednesday, almost two months earlier than last year. Ice chunks jammed and the river overflowed a bottom road on the south edge of New Ulm, surrounding one house. Ice in the Minnesota River at New Ulm still held.

FLOOD-plagued areas of western Wisconsin also happily greeted the arrival of colder weather and an end of the steady rain of the past couple of days.

Temperatures fell as the weak cold front passed through but most readings still were unseasonably high. Lowest in the state early today was 25 degrees in the Superior region.

Park Falls and Eau Claire had 32, Wausau and Lone Rock 35, Madison 36, Racine 39, Green Bay 41, Milwaukee 42 and Beloit 43.

Beloit had a total of 1.73 inches of rain in the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today. Burlington reported 1.06, Peewaukee 1 inch, Milwaukee .79, Racine .75, Green Bay .43, Madison .22, Lone Rock .17, Wausau .12 and Superior .02.

La Crosse, Lone Rock and Burlington topped the state Wednesday with 51 degrees.

MISSISSIPPI RISING

A four-day forecast of a rising Mississippi River at Winona was made today by the Weather Bureau.

The stage here this morning was 7.47, up from 6.40 Wednesday. The Weather Bureau predicted the following stages for the next four days:

Friday 9.3
Saturday 10.0
Sunday 10.3
Monday 10.3

The Root at Houston was more than a foot over its 15-foot floodstage this morning. The water had gone down 1.1 feet but an ice jam between Houston and Hokah is expected to slow it down somewhat.

The Beaver Creek, flowing through Elrick and Frenchville, was filled from bank to bank Wednesday following the two days of rain.

The second flood came on March 3, 4 and 5 and affected the whole Root River Valley almost isolating Lanesboro, Peterson, Rushford and Houston, whose telephone service was cut off for days.

Frost has been three feet deep in the Rushford area but may have receded with the warm spell.

The Weather Bureau reported at noon today that the Chippewa River would crest at 9.5 feet this afternoon. The Zumbro River at Thelma crested this morning at 43 feet.

The Trempealeau River at Dodge crested this morning at 7 feet. The Black River at Galesville will crest Saturday at 9 feet.

Civil Cases Settled in District Court

Three more civil cases were settled out of District Court, it was learned today.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel E. Knippel, Owatonna, Minn., were suing Rodney J. Zwerner, Rochester, for damages arising from an accident Aug. 31, 1965, on U.S. 61-14, one-tenth of a mile west of Highway 43.

The case was scheduled for trial today, but the attorneys announced they had settled it Wednesday evening.

THE accident occurred when Mrs. Knippel, driving alone, stalled her car on the highway, according to the police report. Zwerner drove into the rear of her 1959-model vehicle, demolishing it. There was $600 damage to the front of his car.

Both drivers were shaken up in the mishap and were held overnight at Community Memorial Hospital for observation.

Attorney Roger P. Brosnahan represented the Knippels, and Attorney Jerome Kline, Minneapolis, represented Zwerner.

Mrs. Robert J. Brang, 425 1/2 E. Howard St., against Lars H. Granberg, 476 W. Broadway, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ciemiński, 671 E. Howard St., was a $35,000 personal injury accident suit.

THE CASE was settled this week, District Court Clerk Joseph C. Page said. Mrs. Brang alleged that Granberg and Mrs. Ciemiński, the drivers in a two-car collision Sept. 23, 1964, at 2nd and Center streets, were negligent.

Mrs. Brang suffered hip and back injuries, she alleged, as a result of the accident. She was a passenger in the Ciemiński car.

Attorney Duane M. Peterson represented Mrs. Brang; the law firm Waseca, Minn., of Moonan & Senn represented Granberg, and Attorney William M. Hull represented the Ciemińskis.

The third case settled was a paternity action against Bruce E. Little, 472 Mankato Ave., brought by the State of Minnesota. Little never either admitted or denied paternity, but he has married the mother of the child which he allegedly fathered. The state dismissed the case against him today.

3 Adult Classes Meet At Independence; Math Course Lags

INDEPENDENCE, Wis. (Special) — Three of five proposed adult evening classes are off the ground at Independence High School, with two other classes suggested yet to be resolved.

Most popular is the clothing class, which will meet Tuesday nights at 7:30. Typing class will continue Monday nights at 8. The agriculture class has 10 more meetings left.

Least popular is the modern mathematics class for parents. One more session is planned for next Thursday at 8 p.m. in hopes that a sufficient number will attend to warrant continuance.

Those interested in physical education have run into conflicting dates. Saturday is the night favored by most, but on Saturday and Sunday the building is on so-called night heat to conserve fuel. Attempts will be made to resolve this problem, and to interest more persons in other proposed classes next season.

It Happened Last Night Is the Go-Go Gonna Go Now?

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — "Discotheques are dying." So says brave soul Larry Mathews, proprietor of Disc-Au-Go-Go, who's changing the name of his place at W. 56th St. to "The Nut Box," tomorrow. Out goes disco's ear-splitting blare and in comes soft-spoken comedians and slow dance music — you remember them?

"Discotheque is falling fast and I don't want to wait around for the funeral," says Mathews. "We're going to do away with all that NOISE!" Candy Johnson will continue her own wild dancing upstairs in the Candy Store.

First of the major discos to throw in the towel, this could be the beginning of a national movement to bring back conversation in night clubs. "We have to play slow music to get customers to dance," says Mathews. "The Viennese Waltz'll come back quicker than the frog and Watusi." Mathews plans a pre-disco discotheque wake to celebrate the end of The Great Noise.

Jackie Gleason told a friend who'd been operated on for about everything. "They took out everything but your meanness."

"THE CIVILIZED SET" will be enthralled hearing that Greek shipping king Stavros Niarchos goes skiing regularly in St. Moritz with his ex-wife Eugenie Livanos while his bride Charlotte Ford waits back at the Plaza Hotel preparing for the birth of her baby. Niarchos, 56, divorced Eugenie after 18 years, and married Charlotte Dec. 18. He picks up Eugenie in the early forenoon and off they go for the slopes, according to Wm. Hickey in the London Daily Express. But he dines with his bride after a hard day of skiing.

Fat Jack E. Leonard, opening at the Copacabana, sort of a "Mr. HAMERICA," greeted ringsiders. "Good evening, friends of the underworld" (a joke), then noticed that Skitch Henderson was there in white tie as his black tie was probably dirty. He announced, "Bob Hope was just re-signed by NBC for 26 more years. Bobby Baker would like to know, anybody interested in a hot White House?" Then to the audience: "I'm crazy? But YOU came to see me." He certainly was colossal.

Pursuit of Justice Is Watery

What price justice? Attorney Philip G. Arneson, La Crosse, was driving from Madison, Wis., to Winona early Wednesday morning to try a case in Winona County District Court, as Judge Arnold Hatfield tells the story.

Arneson, however, had the misfortune to drive into a pool of water standing on the highway near Sparta, Wis. His car swerved into a ditch filled with water; and, as the vehicle settled, the attorney put up his convertible top and climbed onto the windshield.

Surveying the rather bleak scene before him, Arneson saw he would have to brave the elements. It was 2 a.m., and help was not likely to come. Walking in chest-deep water, the attorney regained the highway; and, by good luck, came to the farm of a friend first thing.

With the friend's help, Arneson averted pneumonia. Presumably with no outside help, he settled the case out of court Wednesday. It is not recorded whether his tribulations won him any sympathy from the opposing attorney.

Noting the career of George Murphy and Ronald Reagan, Pat Collins figures the guy who wants to start at the bottom in politics goes into summer stock. "That's earl, brother."

This bit of winter scenery was taken by Merritt Kelley, Daily News photographer, when he did the harbors in winter series, from the old bridge approach looking up Bath House Slough.

Vacation Planning
Hunters now can plan their 1966 hunting vacation. Wayne Olson, Minnesota conservation commissioner, announced today the opening days of the Minnesota hunting seasons for next fall. The dates are as follows:

Squirrels, Oct. 1; rabbits, Oct. 1; Deer, bow and arrow (October season), Oct. 1; ruffed grouse, sharp-tailed grouse, Oct. 8; pheasants, Oct. 29; Hungarian partridge, Oct. 29; deer, firearms, Nov. 12; and deer, bow and arrow (December season), Dec. 3.

Length of seasons and bag limits will not be determined until late summer or early fall when more complete information is available on population levels of the various species. Winter survival, reproductive success and other factors combine to influence the quantity and distribution of wild birds and animals, Olson explained.

He said the early announcement of the opening dates again this year is in response to numerous requests from sportsmen who must plan their vacations and schedule their hunting trips at the beginning of the year.

The 1966 opening dates are almost identical to those in 1965 except for pheasants, which will open a week later than last year. The later pheasant opener will allow time for more corn to be picked. Last year only a small percentage of the corn had been picked when the season opened.

Here and There
The annual Lake City ice fishing contest will be held there on Lake Pepin, Sunday, Feb. 13, from 1 to 4 p.m. It is sponsored jointly by the Lake City Chamber of Commerce and American Legion post. There will be prizes valued at $2,000.

The contest is one of the oldest in this area, and perhaps the largest in the number of fishermen it draws. Many Rochester, in addition to other area, fishermen, come to the lake hopeful of catching a walleye or sauger or two.

The Minnesota City Boat Club will hold its annual Ladies' Night party at the Izak Walton League cabin on Prairie Island Saturday evening.

The annual meeting of the Whitewater Valley Sportsmen's Club will be held in its hall at Elba Monday evening. There will be an election of officers and the usual feed.

District GOP To Meet With Quie on Race

The growing pressure on Cong. Albert Quie to run for governor will be discussed at a special meeting of 1st District Republican officers Friday night in Rochester.

Cong. Quie will fly from Washington to attend, said James B. Goetz, Winona, district chairman. Goetz said he wired district officers Tuesday afternoon to call the conference.

Goetz said it is possible that a statement of position will be drafted by the party officers. Sentiment among GOP members is mixed, he said. District Republicans are pictured as eager to back a Quie gubernatorial campaign but also reluctant to relinquish him as a congressman.

Cong. Quie has been urged by a number of Republicans to be a candidate for governor, paired with Cong. Clark MacGregor, St. Paul, as a candidate for the U.S. Senate.

New Legion Club Opens; Annual Meeting Slated

Coincident with the announcement that the new lounge at the American Legion Memorial Club was occupied Tuesday, plans for the annual club meeting were made.

The grand opening of the remodeled club is planned for Feb. 19.

The annual club meeting will be Feb. 16 at 8 p.m., according to A. J. Kleibusch, secretary, following a dinner.

Memberships in the club — which is the nonprofit corporation operating the building for the American Legion post and its subsidiary organizations — are now being accepted at the club. Reservations for the dinner must be made by next Tuesday noon.

Terms of four directors are expiring: R. Burr Mann, M. H. VonBargen, Lyle Haney and Adolph Bremer.

Dr. D. T. Burt is president and Robert Moravec treasurer.

Boating Course To Be Offered

An eight-lesson course in basic seamanship will be offered by the Winona Coast Guard Auxiliary Tuesdays at 7 p.m. in Room 223, Somsen Hall, Winona State College, starting next week.

This course is offered to enable the amateur boatman, his family and his friends to get more pleasure from boating with more safety. Tuition is free. There is a minimum charge for the lesson text. Individuals or families may enroll at either of the first two sessions or at the park-recreation office in City Hall.

In charge of classes will be members of the Winona Coast Guard Auxiliary. Instruction films will be furnished by the U.S. Coast Guard. Al Abrams and Vern Smelser, training officers, urged all boat owners who have not taken the lessons to attend. Certificates will be presented at the completion of the course.

Winter Sports Queen Named At Winona State

Mari Kaczowski has been named the W Club's winter quarter sports Queen at Winona State College, according to President Robert Stone.

Miss Kaczowski, a senior majoring in kindergarten-primary education, is from Mahto-med, Minn., and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kaczowski. Her father is a Winona State graduate.

She is president of Delta Zeta Sorority, secretary of student senate, past secretary of Collegiate Club, was co-chairman of freshman orientation and is a member of Newman and SNEA.

Selection of the queen is based on school spirit, beauty, scholarship and interest in and attendance at Winona State athletic events.

Many Strong Retailers in Area

CENTRAL POINT . . . Blending four blocks into a single unit is one of the major concepts of the downtown plan. Clearance of some buildings and rehabilitation of others are proposed. Off-street parking is provided at the present 2nd Street lot and on the old First National Bank site. Enclosed pedestrian malls connect all buildings. Two large retailing activities would dominate the area. Establishment of this super-block would be spread over three separate projects, according to current plans.

2,000 Fish At Mondovi

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — Approximately 2,000 attended the annual ice fishing contest on Mirror Lake, Mondovi, Sunday. Some 200 fish were caught. Catching the largest crappie was Terry Allison, Eleva, 7 1/2 ounces; sunfish, Otto Erdman, Eau Claire, 7 ounces, and any other legal fish, Palmer Finseth, Mondovi, who hooked a sucker weighing 3 pounds 4 ounces. Other prizes for crappies went to David Crawford and James Schultz, Mondovi, and Jerry Boll and James Schofield, Menomonie; for sunfish, William Peterson, Ray Colby and La Verne Lardahl, Mondovi, and Donald Gunem, Eau Claire, and any other legal fish, Jeffrey Biescher Al Wik John Koltinger and Frank Flood Mondovi. Special prizes went to Michael Strumness, Eleva, the oldest fisherman, 78; Mrs. Lois Hutchinson, Garden City, S.D., coming the longest distance, and Donna Heck, 8 Mondovi young-est.

Bank of Osseo Resources Gain $321,000 in '65

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — The largest bank in Trempealeau County, the Bank of Osseo, increased its resources by $321,000 last year, stockholders were told at the annual meeting. Total of deposits, capital stock and reserves reached $7,717,728. The bank has branches at Strum and Eleva. All directors were re-elected, including William D. Cox, Fred Johnson, S. T. Thompson, Selmer Larson, John O. Ward, Richard D. Galstad Dr. Robert N. Leasum Jr., Alvin V. Johnson and Omer G. Gunem.

Retail area redevelopment is keyed on the plan for a 4-block core bounded by Lafayette, 2nd, Main and 4th streets.

Supporting commercial activities, parking and traffic flow facilities will radiate out from this center.

MANY STRONG retail activities now exist within this area, according to the planning report. Many, however, are housed in deteriorating or otherwise obsolete buildings, it continues.

The southwesterly block is considered relatively strong. In this block are major retail, service and office complexes. A number of its buildings are in improvable condition and capable of long-range use, according to the report.

Two strong major retail activities are considered ideal for northwesterly and southeasterly blocks of the 4-block parcel. In addition, many of the present businesses within the space will be needed for long-range development of the super-block, planners believe.

WHILE removal of several buildings is considered necessary, some reduction of these proposed removals may occur. Adequacy of individual structures and the ability of owners to modify them to the general development scheme will affect the amount of clearance, the report says.

Nearby activities will be benefited — and are needed — by the 4-block core, states the plan. This fringe would be the site of considerable remodeling and some new construction, it is predicted.

