Groppi Says His Imprisonment Could Bring Revolution Closer

Wisconsin Assembly on contempt charges said his conviction by the state prison without a trial is without a trial "should turn the stick to the other side," according to the Wisconsin Assembly's chairman, Rev. James E. Groppi, militantly in Dane County Jail. "I kept the whole thing, but I don't know what got me in it," he said in recall of the Assembly's meeting last week.

The protesters were among nearly 100 who de-scended on the Wisconsin Assembly chambers during an 11-hour joint-session, "The assemblymen exposed me to the whole world" Groppi remarked. "I've heard a lot worse from a trial, it has no right to exist," he said in recall of the Assembly's meeting last week.

"That's what we're screaming about," he said, "we're screaming that, we're screaming for justice, we're screaming for freedom, we're screaming for our right to exist as a people, to exist as a nation."
Preliminary Administrative Reorganization Report Given

Broad outlines of what will become the new, reorganized Winona School System were spelled out for Winona School District 861 trustees Monday night by Director of Elementary Education A. L. Nelson. The presentation included work on a new building for the city's high school, and plans for the staffing of the new high school. The proposal was the result of almost two years of study of the system's administration and the development of what some people call a "superintendent's school." The same plan was given to the non-independent school district trustees of Stearns County and Winona County.

On Monday night, the task force chairman, Nelson, summarized the work of the group. He said he had listened to the work of the group and presented the plan to the Winona school board last month. A letter of request was sent to the state in April; in a June letter, the department again pointed out the need for new buildings and a modernizing of the old ones.

Nelson said the plan was a work in progress, and called it a "framework" for other work. The department's evaluation of the Winona schools had been lengthy, he said, and the work had been done in a "thorough and complete" manner.

The Winona school board has decided to publish the plan in the Winona Daily News, and to present it to the public in a series of meetings. The plan will be presented in a public meeting in the gym at the Winona School on Monday night, and will also be presented to the city council.

The plan includes a new high school, a new elementary school, and a new middle school. The high school will be located on the present site of the junior high school, and will be built on a site that has been chosen by the school board. What is the difference between a gas range and a gas dryer? Gas ranges are used to cook food, while gas dryers are used to dry clothes. Water heaters are used to provide hot water for washing and bathing.

Keep options open

Although the essay may have been written for a different American audience, the principles of keeping a matter open are valid. Let us consider the proposed $3 million plant for the school district in Winona. It is decided that the school district should keep the matter open for a time, at least, until more information is gathered and the project is fully understood.

Memorial for Martin Luther King

At the time of the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., there was widespread reaction across the United States. President Lyndon B. Johnson said, "I have thorn the death, the voice of a towering American." King's assassination shocked the nation and prompted a period of national mourning.

Mediocre appointee

The Senate's examination of Supreme Court nominee Clement F. Haynsworth was controversial. The Senate's decision to confirm Haynsworth was met with widespread criticism, and his appointment was seen as a failure of the political process.

Roughing it up

A good example of the contretemps of high play was the high school football game at the week-old football game. Anecdotal accounts of the violence that occurred at the game are vivid and often outrageous, but it is clear that even though the game was designed to be a safe and enjoyable experience for all participants, it ended up being a violent and chaotic affair.

Where's law and order?

The question of law and order is a complex one that involves balancing the needs of individuals and the community. It is important to consider the role of law enforcement and the justice system in maintaining a safe and just society.

Are Cats Harmful To Small Children?

By ANGELA T. VAN SCHURE

DEAR ANGELA: I can't tell you how many times I've heard people say, "I just can't have a dog. I'm allergic to fur." I think that's a lie. Indeed, I'm allergic to cats. I've had an allergy test and the results came back as expected.

DEAR ANGELA: I have a sneaking suspicion that you're allergic to something else. I'm allergic to pollen, dust, and pet dander. I've had an allergy test and the results came back as expected. JAFFA (AP) - Michael Denis Rohan, 23, who admitted setting the fire in the Al-Aksah Mosque near the Wailing Wall, was placed on three years probation Monday after pleading guilty to a charge of vandalism.

The statement also admitted that Rohan had been living in Jerusalem, frequently visiting the mosque and purchasing materials used in the temple, including strings of pearls. But today the defense attorney argued that Rohan had no intention of harming the temple.

"This was an accident," said David Drillo, in the courtroom

The place is a holyground.

"I'm not a criminal. I'm not a Muslim," Rohan admitted in the court, as the lawyer concluded his argument.

"I'm just a simple man who loves God," he said.

Drillo asked the judge to sentence Rohan to three years of probation, saying that the defendant had no prior criminal record.

"He's not a criminal," Drillo said.

Racial Controversy Over Busing Has Not Diminished

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) - The Doris Day of movies is beginning to emerge in "The Happy Ltd," a new movie that should appeal to anyone who has grown up with a strong sense of justice.

"The Happy Ltd" is a movie about a young woman named Doris Day, played by the actress herself, who is trying to find a way to bring peace to the world. She is a mother and a wife, and she is also a peacemaker, working hard to stop the fighting and to bring people together.

In the movie, Doris is shown through flashbacks to her childhood, where she was a good student but not very popular. She was often bullied at school, and this led her to become a pacifist. She believed in the power of love and understanding, and she worked hard to spread this message to others.

"The Happy Ltd" is a movie that is not only entertaining, but it is also a great lesson in the power of peace and unity. It is a movie that everyone should see, regardless of their age or background.