INTERIOR streets of the 4-block complex would be converted to pedestrian malls. These would be partially enclosed so that pedestrians could walk to almost any point without going outside.

Close coordination of public improvements (streets, parking, traffic regulation) with private development is essential for creation of a modern business center, states the planning report.

Medicare Topic For Social Agencies Council

"Medicare and Related Medical Aid Programs for the Aged" will be discussed at a meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the YMCA.

The program is in connection with a regular meeting of the Winona Council of Social Agencies.

Victor Bertel, social security representative, will explain the new medicare and health insurance programs for persons 65 and above.

Applications of the new program to public welfare and nursing agencies will be explained by Mrs. Philip Karsina and William Werner. Mrs. Karsina is city public health nursing supervisor and Werner is director of the Winona County welfare department.

Moderator for the meeting will be the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. R. Feiten, director of Catholic Charities for the Diocese of Winona. Public participation is invited, the council announced.

NW Schoolmasters Elect Osseo Man; Governor Is Speaker

OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — Gordon E. Rodeen, superintendent of Osseo Community Schools, has been elected vice president of the Northwestern Wisconsin Schoolmasters Club.

Gov. Warren Knowles, keynote speaker, discussed the need for a statewide technical-vocational education system for high school graduates not going to college. Vocational training would help the state's problems of under-employment, unemployment and relieve the burden on the liberal arts schools.

The governor said he would support increased aids to elementary and secondary schools at the May session of the legislature to relieve the already over-burdened property taxpayer.

He said although Wisconsin is eligible for its share of federal funds for schools, schoolmasters should take care to use only the funds necessary so there will be no unnecessary increase in the cost of education.

Questions & Answers

(Editor's Note: Questions about urban renewal for downtown Winona are answered below by the Housing and Redevelopment Authority of Winona.)

Q. — If we have urban renewal, will the federal government help finance erection of new buildings?

A. — No. The federal government assists only in property acquisition and the demolition of buildings where necessary. Private capital buys the property from the housing authority of Winona and builds buildings.

Q. — Does urban renewal mean every building in the downtown area will be torn down?

A. — No. Many buildings will remain. Some of the obvious ones, of course, are the banks, the supermarkets, City Hall, new telephone company building, to name a few.

In addition, there are areas scheduled for rehabilitation. One of these is on 3rd Street, between Walnut and Lafayette. Another is the block bounded by 3rd and 4th, Main and Center streets.

Q. — What happens to a small businessman whose establishment is within a clearance area?

A. — First of all, if he owns the building and land, he will be paid for it at its appraised value. Federal grants are available to cover actual costs of moving his business (up to $25,000).

Many smaller businesses can qualify for relocation grants in addition to moving allowances. These can be as much as $2,500 per business. These grants are paid entirely by the federal government and are not included in project costs.

Q. — How about the business operating in rented space and about to be displaced?

A. — These operations are eligible for the same moving allowances and relocation payments. Even before new buildings go up, developers will be actively soliciting all sorts of occupancy leases. Certainly the present operators will be among the first to be contacted.

The housing authority will offer many forms of assistance to all individuals, families and businesses affected by renewal operations.

Burr Oak to Get Dials on Feb. 18

MABEL, Minn. (Special) — Subscribers at the Burr Oak, Iowa, exchange of Mabel Cooperative Telephone Co. will be cut over to dial Feb. 18, according to Manager Ernest Corson, Mabel.

Toll-free calling will begin at that time between Burr Oak and Decorah, Iowa. An average of 1,000 long distance calls is made each month between the two towns. The toll-free project is a joint undertaking. New buried cables between the communities will provide five lines for simultaneous calls.

Creamery Asks To Purchase Alma City Land

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — Francis Zepp, representing the Fountain City Cooperative Creamery Association, applied to the Alma City Council Monday night asked to purchase a piece of land north of Alma Dairy Products Cooperative.

A hearing on the request has been scheduled for March 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the city hall.

Clem Breen, chairman of council's recreation committee, reported leasing land from the city and Dairyland Power Cooperative on which the state Conservation Department from its funds will construct a parking area and boat ramp in the area of the disposal plant. The council granted easement and lease to the state for the program.

Mayor Alan Kirchner reported that the city's application for federal aid on County Trunk E, through the city, which is 2nd Street, has been referred to the Bureau of Public Roads for approval. Estimates on the balance of 2nd Street not on the county trunk are being prepared by the city's engineers.

The council voted to advertise for chief of police, assessor and superintendent of maintenance for next year. The new police car will be delivered by March 1 and the radio has arrived. City employees will be paid bi-weekly.

Mrs. Harvey Schweitzer, Mrs. Jay A. Ganz, Mrs. Elizabeth Henninger and Mrs. Andrew Noll were appointed ballot clerks for this year's elections, with Mrs. Robert Jones and Theodore Buehler as ballot inspectors.

Foreign Students Visit St. Charles; Make Bowling Try

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — Strikes, spares and gutterballs and everything in between were rolled Sunday afternoon when the St. Charles High School student council and local AFS chapter were hosts to nine Southeastern Minnesota foreign students and their families.

The teenagers, representing 10 countries, with their American brothers and sisters spent two hours at Unity Lanes here and then adjourned to the American Legion hall for a social hour and buffet supper.

The host parents of the young ambassadors met at the Alton Bergh home with Mrs. J. M.

McBean of Rochester, area representative for the American Field Service, and with former host parents from St. Charles. They discussed experiences and ironed out small problems incurred with opening their homes to teenagers of many varied cultures.

The adults joined the young people for the supper hour at the American Legion Club. In charge of entertainment, decorations, and refreshments prior to the supper were Wayne Wisow, student council president, Mary Burke, Julianne Haas, Nancy Luehmann and Janice Wilson. Mrs. Alton Mathison, chapter representative of the American Legion Auxiliary, was in charge of supper arrangements.

PLEASANT VALLEY CLUB
Pleasant Valley Social Club will meet at 2 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mrs. Irwin George, 120 Walnut St.

Court Edict May Hurt Crime Fighters

LAW ENFORCEMENT officers, fighting an uphill battle against crime, got some chilling news the other day from the Supreme Court.

The reason for the fingernail biting: The court is going to weigh the constitutionality of undercover agents getting the goods on narcotics peddlers in their own homes without search warrants.

It may not matter, when the justices hand down their decision, that dope pushers prefer to pursue their trade in their kitchens and garages.

What may matter very much is that the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution assures them — and all Americans — the right to be secure in their homes against "unreasonable searches and seizures."

AND, IN A practical sense, what certainly matters to federal narcotics agents and to local law officers across the land is that hundreds of arrests have been made under circumstances much like those in the case at hand — Duke Lee Lewis vs. the United States of America.

"Dope peddlers don't like to do their business in the open," explained a spokesman at the Federal Bureau of Narcotics. "They prefer the sanctity of their own home."

The spokesman, who discussed the attack on narcotics without commenting on the court's action, didn't have to explain why the federal agent who visited Lewis at his home in the Roxbury section of Boston in 1964 posed as a narcotics buyer.

IF HE HAD identified himself as a narcotics agent and produced a search warrant, no sale would have taken place and he would not have been invited back to buy more marijuana later. The agent did not have a search warrant.

Thus the constitutional question is put squarely by Lewis' lawyer: "Can a federal officer avoid the necessity of obtaining a search warrant and gain entrance to the home of one suspected of a crime by disguising himself for the purpose of soliciting a crime and obtaining evidence to be used against the owner?"

WHEN LEWIS appealed his conviction under the federal narcotics law to the U.S. Circuit Court in Boston three judges flatly rejected his Fourth Amendment argument.

"The happy days for law violators that this claim would produce are not to be," they said.

But the Supreme Court, which has ruled on several Fourth Amendment cases as a vehicle for giving greater strength to this Bill of Rights protection.

THEN LAW-ABIDING Americans and dope peddlers alike will have new reason to echo these words of the 17th century English jurist Sir Edward Coke: "Man's house is his castle, and one's home is his safest refuge."

Is Someone Trying To Talk With Us?

ASTRONOMERS are beginning to home in, speculatively, on the intriguing old idea that someone out there is trying to communicate with us. More and more of them, including some of the most distinguished, are finding it worthwhile to think about the possibility that civilizations on remote planets are sending out signals.

This is not purely a matter of speculation. Powerful radio emissions have been heard, and it has become increasingly respectable among astronomers to discuss whether these may be signals from intelligent beings.

No intelligible pattern has been discerned. But a Soviet astronomer has just published his reasons for thinking that powerful signals from two tiny and thus far invisible points in the heavens — signals noted last year by an Anglo-American team of radio astronomers — may be directed by intelligences.

The Russian, Nikolai S. Kardashev, noted that these sources of radio waves have several peculiarities that make them especially interesting. For one thing, the peak intensities of their emissions are at about 800 megacycles, which is close to the optimum frequency for avoiding "noise" in interstellar communication. He and his associates think this may jibe with the idea that an advanced civilization — far more so than ours — would use a powerful radio beacon to call attention to itself.

THE RUSSIANS actually are a bit late in openly coming to this kind of speculation. In the United States the notion of attempting to make contact with life elsewhere in the universe gained impetus about five years ago at a conference on the subject called by the Space Science Board of the National Academy of Sciences. In any case, astronomers here and there are now devoting intensive thought to this matter. Another case of science fiction edging toward reality?

When did man start shaving? Probably back in the fourth century when Alexander the Great ordered his combat troops to shave because he had noticed the enemy troops grabbed his soldiers by their beards before chopping off their heads.

The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he added no sorrow with it.—Proverbs 10:22.

TODAY IN WORLD AFFAIRS

Johnson States Viet Nam Issues

By DAVID LAWRENCE
WASHINGTON — "What's the Viet Nam war all about?" Many a person who doesn't follow in detail the ups and downs of a war 10,000 miles away asks that question and begins to wonder how it is related to the safety of the United States.

Out of the many thousands of words written about the war, perhaps the simplest explanation of the whole problem was given by President Johnson on his arrival in Hawaii last Sunday. For he summed up the American case in a plain-spoken way. The speech appeared in condensed form in most cities, but the actual text of a few paragraphs is worth reading and re-reading. The President said:

"It is a question of the gravest importance to all other nations, large or small, whose people seek to walk in peace and independence. For were the Communist aggressors to win in Viet Nam, they would know they can accomplish through so-called wars of national liberation what they could not accomplish through naked aggression in Korea — or insurgency in the Philippines, Greece, and Malaya — or the threat of aggression in Turkey — or in a free election anywhere in the world.

"THERE ARE special pleaders who counsel retreat in Viet Nam. They belong to a group that has always been blind to experience and deaf to hope. We cannot accept their logic that tyranny 10,000 miles away is not tyranny to concern us — or that subjugation by an armed minority in Asia is different from subjugation by an armed minority in Europe.

"Were we to follow their course, how many nations might fall before the aggressor? Where would our treaties be respected, our word honored, our commitment believed?"

"In the forties and fifties, we took our stand in Europe to protect the freedom of those threatened by aggression. If we had not then acted, what kind of Europe might there be today?"

"IF WE ALLOW the Communists to win in Viet Nam, it will become easier and more appetizing for them to take over other countries in other parts of the world. We will have to fight again someplace else — at what cost no one knows. That is why it is vitally important to every American family that we stop the Communists in South Viet Nam."

Unfortunately, an appeasement policy which may not attract much attention at the time can turn out later to be the forerunner of a big war. In 1938 many people hailed as the beginning of an era of peace a conference at Munich between British Prime Minister Chamberlain and Adolf Hitler, the head of the Nazi government in Germany. But Hitler misconstrued its meaning as weakness and a year later started World War II. He assumed that the British would not fight to defend the continent of Europe and that the United States would never enter the war at all.

UNQUESTIONABLY, the Red Chinese and the Soviets are watching the developments inside the United States of a pacifist and isolationist movement which argues that the Viet Nam war is of no consequence to the United States, that troops should be brought home and that Asia should be left to its own devices.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Klein Cued Dodd for Talks With Erhard

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Sen. Tom Dodd's strange mission to West Germany at the behest of the Julius Klein public relations firm succeeded in impressing its clients and, presumably, in preventing the cancellation of some juicy contracts.

Gen. Julius Klein, the founder, wrote Dodd jubilantly after his trip: "I had a very nice letter from former Chancellor Adenauer and am very pleased. I heard many fine things about your recent mission to Germany for the Senate."

"I presume, Tom, you will write the various people you saw over there and if you do, I would appreciate it if you would add a PS: 'I was indeed glad to discuss with my work under heavy expense.'"

Klein has handled his West German clients shrewdly. He got their public relations business in the first place by capitalizing on the fact that he was a past commander of the Jewish American War Veterans at a time when the Germans were eager to prove they were no longer anti-Semitic.

AMONG HIS leading backers were Hermann Abs, one of the leading financiers of the Hitler regime, and Dr. Hans Globke, who allegedly drafted anti-Jewish decrees for the Nazis.

Klein boasted his value to these Germans by persuading Sen. Dodd, a former prosecutor of Nazi war crimes, to deliver speeches, sign letters, and entertain clients for him.

Dodd even brought Globke's son, Hans, Jr., into his Senate office for several days in 1962 to see from the inside how the U.S. Senate operates.

Klein established his closest ties with former Chancellor Adenauer, who wanted to rebuild German military might as a bulwark against communism. The old chancellor's retirement has weakened Klein's position. For the new leaders, Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder, are more moderate in their attitude toward Russia.

KLEIN NOTED this in the secret background memos, which he furnished Sen. Dodd. These were used by the senator as a guide in touting Klein to West German leaders.

The background memo on Schröder, for example, cautioned Dodd: "Dr. Schröder speaks English fluently. Somehow, unfortunately, he has become anti-Adenauer. Therefore, his mind might be prejudiced against me."

"With Schröder . . . be very emphatic that you hope his office will continue to support the Wiesbaden group which engaged me to handle the political public relations."

"Without this support, the job comes to a halt and irreparable harm will be done as, in spite of loss of business and clients, I have continued with my work under heavy expense."

Of course, Klein was most concerned over how Dodd would handle Chancellor Erhard. To make sure Dodd didn't miff his lines, Klein wrote out exactly what the senator was supposed to say.

"WE ARE most disturbed to hear," Dodd was instructed to tell the chancellor, "that due to the distortions in the German press and inaccurate reports that the role Gen. Klein played in the political public relations field has been misunderstood."

"There has been no criticism of Gen. Klein in connection with the (Senate) hearings. On the contrary, he received praise and tribute from members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle."

"You may know that I was one of the prosecutors at the Nuremberg trials, and I have been a member of the Congress for many years," Dodd was supposed to add. "I worked closely with President Johnson when he was a Democratic leader in the Senate, and I had the honor of nominating him at the San Francisco convention in 1960 against Kennedy. (The convention actually was held in Los Angeles.)"

"We in the Congress who are working day and night have to rely on the assistance and help of Gen. Klein in giving up proper briefings, research material and other vital information of interest to the United States in regard to the German federal republic."

Hoffa Holds on To Union Job

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court's review of James R. Hoffa's jury tampering conviction not only deprives the Teamsters Union president from prison, but virtually guarantees his re-election as head of the world's biggest labor union.

The court's decision to hear the case, like the blizzard that enveloped Washington, felt like a fistful of cold snow down the necks of those who want to unseat the controversial leader of the Teamsters.

"This means that practically anything Hoffa wants at the next convention, Hoffa gets," said one teamster source.

And what Hoffa wants, many Teamsters insiders say, is to win a new five-year term as president and then change the constitution of the union so he can run it from jail if necessary and return to take over his plush office in the shadow of the U.S. Capitol.

HOFFA FACES an eight-year sentence if the Supreme Court turns down his appeal, but could be paroled with 32 months.

And, jury tampering is not one of the crimes that bans a labor leader from holding office under federal labor law.

All this means plenty of fireworks at the Teamsters July 4 convention in Miami Beach, with Hoffa setting off most of the rockets.

Cautious moves inside the union to dump Hoffa if he went to jail quickly went underground in the wake of Monday's Supreme Court decision to hear Hoffa's appeal.

Hoffa argues his conviction was illegal because a Justice Department spy — Louisiana Teamsters official Edward Grady Partin — was planted in his inner councils during the trial at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Partin is under federal indictment for stealing union funds.

A spokesman for Einar Mohn, West Coast Teamsters vice president who earlier said he would run for the top job if Hoffa went to jail, said today, "He's not going to put up any opposition to Hoffa."

There was also no hint of open opposition from Teamsters Vice President Harold Gibbons of St. Louis, long an unannounced front-runner for Hoffa's $75,000-a-year job.

"If Hoffa is at the convention, he will have no opposition," a Gibbons spokesman said.

Teamsters sources differ over whether a Hoffa move to amend the union's constitution so he can pick his own successor or resume office after a prison term would provoke a fight. But they agree it would be an uphill battle with Hoffa handling the gavel.

"Who's going to stand up and say, 'Wait a minute, boss,'" said a Teamsters source.

High sources in the AFL-CIO, which wants to take the outcast Teamsters Union with its 1.7 million members back in once it is rid of Hoffa, agreed the Supreme Court ruling dashed cold water on this possibility "for a good long time."

If all depends on how quickly the Supreme Court acts on the appeal — and on Hoffa appeals of a later conviction for mail fraud involving Teamsters pension money.

But the possibility of a final court decision sending Hoffa to jail in either case before July appears about as slim as a snowball's chance in the Miami sunshine.

Hoffa, who quickly moved in and took over in 1957 when his predecessor Dave Beck went to jail on an income tax conviction, once again is in indisputable control of the giant union and its $1 billion in assets.

And those who covet Hoffa's job, but don't want to risk a toe-to-toe slugfest, will have to wait awhile.

To Your Good Health

Gastritis Usually Treated

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please explain gastritis, its causes, symptoms and treatment. — M. B.

Gastritis is a general term meaning that the gastric area — the stomach — is inflamed.

There may be pain, or there may be a feeling of fullness or pressure. Headache, nausea, vomiting may follow. Diarrhea is possible.

Treatment depends on the cause. If caused by acids or corrosive chemicals, immediate treatment is required to neutralize them as well as to wash them out of the stomach.

Hiatal hernia (which involves a portion of the stomach being forced through an aperture in the diaphragm) causes that portion of the stomach to be subject to irritation and inflammation. That's gastritis of one type.

Food poisoning, spoiled food, or other poisons and irritants can cause gastritis.

Infection and overproduction of stomach acid are other causes. Alcohol, especially on an empty stomach, is a very common cause. In that case, large amounts of Vitamin C have been helpful, although for the most part medicine is not beneficial. Rather, a bland, soft diet usually solves the difficulty in a short time.

The prime question, with gastritis, is "What's inflaming the stomach?" Then the answer is usually readily apparent.

Dear Dr. Molner: Why do they all say "See your doctor; there is so much that can be done for arthritis?" I did and all I could get from him was, "Can't do much for it. Just take aspirin." Does drinking a lot of milk help? — MRS. C.W.

Who are "they"? But I'll tell you why I say see your doctor. Because there are various kinds of arthritis, and some kinds of pains that seem like arthritis — yet aren't. I've encountered many such instances. The first purpose in seeing your doctor is to find out what you really have. After that, it depends. Some arthritis can be helped to a remarkable degree. Other cases are best handled just by keeping the arthritis from becoming too annoying and keeping it from interfering too much with your activity.

Milk has nothing to do with arthritis.

Aspirin or one of the salicylate derivatives remain an excellent first treatment of many arthritis problems.

NOTE TO MRS. E. H.: Your past illnesses and medication in no way prevent you from having a flu shot. Rather, a flu shot will be excellent protection for you while you are recuperating.

Criticism Encouraging Reds, Democrats Say

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Democratic senators say that attacks on President Johnson's Southeast Asia policies are encouraging the Communists to continue the Viet Nam war.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said he is convinced that what is keeping North Viet Nam from the negotiations table "is the conviction that we'll tire and quit." He said this belief is being bolstered by senatorial criticism of the President's actions and objectives.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., a Foreign Relations Committee member, said that what he called "the clamor" of the anti-Viet Nam minority "encourages Hanoi and Peking to persist in their aggression, in the mistaken belief that popular resistance to war at home will soon compel the American government to withdraw from Viet Nam."

The two senatorial supporters of the President spoke out in advance of today's scheduled appearance of George Kennan, former ambassador to the Soviet Union and an expert on Communist affairs, before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's inquiry into Viet Nam policies.

Kennan has contended that U.S. involvement in Viet Nam in its present dimensions represents "a grievous disbalance of American policy." He has said it has sacrificed possible improvement in relations with the Soviet Union and put a "deeply regrettable strain" on relations with Japan.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., and other policy critics were trying to get together on a possible amendment to a $4.8-billion military authorization bill which might call for presidential restraint in any escalating of the Viet Nam conflict.

Clark told a reporter he may offer a policy rider but added:

"I am not prepared to say what its nature is. I have it under consideration with a number of other senators."

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee which approved the bill Wednesday, said he would oppose any policy rider which might be "damaging to the war effort and to the morale of our fighting forces and those of South Viet Nam."

Senate leaders have agreed to take up the bill next Wednesday, after a Lincoln Day vacation.

Alexandria OK's School Bond Issue

ALEXANDRIA, Minn. (AP)—A $1.8 million school bond issue was approved Monday, 1,377-830, according to unofficial returns. The funds are for additions and improvements to the senior and junior high schools and the area technical school, including a senior high swimming pool.

NASON ON EDUCATION

Some Youngsters Need More Help

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D. University of Southern California

An average pupil responds well to group methods. His background of information and speed of thinking are quite adequate for maintaining day-by-day progress.

While a gifted child often is bored by what to him is a slow pace, he can succeed in a regular class.

It is the retarded child who suffers in a normal schoolroom. He needs more time to assimilate the meaning of one sentence before the next is added. Materials presented too fast result in confused thinking, which blocks understanding.

The below-average child needs concrete evidence, objects and pictures. He needs specific directions given step by step and adequate opportunity to master one step before being burdened with the next.

Miss X realized the special needs of her 20 slow children in a class that was called eighth grade. One need was for more individual attention than she could provide.

PREPARATION for a school

"open house" provided just the opportunity Miss X had been waiting for to demonstrate the need for teacher helpers in the class. For this purpose, she borrowed four girls from an above-average eighth grade classroom.

With the four enthusiastic youngsters to help her, the teacher placed the children in small groups and launched them on projects, making posters and decorations. With five supervisors, no child was left too long without individual instructions and directions.

The room buzzed with happy activity. The children were working with materials they could see and feel. Instructions were given in a manner easy for them to grasp.

In this project, the children were not handicapped by their lack of facility in abstract thinking, as they would have been in an average classroom. Nor were they overwhelmed listening to presentations geared to more able children.

THE SAME principles should govern the day-to-day procedures with reading, writing and arithmetic.

The retarded child needs to build up his concepts at his own pace. He does not readily grasp the meaning of a word from the dictionary definition which uses synonyms and antonyms. He needs to "see" the word in operation through the use of pictures or concrete objects.

One good test of his understanding of a word is to ask him to draw a picture showing what it means. This is time-consuming, but it brings its rewards to those who can see the happy faces of children succeeding at the highest level of their capabilities.

So HELP Me by Fran

Dry skin? If you are using a soap that adds to your troubles, why not buy a box of a lanolated dry skin soap — Rexall for many years made this wonderful soap — then we received notice that it was being discontinued — we at once bought cases of it, and are giving you the advantage of our good buy — This soap was always $1.19 for three bars — now buy as many boxes as you like for 69¢ each — This makes a fine bath soap and bathers well in any type water.

Thursday, today, I will have attended a school on Chiropractic preparations — I always look forward to this because no matter how many times I go to these classes, I learn something that is of help to both you and me — The man who conducts the class is so sharp that it is a real pleasure to attend — If you watch the column next week, I will try to pass on to you some of the helpful hints he will give us.

Next week on Monday is VALENTINE'S DAY — why not find some little gift for your Valentine — in the Cosmetic department at BROWN DRUG you will find an assortment of little gifts from a dollar up — among these things of course the most popular item for giving is something in the perfume or cologne line — When thinking of fine colognes and perfumes without going into too much money — think of the fine lines of FABERGÉ — CHANÉL — GUERLAIN — and LANVIN — In thinking of the Guerlain line it always brings to mind the famous "SHALIMAR" fragrance — and remember — the only place you can buy this line in Winona is at BROWN'S.

For the finest in Cosmetics — visit Brown Drug.

H. F. Stohrs, Alma, Observe Golden Year

ALMA, Wis. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Hartman F. Stohr were honored on their golden anniversary at an open house in the parlor of St. Paul and Luke United Church of Christ Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Reidt and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stohr were hosts and made arrangements for the celebration. Women of the parish served lunch to the 300 guests.

The Rev. Gene Krueger gave an informal sermon at the church in tribute to the honored couple. Many floral arrangements and gifts were given to the honored couple. Mrs. David Baecker poured and Mrs. Ray Wenger served the cake.

Guests attended from Merrill, Wauwatosa, La Crosse, Cochrane, Nelson, Alma, Eau Claire, Mondovi, Gilmanston and Fountain City, Wis., Rochester, Wabasha and Winona, Minn., and Torrance, Calif.

Mr. Stohr and the former Susie Hoch were married Feb. 5, 1916, at the court house in Winona.

Mr. and Mrs. Stohr returned to Alma to live with Mrs. John L. Stohr, mother of the groom. His father, who had operated a furniture store and funeral home, died in 1915. Hartman Stohr took over the business in 1917. Mr. Stohr served as Buffalo County Coroner for many years.

They have one son, Herbert, who now operates the Stohr Furniture Store here. They have three grandsons.

Doors Are Important in Life, Rev. Walter Meyer Tells BPW

"Service is the rent we pay for the time God gives us here on earth," said the Rev. Walter Meyer, pastor of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Lewiston, Minn., guest speaker at the Tuesday dinner meeting of the Winona Business and Professional Women's Club at Hotel Winona.

Rev. Meyer, who is president of the Lewiston Lions Club, and also a director of the Lions Eye Bank at the University of Minnesota, spoke on "Giving Sight to the Blind Today."

"Doors are important in life," said Rev. Meyer. "There are many doors which each of us use in our daily living. The door to our home; the door to our work; the door to city government; the doors of schools; (Rev. Meyer was president of the Southern Minnesota Parent Teachers Association for four years); the door to health; the door to the jail; the door to our church, and the doors to our clubs, where we can participate in an active manner in the local and national programs."

REV. MEYER, who had eye problems himself and who was aided through the skill of several doctors, then spoke of the work done through the Eye Bank, sponsored and aided financially by Lions clubs. He stated that there are 6,000 blind in Minnesota today and for the majority of them, a cornea transplant could mean sight.

He pleaded with members to pledge their eyes, at time of death, so that someone else might see, and told of the speed with which such a pledge is handled and the marvelous benefits derived from this gift, which is "one good thing everyone can do." A film made and sponsored by the Lions clubs of Minnesota was shown, "Eyes for the Future."

The program was sponsored by the civic participation committee of the BPW club, with Miss Mildred Bartsch, chairman, assisted by Miss Lillian Engh and Miss Amanda Benedict. Profiles of famous women born in the month of February were given by Miss Bartsch and Mrs. Lawrence Breitbach. Devotions were given by Miss Edna Harris; the Pledge of Allegiance was recited and patriotic songs were sung by the group, with Mrs. James Werra, accompanist.

Miss Rose Schettler presided at the business session. Reports on the recent mid-winter board meeting of the Minnesota Federation of BPWC were given by Mrs. Marie Fjelstad and Mrs. E. Ruth Markle.

WAYS AND MEANS chairman, Miss Margaret Weimer, had nutmeats for sale and also the BPW cookbook for this area. Miss Schettler announced that the next meeting of the membership card group will be Feb. 21, instead of Feb. 22, in order to avoid conflict with the Community Concert Series.

Mrs. J. I. Van Vranken and Miss Sara Potter, co-chairman of the friendship group, stated that this group will hold a Valentine Party at Hotel Winona Monday at 6:15 p.m.

Miss Potter won the special prize and presented it to Miss Schettler who celebrates her birthday in February. A social hour followed.

School Bonds At La Crescent Cost 4.1 Percent

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — La Crescent Board of Education received two bids for its $190,000 general obligation bond issue for its high school addition Wednesday.

The contract was awarded Juran & Moody, Inc., St. Paul, low bidder with 4.1647 percent.

Only other bidder was J. M. Dain & Co., Minneapolis, with Allison-Williams Co. and Piper, Jaffray & Hopwood, associate bidders. Dain bid 4 percent interest on bonds coming due between 1969-1980; 4.10 for bonds due between 1981-1986, and 4.20 for the remainder maturing between 1987-1996.

A loan of $260,000 has been granted the district by the State Maximum Loan Committee. This and the issue sold Wednesday comprise the $450,000 which the district in December approved to build the high school addition.

The original $1,400,000 bond issue sold by the school went at 3.6 percent. The board attributes the higher cost of borrowing at this time to general rising interest rates and the small issue. With this loan, the district has reached 98 percent of its bonding powers.

Superintendent William Stetler said plans will be ready for bidding the second week in March. He said the total of the new loans will pay for both construction and equipment.

The district anticipates having the addition ready for the fall opening of school.

VFW to Hold Member Dinner

The annual membership dinner will be Tuesday evening, members of Neville-Lien Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, learned at the regular post meeting Wednesday night.

Also announced was the upcoming blood donation contest with American Legion members. Gerald Van Pelt, blood bank chairman, told members the Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Winona March 1 through 4. He urged donations by as many individuals as possible and said present reserve supplies of blood are low.

Members saw a film on the combat areas of Viet Nam. Officers from all 1st District VFW posts will attend a dinner meeting at Caledonia Feb. 21.

Durand Debaters 3rd in Tourney

DURAND, Wis. — The Durand and High School varsity debate team tied for third place last weekend at the 11th annual St. Olaf College invitational debate tournament at Northfield.

The Durand record was 8-2, the negative winning all five and the affirmative winning three and losing two.

On the negative team were Mary Shafer and John Hess, and affirmative, Barbara Morrey and Gary Weckin.

The team was led by Hess with 490 points, followed by Weckin with 488, Mary, 486, and Barbara, 482.

In the forensics branch of the tournament Durand had three entries. Hess participated in radio speaking, Mary Spindler in oratory, and James Forster in extemporaneous speaking. Forster and Spindler made the finals before being eliminated.

This Saturday the varsity enters the sectional debate tournament at Chippewa Falls McDonald, with a trip to the state tournament at Madison for the winners as the incentive.

Exchange Student Of Nine Years Ago Comes Back

"It is good to be back again," Mary Lucas of London, an exchange student here nine years ago, told the Rotary Club at Hotel Winona Wednesday.

"You know," she said, "my family was hard to understand when I got home. They had a strange accent."

The readjustment to English life was difficult, she added; the credits obtained here were not acceptable in her school, so she had to go back to high school there another year before she could enter King's College. She graduated from high school here during her year in Winona.

An English major, Miss Lucas has been in personnel work since graduating. She is seeking a job here.

"I had to come back to Winona," she said, "to see how my old friends fared."

OSSEO HONOR STUDENT OSSEO, Wis. (Special) — Two freshmen at Osseo High School attained straight A records during the first semester, said Principal John A. Leandholm. They were Carolyn Gopin and Eileen Isom.

Legion Oratorical Contest Slated at Arcadia Meeting

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — The Trempealeau County American Legion oratorical contest will be Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Trempealeau Electric building, Arcadia, according to James R. Davis, county contest chairman.

It will be held in conjunction with the February meeting of the Trempealeau County Council of the American Legion.

Hosts will be members of Ticker-Erickson Post 17, Arcadia. Myron Scow is commander. Martinus Bearud, Galesville, is county commander.

Winner of the contest will represent the county in the 10th District contest at Arcadia Feb. 21. Last year's winner was Barbara Creeley, Arcadia. The public is invited to the contest.

BLAIR EXPLORER POST

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — With the chartering of a new Explorer Post 52 at Blair, the American Legion Post here now is sponsoring the entire Scouting family. Steve Patrow is adviser and James Bade, assistant. Jerome Mattison is institutional representative. Ray Noren, Howard Turk and the Rev. L. H. Jacobson are the committee.

Special Council Meetings Set At La Crescent

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — At a busy session Monday night La Crescent Village Council set dates for discussion on an extended platting ordinance proposed by Mayor Robert Young, for a zoning hearing and full-time police protection discussion.

The mayor said a platting ordinance could be drawn to cover a two-mile radius from the village so roadways, grades and slopes could be properly laid out.

THE feasibility of such an ordinance and full-time police protection will be discussed with the long-range planning commission Monday night.

The suggested platting ordinance discussion will open at 7 p.m. The auxiliary police, two current constables and Houston County Sheriff Byron Whitehouse will be invited to the discussion on police protection at 8:30 p.m.

All councilmen and citizens attending agreed on the need for full-time police protection. The planning commission was requested to present estimated expenses for such protection for five years.

Proposed changes in the zoning ordinance, involving formal notices to property owners in the area where changes in district designation are to be considered and whether the council has power to fix fees for such notices, will be the subject of a public hearing March 7 at 8 p.m.

It was recommended that costs of renting a council meeting place be explored. Present meeting facilities could be inexpensively converted to need extra garage space for village equipment. The council voted to obtain estimates re-decorating the village hall.

Tabled for the March meeting was the long-discussed matter of whether to fluoridate the water. The annual audit was tabled.

THE COUNCIL agreed to advertise for bids for insurance. Currently, insurance and bonds for employees are secured through Winona Insurance Agency.

The council voted to send Assessor, Erwin Ganschow, to the state school for assessors March 1-4.

The council granted Fire Chief, Clarence Vetsch, permission to deposit firemen's relief association funds in 90-day certificates of deposit.

Mayor Young reported that he, Councilmen Hugh Fay and Martin Miller and Clerk Robert Kies, comprising the investment committee, had invested $160,000 of village funds in 90-day certificates of deposit at 4 1/2 percent at La Crescent State Bank and will invest additional funds at the end of the period.

MORAVIAN RETREAT

BETHANY, Minn. (Special) — "Death" will be the topic under discussion by the Moravians at a high school retreat at Camp Clearwater, near Brainerd, Minn., Friday through Sunday. Seniors and post-high school students may attend. Miss Florence Schubert, member of Bethany Moravian Church, will be one of the leaders. She is on the faculty of St. Olaf College, Northfield, teaching psychiatric nursing.

Ettrick Lions Note 15th Year Of Service

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special) — Shafec A. Mansour, Wausau, state secretary of Lions International, and James D. Foster, River Falls, state treasurer and governor of District 27E, were speakers Monday night at the 15th anniversary of the Ettrick Lions Club.

Mansour born in Nazareth, and organizer of the Ettrick club, described the Lions as a group of 800,000 men in 132 countries who are banded together to do good as they assume leadership in civic, social and industrial affairs.

WISCONSIN has 317 clubs with 12,000 members.

Foster congratulated the 19-member Ettrick organization on its activities of the last 15 years. It sponsors a Boy Scout trip to Mexico; assists disaster-stricken families and recruits Red Cross blood donors; built a skating rink, and a fireplace at Wayside Park; raised a large sum for a boy's heart operation; provides Christmas baskets for needy children; presents American flags to schools; purchased a stage curtain and chairs for the community hall, etc.

Myron Johnson, Lions president, introduced the speakers. The Rev. Ronning, pastor of Living Hope Lutheran Church where the banquet was held, gave the prayers and played baritone ukelele accompaniment with Clayton Olson, pianist, while Mrs. Ronning led group singing.

A SEXTET comprised of Rev. Ronning, Olson, Johnson, N. C. Twesme, Arnold Brovold and Robert Olsdahl serenaded the wives of the Lions; each received a gift.

Kenneth Truax and Olsdahl received past president pins. Leslie Greenleaf, Maynard Pratt and Edward Brecklin, new members, were introduced. Dinner was served by the Erickson Cafe.

A public card party which the Lions will sponsor in the community hall Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. will be used for community betterment.

Wisconsin Asks Bids on Roads

MADISON, Wis. — Highway projects in Buffalo, Jackson, Trempealeau and La Crosse counties will be among the 35 improvement and development programs on which the Wisconsin Highway Commission will open bids at Madison next Thursday.

The Buffalo County project will be base course and aggregates for bituminous road mix surface on 3.5 miles of Highway 88 between the south junction with Highway E and the north junction with County E near the village of Cream.

The Jackson County project calls for bituminous paving of 4.861 miles of Highway 54 between Town of Irving and a point .445 mile inside Black River Falls.

The Trempealeau County project will be grading, base course and bituminous paving, plus one bridge, totaling 3.099 miles on U. S. 10 and Highway 27 between a point about one-half mile east of Osseo and the Jackson County line to 10th Street in Osseo where a 57-foot bridge will be constructed over Beef (Buffalo) River.

Four projects will be bid in La Crosse County, three of them involving Interstate 90.

To Get License

Driving Course Required For Under 18 Next Year

After Jan. 1, 1967, persons under the age of 18 will not be issued a Minnesota driver license unless they have successfully completed an approved course in driver education.

The new law will affect only those youths who apply for a driver license after that date.

The course must include both classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction, as approved by the State Department of Education. The youth who successfully completes the course will be eligible to take the driver license examination and, if he passes, be issued a driver license.

The course will include a minimum of 30 hours of classroom instruction and six hours of behind-the-wheel training.

The new requirement does not apply to those who are issued a license prior to Jan. 1, 1967, or to any person who has completed a course in driver education in another state.

The law says the course in any public school will be open for enrollment to persons between the ages of 15 and 18 years who reside in the school district or attend school in the district. The public school offering the course may charge an enrollment fee but the fee may not exceed the actual cost to the public school and the school district.

Statistics show that youths who have had the driver education course at school have substantially fewer accidents and violations than youths who have not had driver education, the Minnesota Highway Department said.

Perfection Lodge Names Peterson

Lester O. Peterson

Lester O. Peterson, Wincrest, a former master of Winona Lodge 18, AF & AM, was elected venerable master of the Winona Scottish Rite Bodies at the Masonic Temple Wednesday afternoon.

Peterson succeeds Dr. Charles F. Stroebel, Rochester, who has headed the body for the past three years. Peterson is a past commander of Couer de Lion Commandery, Knights Templar. He was president of Winona Rotary in 1962.

Other officers elected include Lyle Briggs, Houston, Minn., senior warden; John R. Jones, Austin, Minn., junior warden; Lyle Morcomb treasurer; Merrill Holland, secretary, and S. A. Boyd, Almoner.

Announcement of work in the Rose Croix section of the Scottish Rite Saturday was made by Julius W. Opheim, wise master of that section.

The degree work will begin at 1:15 p.m. following a noon meal at the Temple. In the afternoon the 15th, 16th and 17th degrees will be worked and at 7 p.m. the Knight Rose Croix or 18th degrees will be conferred.

St. Teresa Sets Visiting Chemist

Dr. William Deskin, professor of chemistry and chairman of the department at Cornell College, will be at the College of Saint Teresa, Monday and Tuesday under the program of the American Chemical Society and the National Science Foundation.

The Teresian visitor earned undergraduate degrees in education at Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, master's at the University of Iowa and a doctor's at the State University of Iowa.

Dr. Deskin's search interests are in the fields of aqueous and non-aqueous solutions of coordination compounds and electrochemistry.

Dr. Deskin will give two evening lectures: Monday, "Electron Spin Resonance," and Tuesday, "Coordination Chemistry." Both lectures are at 7:30 p.m. in the Roger Bacon lecture hall.

LAKE CITY CURRICULUM

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — Journalism, speech, personal typing and business law are being offered as electives to students in grades 10-12 at Lincoln High School during the second semester. ## Modern Math - No. 3

Children Learn to Love New Method

By PROF. W. F. LLOYD
University of Tampa

There are four fundamental operations in arithmetic: Addition, multiplication, subtraction and division.

The first two of these are undefined operations. This simply means the operations are so fundamental that there are no simpler words to explain them. We find synonyms for the word addition, but we cannot define it.

We have all spent many hours learning the addition and multiplication tables — the addition and multiplication facts. (Modern Math students still face this task.)

A person just had to memorize the facts in the tables. Of course, many explanations or illustrations were made to ease individual acceptance of these facts.

You put down 3 pencils and then placed 2 more pencils beside them and counted 5 pencils to verify that  $2 + 3 = 5$ . To keep from getting the idea that the tables applied only to pencils, similar experiments were tried with other objects. Pieces of chalk, wooden blocks and other articles were laid down and then counted.

These carefully planned experiments plus the fearsome force of adult authority soon got you to the point of accepting the tables wholeheartedly so that you memorized them halfheartedly.

OF COURSE, your teachers were careful to work only with such objects so that the experiments came out the way they wanted.

They never tried pouring 2 buckets of water over 3 buckets of dry dirt. You do not get 5 buckets of mud. Two cups of hot water poured over 3 cups of sugar will not give you 5 cups of syrup.

These and similar experiments were carefully avoided because they were messy. They were misleading, and they tended to defeat the purpose of the experiment.

In the first instance there were not 3 buckets of dirt, merely 3 buckets filled to the brim with dry dirt and millions of tiny air spaces between the grains.

In the second instance the sugar is not added to the water; it is dissolved in the water. In the modern texts this handling of objects is largely replaced by pictures of familiar objects in sets.

Now let us consider the remaining two operations, subtraction and division. These are defined operations. That is, subtraction can be defined in terms of addition, and division in terms of multiplication. Remember that you never studied a subtraction table nor a division table.

SUBTRACTION has a doozy of a definition: Subtraction is the process of finding a number called the difference, such that the sum of the difference and the subtrahend equals the minuend. Is that all clear to you? Just try teaching that to a child in the lower grades.

The definition of subtraction is entirely too wordy and obscure, so that the subtraction algorithm is resorted to:

" $a - b = c$  if and only if  $c + b = a$ " where  $a$ ,  $b$ , and  $c$  are any numbers.

This does not look much better to many people, but the kids, bless their open little minds, do not fight it the way adults do. They accept it and learn to live with it after careful introduction.

In Modern Math textbooks, for the lower grades, will be found numerous problems similar to these:

$$\begin{array}{r} 7 + x = 18 \\ \text{or } 7 + \square = 18 \\ \text{or } 7 + \square = 15 \\ \text{or } 7 + \square = 15 \end{array}$$

(No, this is not algebra)

These problems are designed to lead the child into subtraction. He is supposed to mentally scan through his addition table for 7 until he comes to 7 + 8 = 15 and then place 8 in place of  $x$ , or in the box or on the line, or in the blank space. After attaining reasonable proficiency, he is shown that this

Differences and missing addends

Find the missing addend.

Are the two girls working the same problem? Should they get the same answer? Yes.

The girls probably are thinking about the problems in the same way, although the problems are written differently.

Copy each exercise on your paper. Then fill in the missing numbers.

(A) $\begin{array}{r} 32 \\ + 11 \\ \hline 75 \end{array}$	(B) $\begin{array}{r} 43 \\ + 11 \\ \hline 89 \end{array}$	(C) $\begin{array}{r} 11 \\ + 32 \\ \hline 47 \end{array}$	(D) $\begin{array}{r} 43 \\ + 11 \\ \hline 78 \end{array}$	(E) $\begin{array}{r} 33 \\ + 11 \\ \hline 79 \end{array}$	(F) $\begin{array}{r} 75 \\ + 11 \\ \hline 87 \end{array}$
--	--	--	--	--	--

Find the differences.

(A) Since  $23 + 35 = 58$ , we know that  $58 - 35 = \square$

(B) Since  $42 + 37 = 79$ , we know that  $79 - 42 = \square$

(C) Since  $24 + 61 = 85$ , we know that  $85 - 24 = \square$

(D) Since  $32 + 45 = 77$ , we know that  $77 - 45 = \square$

Find the differences.

(A) Since  $65 + 21 = 86$ ,  $86 - 21 = \square$

(B) Since  $65 + 21 = 86$ ,  $86 - 65 = \square$

(C) Since  $34 + 25 = 59$ ,  $59 - 25 = \square$

(D) Since  $34 + 25 = 59$ ,  $59 - 34 = \square$

(reprinted from Teacher's Edition, Elementary School Mathematics, Addison-Wesley Publishing Company, Inc.)

Division and multiplication

When we subtract, we find a missing addend.

$7 - 2 = \square$   $\square + 2 = 7$

These two numbers are the same.

Subtraction and addition are related.

When we divide, we find a missing factor.

$12 \div 4 = \square$   $\square \times 4 = 12$

These two numbers are the same.

Division and multiplication are related.

Find the quotients.

(A) Since  $2 \times 4 = 8$ , we know that  $8 \div 4 = \square$

(B) Since  $3 \times 3 = 9$ , we know that  $9 \div 3 = \square$

(C) Since  $5 \times 2 = 10$ , we know that  $10 \div 2 = \square$

(D) Since  $3 \times 5 = 15$ , we know that  $15 \div 5 = \square$

(E) Since  $5 \times 3 = 15$ , we know that  $15 \div 3 = \square$

(F) Since  $4 \times 5 = 20$ , we know that  $20 \div 5 = \square$

(G) Since  $5 \times 4 = 20$ , we know that  $20 \div 4 = \square$

(H) Since  $6 \times 3 = 18$ , we know that  $18 \div 3 = \square$

(I) Since  $3 \times 6 = 18$ , we know that  $18 \div 6 = \square$

(J) Since  $9 \times 8 = 72$ , we know that  $72 \div 8 = \square$ problem is another form of the problem  $15 - 7 = \square$ , and that the correct answer is 8.

The child is soon willing to accept the definition that  $15 - 7 = 8$  if and only if  $7 + 8 = 15$ . From here to the general form  $a - b = c$  if and only if  $b + c = a$  is not a difficult step for his elastic little mind.

NOW LET US examine division, the other defined operation with its equally verbose definition. Division is defined as the process of finding a number called the quotient such that the product of the quotient and the divisor equals the dividend. This mess of words is bypassed in favor of the division algorithm  $a \div b = c$  if and only if  $c \times b = a$ .

This algorithm is introduced by giving problems like  $6 \times \square = 18$ . The student mentally reviews his 6 table until he comes to the line  $6 \times 3 = 18$ . He now knows that placing a 3 in the box will make the statement true. After practice with problems of this form the equivalent form  $18 \div 6 = \square$  is introduced. This in turn leads to the division algorithm  $18 \div 3 = 6$  if and only if  $6 \times 3 = 18$ . The general form,  $a \div b = c$  if and only if  $c \times b = a$ , is the only step that seems to follow naturally.

This may appear to be a roundabout method to adults who have already learned to subtract and divide, but if you stop to analyze your own experiences you will find that this is essentially the method you used.

Our modern method is very useful when new kinds of numbers such as fractions, decimals and negative numbers are introduced. These algorithms prove helpful in algebra and other advanced mathematics courses. For the student to learn them young and to resort to them frequently will improve his mathematical ability and progress.

Tomorrow: THERE IS A LAW.

Business Is Preparing for A Bigger War

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Signs are multiplying that many U.S. businessmen are preparing for the chance that the Viet Nam war will be stepped up.

Reports from Honolulu of greater determination to see the war through are being interpreted by many here as reasons for industry and trade to take more precautions now. The memory of Korean War conditions still is fresh.

Precautions already clearly under way include increased orders for materials and durable goods, especially machinery. Backlogs of orders on factory books are rising. And more pressure is reported for early shipments — a demand that some suppliers are finding hard to satisfy.

The scope of the war effort is becoming more apparent — American military personnel in South Viet Nam already increased to 200,000, and the official estimate boosting the cost of the war to $10 billion in the next fiscal year, from $4 billion in this one.

Industrial prices have been feeling the pressure. Many manufacturers, unable to get quick delivery on needed materials, have been paying more in the secondary markets than the listed price set by the producer. Such buying at higher prices doesn't show up in the official price indexes, but it does on company books.

Interest rates have felt the demand for funds to finance these purchases of materials for quick use or for inventory build-ups as a hedge against what may be ahead. Bankers say such business psychology is back of some of the growing demand for business loans.

BOY FRIENDS OUTRANKED

NEW YORK (AP) — The postman outranks the boy friend three to one on the holiday gift list of secretaries "round these parts, and even the boss plays second fiddle to the gent who delivers the mail.

This information was disclosed in a study of Christmas gift-buying trends conducted recently by the Bulova Watch people among members of a nationwide professional secretaries organization.

Forty-five per cent of the girls polled indicated they intend to give a Yule gift to the mailman, but only 16 per cent will buy something for the boy friend. The boss will be remembered

WSC Fraternity Initiates Ten In Ceremonies

Seven men were initiated into membership in Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity at Winona State College Saturday. Formal ceremonies took place at the Winona YMCA.

New members are: James Kasten, Thomas Murray and James Evenson, Winona; Ronald Stevenson and Al Thompson, Collingswood, N.J.; Louis Molander, Rockford, Ill., and Thomas Lennon, Staten Island, N.Y.

The formal initiation culminated 10 weeks of pledging activities by the fraternity, and boosts the Winona State chapter to an active membership of 52.

Murray was awarded the "Outstanding Pledge" award at the dinner-dance held at the La Crosse Holiday Inn Saturday night.

Approximately 125 persons attended the dinner dance. Jacques Reidelberger, assistant professor of speech at Winona State, was the featured speaker.

Backing Car Hit On Icy Hill Road

An icy hill apparently contributed to a head-on collision on Pleasant Hill Township Road 2 Tuesday morning, according to Sheriff George L. Fort.

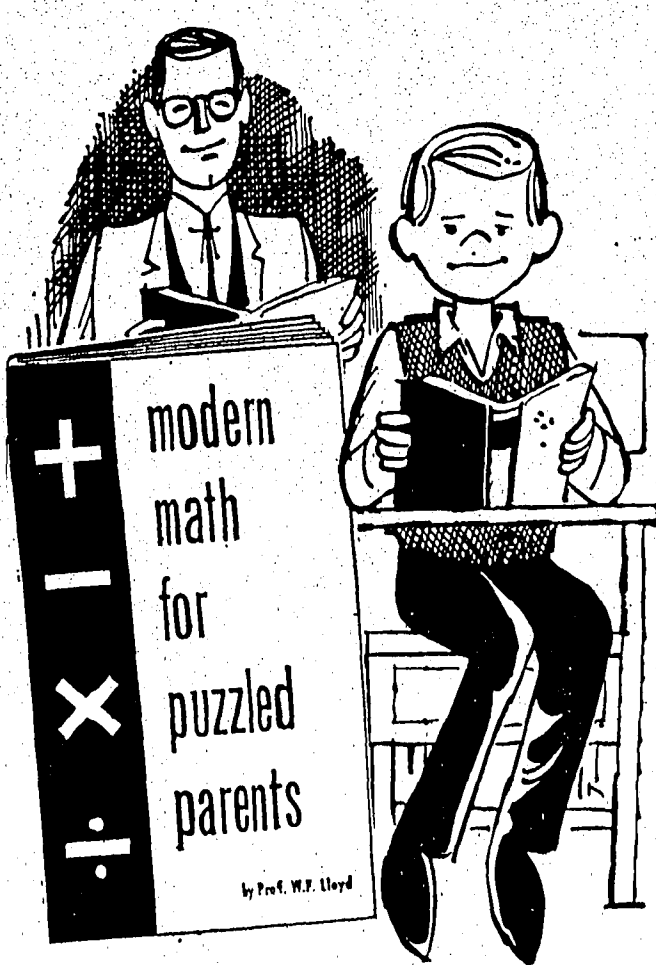

Eldon H. Pagel, 38, La Crescent Rt. 2, Minn., was driving west on the road about 6:30 a.m. when he found himself unable to drive all the way up the icy grade. While he was attempting to back down the hill, an eastbound car driven by Beatrice D. Ullan, Houston Rt. 2, Minn., collided head-on with Pagel's car.

Pagel jumped from his vehicle as the impact of the collision bounced it down a 25- or 30-foot embankment at the north edge of the township road. The Pagel car landed on CSA 8 below and rolled about 100 feet into a ditch alongside the county road.

Pagel escaped with just cuts and bruises according to the sheriff's report. The Ullan car had been unable to stop on the icy hillside in time to avoid a collision.

Damage was about $200 to the right front and front of the Pagel car and $125 to the left front of the Ullan vehicle.

'Modern Math' Series Offers Booklet for Parents' Know-How

Feel frustrated when Johnny brings home his New Math homework?

Are "off base numerals," and "sets," and "modular arithmetic" still mysteries to you?

Then you won't want to miss the series starting Monday in this newspaper on "Modern Math for Puzzled Parents."

Written by Prof. W. F. Lloyd, an expert who has made a specialty of explaining the new system to adults, it tells the essentials in ten easy-to-understand articles. There are explanatory problems, and at the end a test so that you can size up your own progress.

See this newspaper Monday for "Modern Math for Puzzled Parents."

Later, if you want the series in booklet form, send 50 cents each for as many booklets as you desire to "Modern Math" in care of this newspaper.

Addition Made to Street Project at St. Charles

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — Fifteen property owners attended a hearing at the St. Charles City Council meeting Tuesday night regarding an addition to the street improvement project estimated at $60,000.

A petition from 16 taxpayers on the south end of the city asked that the curb and gutter and street surfacing work include 15th Street. This addition to the project would cost about $60,000 instead of $150,000, as previously stated erroneously. The addition of this project raised the originally planned project to a now estimated $500,000.

OF THIS, $170,000 would be for curb and gutter and $330,000 for surfacing. In answer to a taxpayer question, Mayor Don Hankerson said property owners would be assessed approximately $2.50 per lineal foot frontage for curb and gutter, and $1.25 per lineal foot along the depth of the lots for persons with corner lots. The cost difference, he said, would be absorbed by the city improvement fund.

Hankerson said the assessments could be spread on the tax roll over 10 or 20 years or property owners could pay them in a lump sum.

He said the bituminous street surfacing would be assessed against the entire city and spread over a 10-year period. Present assessed value of the city is $800,000, and it could go near a million before the project is paid for.

THE STREET improvement project will include about seven miles of the city's some 15 miles of streets.

The engineer said he will have completed plans at the city hall here March 15 at 9 a.m. for property owners to view. He will answer questions about existing curbstones and other matters citizens may wish explained.

Otis Reynolds, taxpayer, asked if the project couldn't be voted on at the spring election March 1. Council polled its members and voted unanimously against it, feeling that the improvement is urgently needed, and voting would delay and defeat work already done on the project.

Elwin Busian, flower shop owner, spoke in favor of the project. The council has set March 29 at 8 p.m. for opening construction bids.

IN OTHER business council accepted the resignation of James O'Brien as manager of the municipal liquor store. He is going to another job. Ralph Haugen and Mel Brownell, liquor commission, will make recommendations on applications.

Six applications have been received for police officer replacing Fritz Wilson, who resigned to join the Winona County sheriff's staff. Three of the applications were taken under advisement for further checking.

Larry Edwards was hired to replace Gerald Haas on the police force. Haas resigned, Edwards will work part time.

James Hewitt is police chief. A poll will be taken by Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. among patrons on whether they wish toll-free service to Rochester. Final decision will be by the Railroad & Warehouse Commission.

TABLED FOR further consideration was a proposal by Martin Geisler, Rochester, that he establish a rubbish hauling service in St. Charles.

Recorder Louis Wilkins was authorized to have ballots printed for the city election May 1. Frank Koch was named chairman of election judges.

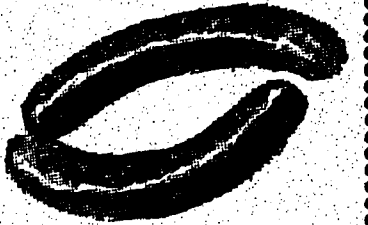

On motion of Brownell with second by Dean Gaulke, the recorder was instructed to gather the city's insurance policies so a survey can be made to determine if action should be taken on changing them.

Clubroom Planned By Sportsmen At La Crescent

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — Gopher State Sportsmen's Club entertained a capacity crowd at its annual free venison stew supper for members and wives Saturday at the Commodore Club, La Crescent.

Mrs. Norman Olson was awarded the hunting and fishing car donated by the club. She, in turn, will give the 1957 model to the La Crescent Lions Club, of which her husband is president. The Lions, she said, will use the car in a fund-raising project to aid the blind.

Jerry Miller and Kenneth Mulgren were masters of ceremonies.

Miller said dues were raised this year because of increased benefits. A trap range on land purchased is being completed. Plans are to build clubrooms. The land includes a pond for skating and hills for sliding and tobogganing.

Slides were shown on the expert hunting techniques used by club officers. President Adolph Waldner, was presented a picture of a deer. Several other gifts donated by La Crescent and area businessmen were distributed.

WABASHA, Minn. — Elections were held at Republican party caucuses Monday, and delegates were elected to the county convention at Millville March 5. One precinct, West Albany Township, voted to endorse GOP gubernatorial candidate Harold LeVander.

Elections were as follows: Wabasha — first ward, Joe Halverson, chairman, Mrs. William Bruegger, chairman, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruegger, delegates; second ward, John Dancik, chairman, Mrs. Daniel Stamschror, chairwoman, and the Rev. ### Identified Flying Object Hits Trailer House

A "shot" that puzzles police and some window-breaking vandalism at Cathedral Grade School were reported today by Chief James W. McCabe.

Carl Gunderson, 1845 W. 5th St., reported to police Wednesday at 5:27 p.m. that someone had vandalized his trailer house the previous night. The vandal had shot a piece of metal into the side of the trailer, Gunderson told police.

Investigation showed that a piece from an automobile radiator fan had struck into the trailer's side and fallen to the ground. Gunderson's neighbors heard a loud bang Tuesday at about 9 p.m., and Gunderson heard a thud outside his trailer at the same time.

The missile came from west of the trailer. The trailer court is located at the south side of 5th Street.

The Rev. Robert Brom, assistant pastor of Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, told police Wednesday at 9:20 p.m. that four windows had been broken that night at the Cathedral Grade School.

Mabel Telephone Directors Named; Profit Reported

MABEL, Minn. (Special) — Two new directors were elected to the Mabel Cooperative Telephone Co. board at the annual meeting in the new telephone building Wednesday.

Truman Kirkby and Clarence Knoke, residing in the area of the new Burr Oak, Iowa, exchange, were elected to succeed John Swenson and Ervin Inglett. Nansen Spande was re-elected. All terms are for three years.

At their reorganization session directors re-elected present officers, including Dr. Vernon A. Karli, president; Alton Spande, vice president; Belmont Humphrey, secretary, and George Ellstead, treasurer.

Manager Ernest Corson, reported that the Burr Oak exchange will be cut over to dial Feb. 18. The poles, lines, and buildings of the old exchanges will be sold in the spring.

Corson reported that the profit over operations during last year was $5,364.

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — The eighth annual ice fishing contests sponsored by the Blair Lions Club on Lake Henry has been rescheduled for Feb. 27 in hopes that the ice will be solid again by that time.

High temperatures and rain this week have made it unsafe. It was to have been held this Sunday. Tickets already sold will be good for the new date.

Liquor at Party For Students, 19 Suspended

LAKE PARK, Minn. (AP) — Nineteen high school students here have been suspended from participation in athletics, speech and music as the result of a party in a private home at which liquor was served.

High school teacher William Curtis, 27, resigned after he was called before the school board, apparently for not reporting the party.

At a PTA meeting Monday night, B.H. Hill of the Minnesota State High School League said the suspensions will have to stick or Lake Park will be ousted from the league.

Curtis said the party was held Jan. 15 at a rural home while the parents were away. The 19 high school pupils and some students from a Moorhead college attended.

Alcoholic beverages were served, and the daughter of the family asked Curtis, a family friend, to help control some of the party-goers.

He said, "I felt it was my moral obligation to go. I was there about two hours and I never saw a high school student take a drink."

He said he did not report the party because he went as a private citizen, not as a teacher.

Three More Dead in State Auto Mishaps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Minneapolis woman and an Altoona, Iowa, man were Minnesota's latest reported traffic fatalities, raising the state's 1966 toll to 52, compared with 79 a year ago today.

In addition, a Lake Crystal man was killed when his car was hit by a train.

Helen M. Gilbertson, 74, Minneapolis, was fatally injured Wednesday night when a car struck a tree at the Minneapolis suburb of Edina. Her husband, John, 80, the driver, was hospitalized in good condition.

Another Hennepin County traffic death Wednesday was that of Archie Young, 65, Altoona, Iowa, who was injured Feb. 5 near Mound. He died in a St. Louis Park hospital.

The Blue Earth County sheriff's office reported that Elmer A. Randall, 69, a retired farmer of the Lake Crystal area, was killed early today when his stalled car was hit by a train.

The accident happened three miles west of Lake Crystal at a private, field road, where Randall evidently had spun his wheels trying to get the vehicle off the tracks.

R. O. Elvin, St. James, brakeman riding in the diesel cab of the Chicago and North Western freight, said the lights of the car were turned off and that he saw Randall look up just before the engine smashed into it. The car was carried some 700 to 800 feet down the track.

Sheriff's officers said Randall may have fallen asleep prior to the crash.

The dam at Ettrick went out today, according to report, and Beaver Creek is overflowing its banks between Ettrick and Galesville. Beaver Creek flows into Black River below Galesville.

A report that the Pigeon Falls dam, used by Bar-Non Mills, went out, is false. Ice jammed against it Wednesday but water went down without flooding the area.

George Meyer, superintendent at the Whitewater Wildlife and Fish Refuge, said no extreme damage resulted from the breakup of the Whitewater River. Several ice jams held water back, and banksides areas were flooded.

St. Paul Red Cross headquarters said 65 homes in Peterson, Rushford, and Whalan on the Root River had been evacuated Wednesday, mostly because they were isolated by high water. Some businesses also were affected by flooding and seepage, and several schools were closed Wednesday.

Radio Station Planned for State Prison

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (AP) — A few years ago D. J. Leary visited the State Reformatory at St. Cloud as host for a variety show and was struck with the idea of setting up a radio station for the institution.

Leary, operations manager of KRSI of suburban Minneapolis, has been involved in a two-year volunteer drive which has produced a control board console for the inmate-operated, closed-circuit station, which would serve the institution's 700 inmates.

Minnesota radio stations are being asked to help supply more equipment so the new station can get on the air.

"We still could use some microphones and turntables," said Leary. "We're hoping some area stations which haven't heard about the work here will come forward with them."

Plans are to begin broadcasting in a few months.

Jack Young, 39, superintendent of the reformatory, says some 20-25 inmates would serve on a part-time basis as writers, announcers and technicians.

"We plan to make use of our institution station to carry such things as music programs, panel discussions, disc-jockey chatter and educational material," Young said.

"We'd like to train technicians and possibly art talent, looking toward useful jobs for our inmates when they leave," he added.

Hit-Run Mishap Is Investigated

Two collisions Wednesday caused $250 damage, police reported. One was a hit-run.

Joseph G. Renk, 24, Stockton, was driving south on Main Street Wednesday at 9:45 p.m. and Mark C. Hoffman, 23, Rochester, was driving north when the two collided. The collision occurred as Renk attempted to make a left turn east onto 4th Street in front of Hoffman, according to police.

Damage to the right rear of the Renk vehicle was $200 and to the right front of the Hoffman car, $35.

Mrs. Harvey Sveum, 28½ W. 5th St., reported to police that Wednesday between 1 and 2 p.m. someone struck her car which was parked in a lot at the rear of 924-26 W. 5th St. She estimated damage to the left rear of her vehicle at $15.

Raiders Think Upset for Friday Tilt With Hawks

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

Please, do not get the idea that Northfield is having a rip-roaring basketball season.

True, the Raiders beat Red Wing 69-53 but the best that could be said was that the Raiders had won the Big Nine Conference to 3-4. But the team is 9-5 overall.

"It's really just a respectable year," said Raider boss Jed Dommeyer. "It's better than it has been, but still it's just respectable."

But you can't convince Winona High basketball coach John Kenney that Northfield should be taken lightly as his Hawks continue their quest for Big Nine title No. 1.

"This one worries me," said Kenney, dabbing at the Feb. 11 date on a schedule even before the season began. And he repeated that shortly after returns from Red Wing were in Friday.

But Dommeyer isn't convinced that his team should be a problem for the league's frontrunners Friday.

"We've been so inconsistent," he said. "We blow up too much. I guess with a couple of breaks, we could be better than 3-4 in the conference. We let Rochester get a 20-point lead on us in the first half and then closed it to four. And we gave up a 15- or 16-point lead to Mankato and closed it to two. But we're always fighting back from a big deficit."

"We didn't play good ball at Red Wing. Oh, defensively I guess we did, but we turned the ball over 21 times. That isn't good."

Will Northfield, which possesses the Big Nine scoring leader in transfer Eric Bundgaard, come at the Hawks with something new?

"There won't be any fancy stuff," states Dommeyer frankly. "We're going to try and play a good game. They'll see the same stuff from us."

What that means is a "double-post offense" coupled with a man-to-man defense.

Operating the twin pivot will be the 6-5 Bundgaard, a hard-driving junior who played last year in South Dakota, and 6-1 Dave Follansbee. The forwards are 5-11 junior Mike Hager and 6-4 junior Dave Finholt. The guard is 5-11 Barry Holden.

Hager has just moved into the starting lineup, unseating 6-2 Tim Sellers in time for the Red Wing upset.

"Sellers was averaging 11 or 12 points a game," pointed out Dommeyer. "But he had a bad game against Rochester and Hager had a good second half that night. He (Hager) played the whole game against Red Wing and did a good job."

Others certain to see action are 5-8 Joe Gruppner, 5-11 Brian Mitchell and 5-11 Pete Bierman.

About Bundgaard, Dommeyer, says, "He's a good athlete, no doubt about it. But he got a lot of publicity when he transferred here from South Dakota. But it really doesn't bother him and it doesn't bother me because he's a good boy."

Is Northfield's attack built around Bundgaard, who is averaging 25 per game?

"Not really," answers Jed. "We have four kids averaging in double figures."

What about Winona?

"They're tough," says Dommeyer, "the toughest team we've faced to this point. (Larry) Larson and (Paul) Flachecki are better than Red Wing's two big men and Winona has good balance. We know Winona deserves to be in first place."

But you somehow get the idea that the win over Red Wing has left the Raiders thinking up-

LET'S TALK SPORTS

with Gary Evans

A COUPLE OF OUR good readers — Wes Concidine of Wabasha and Harold Steffes of Falls Church, Va. — have taken steps to jog both our and John Nett's memory.

Before Wabasha and Cotter met in basketball recently, we asked Nett whether he could remember any previous cage activity between the two schools. He gave the question a qualified no.

But Concidine and Steffes definitely remember games between the two. Steffes' facts go further back than those of Concidine.

Wes reports that in 1934, Cotter beat Wabasha 24-22. In 1935-36, Wabasha won the first meeting 15-13 and lost the second 26-23. And in 1937-38, Wabasha took 45-18 and 26-16 triumphs.

"The center for Cotter in 1937-38 was a player named Nett," says Wes. "He scored nine points in each game. That wasn't bad in that era. He also had 12 of 21 free throws — a good percentage."

Yes, it was John Nett. He remembers those games now.

Steffes reports that in 1926 Cotter defeated Wabasha 25-9 and 22-12 and that in 1931 the Ramblers took a 16-14 victory.

Says Harold: Mark Paulson of dancing fame played forward for the 1926 Cotter team and Cy Smith, a former mayor of Winona, was a star on the 1931 outfit.

He also encloses a footnote: "Hope you don't mind my keeping an eye on you from 1,100 miles away."

We certainly don't Harold, and thanks to both you fellows for helping to set the record straight.

Nett

AND WHILE WE are setting the record straight, our apologies to a couple of people.

A letter from a Spring Grove reader points out that we have listed La Crescent (3-7) ahead of Spring Grove (4-6) in the Root River standings for the past couple of weeks. No, there is no reason — just our error!

Then, too, we very well know that Augustana College is located in Sioux Falls, S.D., not Iowa. Monday must have been a bad day. We certainly didn't mean to transplant the school in a different state for two days.

THE SWAMI HIT ON 10 of 16 Tuesday night. That left him with a .759 percentage on 421 of 554.

For the weekend:

A Feature: Huskies 92, Indians 73!

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The big battle for the Northern Intercollegiate Conference basketball lead turned out to be just a little cakewalk for the St. Cloud State Huskies.

St. Cloud scorched Mankato State 92-73 to take full command of the NIC race Wednesday night at St. Cloud.

The Huskies roared out to a 9-0 lead, were on top 35-27 at the half and saw their lead crest at 24 points late in the contest. Izzy Schmiesing got 34 points for St. Cloud, while Jim Vesclusio got 20 for Mankato.

St. Cloud now is 4-1 in the conference and 14-5 over-all, while Mankato is 5-3 and 7-11. Everybody except St. Cloud now has at least three league losses.

In Wednesday night's only other game, North Dakota State downed Moorhead 96-89 in overtime in a non-conference game. Moorhead led 53-48 at the half, but fell behind 77-69 with six minutes left and had to rally to knot the score at 81-all after regulation time. North Dakota State then scored seven straight points at the outset of the overtime to take charge.

Ron Schlieman and Bob Maier each got 23 points for NDSU, while Jim Jahr had 23 and Cactus Warner 19 for Moorhead.

Two Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference games are on tap tonight. Front-running St. Thomas (10-0) is at second-place St. John's (8-2) in one of the Tommies' key games as they shoot for the title. And Concordia is at St. Mary's.

Palmer Ranks as Man to Beat in Phoenix Tourney

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, off to his fastest winter tour start in history, was the man to beat as the $60,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament opened today over a soggy Arizona Country Club course.

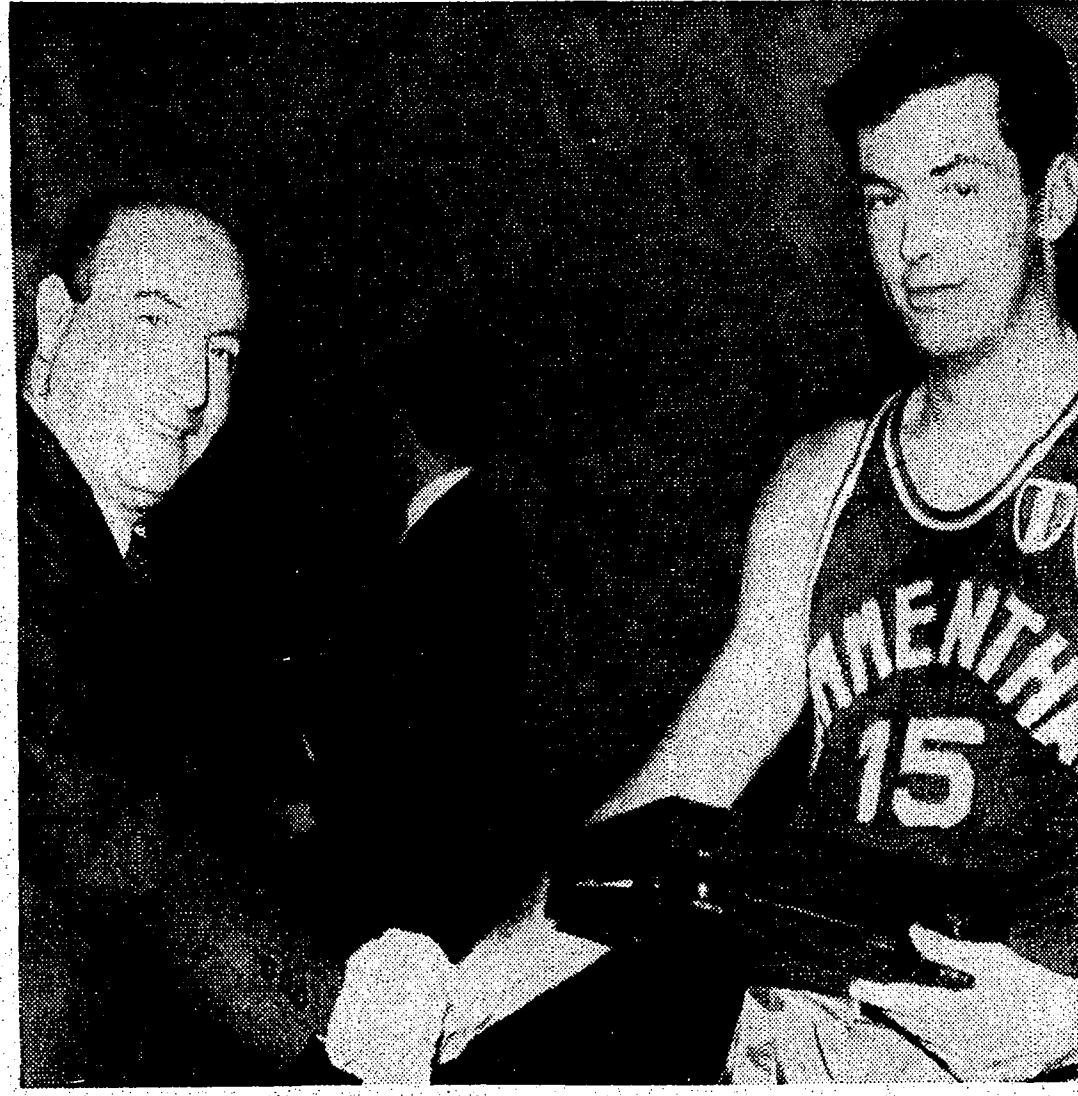

Palmer, who has a first, two seconds and a third in four starts this year, won the Phoenix event in 1961, 1962 and 1963.

Palmer and the rest of the field, which includes all five 1966 champions, were keeping an eye on the sky. Rain and hail forced cancellation of Wednesday's pro-am competition midway through the round.

Partly cloudy skies were expected today with a chance of more afternoon showers. Temperatures ranging from the mid 30s to the mid 50s were forecast.

'DEFINITELY,' SAYS RED

St. Cloud Set For Peak Run?

BY GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

ST. CLOUD, Minn. — Ask and Red Severson, major domo of the St. Cloud State College basketball teams, will speak frankly.

Mr. Severson is not a soft-spoken, shy, retiring sort of fellow. But you cannot accuse him of being dishonest.

His frank analysis is that the Huskies this year should win the Northern Intercollegiate Conference title . . . shouldn't lose another game in doing it . . . and probably should severely damage the hopes of any team it has yet to meet.

Now there are nine big reasons why you have to agree with the successful veteran coach. They are his "nine" starters.

In the front line he picks from 6-8 Izzy Schmiesing, 6-5 Pete Anderson, 6-5 John Daggett, 6-3½ Dave Linehan, 6-3 Tom Ditty and 6-2 Jack Linahan. In the backcourt are 6-2½ Terry Porter, 6-2 Mike Trewick and 6-2 Tom Abram.

"They've all started at one time or another this year," points out Severson. "And with them in there, I don't see any reason we shouldn't win the title."

Now that nine-man group poses a severe problem for Winona State in a 4 p.m. game at Memorial Hall Saturday. The contest was switched to late afternoon because of the Saturday night appearance of speaker Arthur Schlesinger Jr.

Severson also has opinions on the changing of the game from night to afternoon.

In all due respect to Mr. Schlesinger, Severson says: "I'm sure he's a fine speaker, but I don't think he will ever replace basketball. But we'll be there at 4 o'clock and expect to have 3,000 waiting to see us play."

It is doubtful that the crowd will push out the sides of Memorial Hall that far, but it is possible a strong delegation will be on hand, especially since Winona has been known to put forth strong efforts against the Huskies. A year ago, the Statesmen fell 57-56 on Schmiesing's basket with 55 seconds left.

"Yes, we know Winona plays it tough against us," said Severson. "But we've always played them one at a time . . . played them to win. And along those lines, I might add that we haven't played our best game yet. It's gratifying to know that is still ahead. We're getting ready to hit our peak."

And you can bet your bottom dollar that the addition of two-time NIC all-league player Dave Linehan is going to help. Linehan hasn't played since Dec. 20 because of a strained ligament.

"He's hungry as a pup," said Red. "He'd like nothing better than a little Warrior meat Saturday. And there's no question of the boost he's going to give us."

"In fact, we don't care what anyone does against us. With shooters like Porter, Abram, Ditty and Anderson we'll put it up and let Schmiesing, Linehan and Daggett take care of it from there."

Then St. Cloud is expecting to win? "Definitely so," signed off Red. "We always expect to win."

Redmen Meet Cobbers in Tilt Tonight

St. Mary's College tonight hosts Concordia in an MIAC game that will have very little effect on the title race in the conference.

The two teams collide on Terrace Heights at 8 p.m.

But if the game means nothing to the championship race, it nevertheless, gives St. Mary's a chance to improve its position.

KEN WILTGEN'S Redmen are mired with a 3-7 record after a loss to league-leading St.

ST. MARY'S (8-11)

	C	F	FT	PF	TP	AVG.
Jim Buffo	19	108	25	37	241	12.7

Roger Pytlewski	19	91	54	53	236	12.4
Tom Keenan	19	71	54	60	196	10.3
Jim Auerby	17	28	9	18	65	3.8

Thomas Monday night. Concordia won the same night and will bring a 6-4 record into the game, perhaps better than coach Sonny Gulsvig anticipated at the start of the season.

But the secret to Concordia's success this year has been the play of 6-4 Bob Laney, a heavy scoring threat from his pivot position.

And, as you might expect, the key to beating Concordia is limiting Laney's output.

"AT LEAST it certainly seems that way," says Wiltgen. "When he gets his 25 or 30, Concordia wins. When he doesn't Concordia has trouble."

It is safe to assume then, that much of the Redmen effort will be consumed in trying to keep Laney from riddling the nets.

He did it in an earlier meeting between the two teams, finishing with 23 points as the Cobbers chalked up a 71-62 victory.

HOWEVER, it must be pointed out that in that game Roger Pytlewski, St. Mary's captain and rebounding leader, spent more than half the game on the bench with first foul trouble and then a bad ankle.

"That certainly didn't help us any," agreed the coach. St. Mary's will go at the Cobbers with its standard tools—a patterned offense and a man-to-man defense. Who would take Laney was still a tossup this morning.

"We feel that Concordia is a good team," said Wiltgen. "We know their kids shoot well."

IN THAT respect, it will not only be a matter of holding down Mr. Laney but also putting clamps on the remainder of the Cobbers.

To do it Wiltgen will keep George Hoder at center, Pytlewski and Tom Keenan at forwards and Jim Buffo and Jerry Sausser at guards.

Following tonight's game, St. Mary's will not be active again until Monday when the Redmen play a return match with Hamline.

HAWKS WILL SWIM EARLY

The Winona High-Rochester John Marshall swimming meet, scheduled for the Mayo City Friday, has been moved up to 5:30 p.m.

Originally scheduled for 6:30 p.m., the meet was changed so that Rocket Jans also would be able to view the feature Big Nine wrestling meet between Albert Lea and the Rockets.

Dykstra's Words Most Prophetic

By BOB JUNGHIANS
Daily News Sports Writer

WYKOFF, Minn. — "Just wait," Virgil Dykstra told Preston coach Dick Ofstun. "This game is going to do you more good than it is us."

Dykstra offered this consolation to Ofstun after his Wykoff basketball team had snapped Preston's winning streak at 11 games three weeks ago.

And Dykstra has turned into a prophet. Since that time Preston has romped to three impressive victories, while Wykoff has stumbled to one victory and then dropped two in a row.

"I wish I had the answer," mused Dykstra. "I guess we just lost the formula."

Wykoff had been the Cinderella team of the area until the two successive losses. Picked to go nowhere at the beginning of the season, the Wykats had won 12 of 14 games. Now their log reads 12-4.

"Our shooting has dropped off (from 42 percent at the beginning of the year to 33 percent for the last three games) and we've had a kid sick for each of our last two games," said the Wykoff coach, "but I think maybe the kids figured the season was all over for them when we beat Preston, thinking everyone was going to roll over and play dead. They should have known it was going to be just the opposite with everyone gunning for us just that much more."

And if the Wykats are to regain the winning formula Friday night, they must do it against a team that handed them an early season setback, Chatfield.

Chatfield won the first encounter between the two teams 79-72 when Wykoff got off to a slow start and trailed 14-2 in the first quarter.

"They've lost two in a row and they're going to be coming in here like a bunch of Tigers," said Dykstra. "I guess we'll just have to play all hands on Rowland and hope the others don't hit."

The Wykoff coach was speaking of Chatfield's strapping center Doug Rowland, who, at 6-4 and 225 pounds has at least a three-inch height advantage over the tallest Wykoff.

While both the offense and defense have tailed off for the Wykats, Dykstra is a little more worried about his team's point production. "We're taking basically the same kind of shots," he said, "but we seem to have lost our touch and maybe a little confidence in our-

ST. CLOUD TONIGHT, THEN BEMIDJI

State Matmen Eye Rough Stretch Run

Like a horse making a run for the wire, Winona State's undefeated wrestling team starts its stretch run tonight. And in the next 19 days, which involve six matches, the Warriors will find out if they are deserving of the sixth spot in the national ratings they now hold.

Starting with St. Cloud tonight and Bemidji Friday, Bob Gunner's crew makes a run toward the national tournament and an undefeated season.

Following this week's two encounters, the Warriors return home a week from tonight for a match with St. Thomas. None of these three teams are ranked nationally, but the final three squads on Winona's schedule are rated high nationally.

State College of Iowa, a team the Warriors host on Feb. 23, is the seventh-ranked team in the NCAA college division. The following night, South Dakota State, the second-ranked team by the NCAA, is in town. And then on Feb. 28, Moorhead invades Memorial Hall. The Dragons are ranked second in the NAIA and 13th in the NCAA university division.

But Gunner and his team aren't willing to look quite that far ahead. Two matches with strong conference foes in two days is enough to keep them busy.

St. Cloud, tonight's foe, was ranked in the NAIA at the beginning of the season, but the Huskies have lost three dual meets and have dropped from the ratings. South Dakota State, State College of Iowa and Moorhead have all whipped St. Cloud. But that is a pretty impressive group to be

It's Nice to Learn Sport and Win Also

By BOB JUNGHANS
Daily News Sports Writer

ARCADIA, Wis. — It all started three years ago with a coach that had gotten his experience from one physical education class and a group of eager high school students.

And in 36 months it has become a dynasty.

That is the rags-to-riches story of the Arcadia High School wrestling program.

Jim Crowley, a La Crosse State graduate, was appointed head wrestling coach when the school decided to add the sport to its athletic curriculum in 1963.

"I had never coached wrestling before," said Crowley. "I only participated in a physical education class at La Crosse. Most of my experience has come from watching them on the mats and reading books."

But evidently it has been a successful way to learn about the grappling sport. In those three years, Arcadia has posted a 27-9 dual-meet record with the last 20 victories coming in succession.

"The kids were real great when we started," said Crowley. "Their cooperation was tremendous. And I feel that we have been blessed with a good group from the start."

Two of those beginners are now the co-ops for the Raider squad which has posted an 11-0 mark this year. Duane Dorn, a 180-pounder, has an 11-2 season record, and Jim Haines, heavyweight, is 12-1.

Although Arcadia has gone through the season unbeaten, it has only one grappler with an unscathed record. He is 138-pound junior Ray Waletzko who has won all 13 of his matches. As a sophomore a year ago, Waletzko went to the sectional tournament and lost his bid to become Arcadia's first state entrant by 30 seconds. He lost a decision on a reversal with just one-half minute left in the match.

Others who have piled up impressive records for the Raiders this year are Linus Sobotta at 120 with a 9-1 mark, Dave Hesch at 165 with an 11-2 record and 145-pounder Dan Proschinski with a 9-3 slate.

"I'd say the basis for our strength has been from 138 pounds on up," said Crowley. "In our three closest meets we were trailing going into our last four or five matches but we pulled them out."

With the dual-meet season over and the Coulee Conference championship tucked under its belt, Arcadia's next objective is the regional tournament Friday and Saturday at West Salem.

La Crosse Logan, La Crosse Central, Blair, Cochrane-Fountain City, Independence, Whitehall, Melrose-Mindoro and Onalaska will make up the 10-team field along with the host school and Arcadia.

"I would like to think our depth gives us a little advantage," said Crowley, "but in the tournament you never can figure on that. We do have good balance, but the other teams have some outstanding individuals and they could all pick away at us and we could end up with nothing."

Crowley was speaking of the team race for the regional title, but as far as individual performances go, he expects all six matmen previously mentioned to make a good account of themselves.

The first- and second-place wrestlers will advance from West Salem to Weston for the sectional tournament the following weekend. And then comes the state tournament.

But it isn't a make-or-break year for the Raiders. Only five seniors will graduate. They are Dorn, Haines, Hesch, Bernie Ziegeweid and Dave Blaschko, the latter two a pair of 133-pounders.

"I'd say we have a good nucleus coming back next year," said Crowley. "But after that we may go back to the normal cycle of one good year and three bad ones."

The Arcadia wrestling story has been a successful one, but Crowley shrugs off any credit which comes his way.

"Our fan support has been excellent. Against Osseo we had a full house," he said. "And Mel Nelson (Crowley's assistant) has been terrific. He's filled in for me many times when I couldn't be there."

"He never had any wrestling experience either."

"But we're both learning."

Huff Smashes 254-637 for League Honor

Fred Huff's 254-637 for Grain Belt Beer in the Westgate American League paced city league action on the kegging front Wednesday night.

Those individual totals spurred the Grain Belt quint to 1,036-2,884.

In the Men's League, also at Westgate, Red Zeches bent 219-183-220-622 for Maxwell House. Wunderlich Insurance came up with 979-2,803 and had its game total tied by Golden Food. Dave Ruppert of Ruppert's Grocery scored 222 and Pete Marr turned in 547 errorless. Dick Hennepsey picked up the 3-6-7-10.

At Hal-Rod Lanes, Jim Przytarski's 611 series pushed Speltz Texaco to 1,002-2,872 in the Commercial circuit. Larry Welter came up with 240 for Vend-A-Matic and Allen Howard of Winona Rug Cleaning waxed 608. Bob Thurlay turned in a 552 errorless for Orr's Skelly.

Tops on the distaff side was a 530 by Esther Kelm in the Sunsets loop at Westgate. Grace Tambornino's 200-502 shoved Merf's Market to 937-2,597. Marion Tullius hit 507, Henrietta Young 502 and Lenore Klage 500. Converting shifts were Shirley Gehlhaart (4-7-9), Dianne Hardtke (5-7-9) and Helen Selke (3-7-10).

HAL-ROD LANES: Retail — Dorn's IGA waxed 945-2,790 behind 576 from Gordy Nyseth. Pete Polus of Main Tavern tagged 209.

WESTGATE BOWL: Mixers — Carol Becker's 200-486 led Marigold Dairies to 910-2,569.

Coffee — Team Five scored 663-1,310. Marianne O'Brien tumbled 173-327 for Team Six. Jean Dettman picked up the 6-7-10.

Van Hoof Is Beaten in Exhibition

ROCHESTER, Minn. — Winona's Tom Van Hoof was handed his second straight fistie setback Wednesday night, losing a unanimous decision to Rochester's Rusty Clark in the main event of the regional Golden Gloves boxing tournament.

The match was an exhibition and Van Hoof will fight in the upper Midwest meet.

A crowd of 1,200 watched Austin capture the team title after the 18-fight card was completed.

Clark, a light heavyweight, used solid combinations to win the decision. Van Hoof, the regional heavyweight champion, appeared rusty from lack of competition. The Winona fighter had won decisions from Clark in two previous fights.

Winona's only other entrant in the tournament, middleweight Jim Gleason, did not fight. He couldn't make his weight division.

Pressure Problems? Not At Alma

ALMA, Wis. — With their only big school opposition disposed of, Alma High School's undefeated Rivermen try to make it 16 in a row with what looks to be their last threatening small school foe Friday night.

Fairchild will invade the River City for an 8 p.m. West Central Conference game, one that will decide the title and perhaps even more.

"I imagine they're coming down here with the idea of beating us," said Greg Green, Alma coach. "You have to remember that Fairchild was the last team to beat us in the regular season."

That was back in January of '64, 42 basketball games ago. Since then the Rivermen have rolled to 41 straight victories.

the longest regular season winning streak in Wisconsin high school basketball at the moment.

But Fairchild would like nothing better than to halt the skein and perhaps deflate the sails of Alma's tournament-bound ship.

In the first meeting between the two teams, Alma took a 52-42 decision. But it wasn't Fairchild that slowed the game against the fast-breaking Rivermen, but vice versa when Alma went to a control game in the second half.

Since that loss Fairchild has chalked up eight straight victories to run its season record to 12-2 for second place in the West Central.

"I don't think they have an individual key," said Green of the Dragons. "Fairchild is a team that has four good ball players and from there on they're pretty weak."

Dennis Abrahamson, 6-5, and Randy Julien, 6-4, are the big men in the Fairchild attack, while Mike Laffe, 5-9, and Dennis Blang, 5-9, have been hitting around 15 points-per-game also.

Alma will be giving away about the same amount of height to Fairchild as it gave to Austin Pacelli last Friday in a 79-60 victory over the Shamrocks.

Green can counter with any of seven cagers. Dick Ebersold, 6-4, Mike Moham, 6-3, and Larry Fluekiger, 6-0, could be in the front line with Brian Kreibich, 5-10, and John Stohr, 6-2, at guards.

Rich Stiehl, a 6-1 forward, may crack the starting lineup for the game, however, as may Curt Youngbauer, a 6-0 southpaw junior.

"Stiehl came in and did a real good job on the boards against Pacelli," said Green. "and Moham (31 points against Austin) has come back real well from his back injury. Stohr is capable of hitting 30 points in any game, and Ebersold is really starting to come around and give us what we need on the boards."

As if these aren't enough "problems" for Green, there must be some pressure mounting with a 41-game winning streak.

"These kids have played under pressure for so long it doesn't even bother them," chuckled Green. "In fact, they seem to thrive on it. They seem to bring themselves up for every game. And this one Friday night means a lot to them."

Besides the title-bearing game in the West Central, other Wisconsin games are slated that will go a long way toward deciding titles. Eleva-Strum is at Independence where the Cards could wrap up the Dairyland crown, while Whitehall plays at Osseo in a battle to decide second.

In the Coulee Conference, Onalaska is at Holmen in a battle for second, while Bangor hosts upset minded West Salem.

Does Hamernik's Have Team Title Already Cinched?

Does Hamernik's have the Winona Bowling Association city tournament team title locked away?

That question was bandied about at length today following the Hamernik's team's outburst during the annual event at Winona Athletic Club Wednesday night.

Hamernik's swarmed into first place with a rollicking 3,047 total that surpassed, by some 99 pins, anything keggers have been able to do in the team division up to this point.

BUT BACK to the original question of whether or not the team has it won.

Only 78 of the 188 entered regularly in the Athletic Club Ace League.

Only one other change was made in the top ten Wednesday night, that when Schmidt's Beer of the Ace circuit came up with 2,868 to land in fourth place.

THE QUINT got 578 from Mike Cyert, 528s from Bob Cyert and Cy Cyert, 490 from Bill Glowczewski and 398 from Dave Fitzgerald.

Top single games of the evening went to Mark Warren with 225 and Irv Praxel with 224. Ted Mahike shot 576, and Praxel 567.

Tonight at 6:30 p.m., Bauer Electric (WG), Koehler Auto Body (WG), Shorty's Bar (WG), Earl's Tree Service (WG), Hamernik's (HR), and Graham & McGuire (HR) will compete. The 9 o'clock shifts lists Hamernik's, Merchants Bank, Bud's, Weaver & Sons, Briggs and Zywicki, all of the Knights of Columbus League at Winona Athletic Club.

MIKAN LEADS UNBEATEN BENILDE

Knights Dedicated to Winning State Tourney

It is a foregone conclusion that under coach Bill Haben, St. Louis Park Benilde is going to be a Minnesota state Catholic power in basketball.

In fact, if the experts are correct, the St. Louis Park school this year should wrap up its second state championship in three years.

And that wouldn't be a bad record for Haben, who is spending his third year at Benilde after six successful years at Shakopee.

Benilde, of course, this week means business for John Nett and his Cotter Ramblers. The two teams meet Saturday night at St. Louis Park.

There are a couple of pretty good reasons why the Red Knights are going to rank as overwhelming favorites. No. 1 is the fact that Benilde is unbeaten in 15 starts. No. 2 is the fact that the team has held the top spot since the first 1955-56 Minnesota Catholic Education Association coaches' poll.

Since Haben coached a state champion two years ago, there is a basis for comparison.

"This team is better offensively and in the rebounding department," he assesses. "I think the team two years ago was a better defensive club . . . but eventually this team could be as good or better in that department."

The Knights are not a one-man team, but there is one key player.

Larry Mikan, who probably gets more than his share of helpful hints from his famous father George, is the Knights' 6-6 center and leading scorer.

"I'm sure he gets some pointers at home," chuckles Haben. "No, having a famous father doesn't seem to bother him at all. In fact, he uses it to advantage. I think it gives him a little added incentive."

Larry, who hits the hoop at a 60 percent clip with either hand, has grown an inch since the season started and now is just beginning to realize his potential.

"He hasn't stopped improving by any means," says Haben. "And he's not just a threat around the basket. He can move out on the floor and shoot the jumper with either hand."

Oh yes, you also have to stop the Mikan drive and hook.

Larry plays a twin pivot with 6-4 Dave Bowden. The lone forward in Haben's offensive alignment is 6-2 Art Moore. The guards are 6-0 Gary Smith and 5-7 Terry Mahoney.

Haben also wants it known that Benilde is not strictly a five-man team. Filling in capably have been 5-11 Dan Kelly, 5-8 Dick Wright, 6-1 Terry Mikan (Larry's brother) and 6-1 Dan Manning.

"We felt that we had it this year," sums up Haben.

"We only used three seniors last year when we finished 20-3. But the attitude of this group amazes me. If there is one key factor, that's it. These kids want the state championship . . . they're aiming for it. It is going to be hard to beat their dedication."

Benilde has been challenged only twice this year — once in a three-point win over De La Salle and once in a six-point decision over Cretin.

NHL Now Within Shooting Range

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Hockey League, spawned in Montreal with four Canadian and no American teams 48 years ago, has moved to within shooting distance of completing its expansion program by granting six new franchises, each to groups representing U.S. cities.

Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Minneapolis-St. Paul were given the green light Wednesday after the NHL's Board of Governors reviewed 13 applications from eight cities during the three-day meetings.

In addition, St. Louis received a conditional franchise.

Bids by delegations from Vancouver, B.C.; Baltimore, and Buffalo were rejected.

The 12-team, two-division, coast-to-coast operation is geared to start in October 1967.

If present plans materialize, 10 of the 12 teams in the projected setup will be based in the United States. The Montreal Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs would be the only NHL entries from north of the border.

The awarding of the St. Louis franchise is subject to approval of an applicant satisfactory to the board of governors by April 5, 1966. Otherwise, said league President Clarence Campbell, franchise will be granted to a Baltimore group headed by Zanvyl Krieger, a major stockholder in the Baltimore Orioles' baseball club.

So, this is the way hockey's big league, which has had the same six teams since 1942 when the Brooklyn Americans disbanded, will likely shape up for the start of the 1967-68 campaign:

In one division, New York, Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Toronto and Montreal. In another division Los Angeles, San Francisco-Oakland, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Pittsburgh and either St. Louis or Baltimore.

Each of the new teams will play a 74-game schedule, 50 games against clubs in their division and 24 against those in the present division. The same setup will exist for the current six teams.

"The current NHL is concentrated in the East," Campbell said. "The six new teams will constitute a division that will be well-balanced geographically with two clubs in the East, two in the Midwest and two on the West Coast."

The cost of each new franchise is $2 million and will entitle each group to buy 20 players from the current NHL teams. No plan of allocating the players has been worked out.

The Montreal Wanderers, Montreal Canadiens, Ottawa Senators and Toronto Arenas were the original members of the NHL which was organized Nov. 22, 1917.

The Boston Bruins, in 1924, were the first American team to join the league while New York, Chicago and Detroit were admitted in 1926.

Twin Cities Hockey Fans Breathe Collective Sigh of Relief, Cheer

ST. PAUL, (AP) — Hockey fans let out a collective sigh of relief, and the governor called it great news.

The baseball Twins and football Vikings said they welcomed something to fill out the "off season," even if it means competition for the entertainment dollar.

And Bloomington officials had more dollar signs shining in their eyes, if the big suburb decides to impose an admissions tax.

These were some of the reactions Wednesday on the heels of the announcement in New York City that the Twin Cities had been awarded a franchise in the National Hockey League, with play to begin in the 1967-68 season.

The fans, fearful that a last-minute split between two rival groups seeking the franchise might sabotage the bid, were happy about it — and perhaps a little confused at the end with which the "no strings attached" franchise was granted.

They weren't much more surprised than the eight-man Twin Cities syndicate which landed the long-sought franchise.

"Frankly, we were surprised that no conditions were attached. We presented one of the weakest cases of any of the towns seeking a franchise, because we didn't have a building," said Walter Bush Jr., Minneapolis, one of the syndicate members.

Gov. Karl Rolvaag called Minnesota "a hotbed of hockey," adding: "A Minnesota hockey team will be an excellent addition to our Minnesota Twins and Vikings."

Billy Robertson, director of stadium operations for the Twins, said the baseball organization "is real happy about it."

"We're all hockey fans," Robertson said. "This puts Minnesota in the sports picture the year around."

Chimed in General Manager Jim Finks of the Vikings. "This is an outstanding thing, I think we need something here between the end of football season and the start of baseball season."

Neither Robertson nor Finks mentioned the fact that hockey starts during the football season and continues into the start of the baseball season when the two established pro sports will butt heads directly with hockey in bidding for cash customers.

Robertson and Finks said both the Twins and Vikings are eagerly interested in plans to expand Metropolitan Stadium.

The Twins want the grandstand down the left field foul line completed, boosting baseball seating to around 50,000. Tentative construction plans call for the wall behind this grandstand to provide one wall of a new 15,000-seat hockey arena at the stadium.

The Vikings are hopeful of obtaining office space as well as football dressing rooms in the new structure.

Both the Twins and Vikings are expected to invest in the $6.5 million proposed expansion at the Met.

New Cast Gives Lou Trouble

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Lou Hudson has a new, lighter and shorter cast on his right arm, but the Minnesota Gophers basketball star says he's having more trouble adjusting to it than he did an old one which was heavier and more cumbersome.

"I can't turn my forearm and hand the way I did before," Hudson said after Wednesday Gopher cage practice, his first since the new cast was placed on his arm.

"The cast feels awfully tight around my forearm."

The new cast covers only from the base of the palm of his hand to about halfway up his forearm, as opposed to the old cast, which stretched from the base of his fingers nearly to his elbow. The new one also weighs only about a pound against the two pounds of a previous cast.

Hudson and Gopher Coach John Kundla still hope Hudson will get used to the new cast in time for it to help him against Michigan State in Williams Arena Saturday night.

With the additional freedom of the fingers and thumb, Hudson should be able to shoot with a better touch and to handle the ball better with the new cast. Apparently it may take him a few days to get used to it, however.

The doctors say it likely will be another two to three weeks before Hudson can play without any cast at all. He may get the cast off only for Minnesota's final two games of the season.

Hull Slumps But Chicago Not Slipping

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bobby Hull is in something of a slump but his Chicago Black Hawks haven't broken stride in the three-way race at the top of the National Hockey League.

Hull, bidding to become the first man to break hockey's 50-goal barrier, was blanked for the third straight game Wednesday night but the Black Hawks nipped Detroit 2-1 and took over first place in the NHL standings.

Toronto's Terry Sawchuk turned in his 98th career shut-out, blanking the New York Rangers 3-0 in Wednesday's only other game.

Hull, with 44 goals in 48 games, still has 22 games in which to break the record he shares with Maurice Richard and Bernie Geoffrion. The Red Wings kept him off the scoreboard but couldn't snap the Chicago Hawks over Detroit this season.

The Hawks, who've won four of their last five and own a two-point bulge over Detroit and Montreal, won it on Chico Maki's third period goal.

Night to Remember For Notre Dame, St. John's Quintet

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was a night to remember for the Irish of Notre Dame and the Redmen of St. John's University in college basketball. The Irish snapped a 13-game losing streak and the Redmen won in Philadelphia for the first time in seven years.

Notre Dame's first victory since Dec. 15 when the Irish downed Bowling Green was a decisive 84-61 home decision over Butler Wednesday night. Led by Jim Monahan's 19 points, the Irish snapped a 12-0 lead and had little trouble winning their fourth game against 15 defeats.

In contrast, the Redmen from New York had to go two overtimes for a 75-72 squeaker over Temple. It was St. John's first victory in the Palestra at Philadelphia since Jan. 6, 1959.

Bob McIntyre's basket in the closing seconds of regulation time tied the score for St. John's at 61-61 after Sonny Dove prevented a possible winning lay-up by Temple's Jim Williams by knocking the ball out of bounds.

Williams' two free throws gave Temple a 65-65 tie at the end of the first overtime. But with five seconds left in the second extra period and St. John's ahead 73-72, he missed twice from the foul line. In the last seconds Temple's Chris Kefauver fouled Henry Clues, who made good on two free throws for St. John's final points.

Preston Hosts Southeastern Wrestling Meet

Two Minnesota high school conferences will hold wrestling meets Saturday with defending champions likely to be unseated.

At Preston, the Southeastern Conference holds its meet with two sessions in the afternoon and two in the evenings.

First-round matches will be held at 1 p.m. with semifinals at 2:40 p.m. Wrestling-backs and consolation championships will be held at 7 p.m. with the championship matches beginning at 8 p.m.

Harmony is the defending conference champion, but unbeaten Le Roy-Ostrander is favored to unseat the Cardinals. Chatfield and Caledonia are also rated as likely contenders. Other teams in the meet will be Grand Meadow, Preston, Rushford and Spring Valley.

Three individual defending champions are back. Harmony's Gerry Matson is 13-1 at 127 this year, a title he won last year. Steve Rice of Le Roy-Ostrander is the defending 138-pound champion but he will be competing at 145 this year where he holds a 9-0 dual meet record.

And Dale Richter of Chatfield, a region one champion and fourth place finisher in the state a year ago, is back at 127. He is undefeated this season.

Other top grapplers returning are Dick Hanson of Caledonia in the heavyweight bracket. Rex Back of LeRoy-Ostrander at 112 and Gary Burreson of Preston at 103. Both Hanson and Back are undefeated.

The other tournament will be held at Hayfield where the Vikings try to successfully defend their Wasioja crown. Dover-Eyota is the tournament favorite, however. Other teams competing are Dodge Center, Pine Island and West Concord.

Celtics Plan To Build on 3-Game Margin

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Less than two weeks ago, the Boston Celtics were out of first place in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division. Today they hold a three-game edge over Cincinnati and Philadelphia, and they indicate the margin may grow bigger.

The Celtics trimmed New York 121-117 Wednesday night, snapping the Knicks' four-game winning streak. In other games, Philadelphia rolled past Detroit 108-11 and Los Angeles outlasted Baltimore 123-116 in overtime.

The Celtics' victory was their sixth in the last eight games and boosted their lead over idle Cincinnati to three games. Philadelphia remained three back.

Mel Counts sparked the Boston triumph, scoring 18 points and grabbing nine rebounds in just 16 minutes of play. With New York threatening in the final quarter, the 7-footer came off the bench and scored six straight points for a 108-78 Celtics lead.

Winner Named Cardinal Boss

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Charley Winner, Baltimore Colts assistant coach, was named head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League today.

Winner replaces Wally Lemm, who quit Jan. 10 after four years at St. Louis.

Winner, an NFL coach for 12 years, has been a defensive specialist with the Colts. He joined the Colts in 1954.
