WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced today he will pick Arthur F. Burns to replace William P. Rogers as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

Rogers, 60, a former SEC chairman, had been named to head the central bank next Jan. 31 when his term expires. Rogers was named chairman of the New York Stock Exchange last January after leaving the SEC.

"I don't know at this point whether the SEC will have a new chairman," President Richard M. Nixon said.

"If we have, then I would know the new name," the president added.

Rogers, who is to become chairman of the New York Stock Exchange next Jan. 31 when his term expires, has spoken publicly of administering the stock market and of the need for more regulation.

White House Press Secretary Ron Ziegler was asked whether the president was "serious" about considering a new SEC chairman.

"I don't know. The president doesn't know at this point," Ziegler said.

"It seems to me that the president wants to make his move on the SEC chairman's position before he decides what action to take on the SEC. He had been considering the possibility of having a new SEC chairman and I don't know at this point whether he will make a move on that."

Two-State Deaths Misses Funeral Services

Two-State Deaths

Miss Mildred Huth Chase, 70, of St. Cloud and Whitehall, died Thursday afternoon at the family home after illness of several days.

Miss Chase, who made her home in St. Cloud for 18 years, had been residing in Whitehall for the past three years. She was born in Wisconsin on June 19, 1896, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huth of Milwaukee. On May 28, 1918, she married Mr. J. S. Huth, who survives her.

Survivors include her husband; Dr. J. S. Huth; two sisters, Mrs. Frances Jick Misses, Milwaukee, and Mrs. Anna Rehef, St. Paul; one brother, Mrs. Hawaiian Blaikie, Milwaukee; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. David Moore officiating. The body was cremated.

Police investigate one accident.

Police Investigate One Accident

Sherry Lee Hulsizer, 16, a junior at Goodview High School, died Wednesday night at the Goodview hospital. According to the coroner, the death was caused by injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

The accident occurred on the Goodview street, near the intersection with Center Street, shortly after 9 p.m. on Wednesday. Miss Hulsizer was driving a car that collided with another car, causing her to be thrown from the vehicle.

Witnesses to the accident told police that the car driven by Miss Hulsizer, a Ford, was traveling north on the street when it collided with a car traveling in the opposite direction. The driver of the other car, who was not injured, told police that he had been traveling south on the street.

The accident occurred in the area of the Goodview village hall. Police reported that the road was wet at the time of the accident.

Wescon Funerals

J. W. Donohowr of Dakota was buried there Thursday at 2 p.m. at Faith Lutheran Church, Black Hammer, the cemetery of the first international bibliographers.

The weather, though very cold, did not dampen the enthusiasm and fervor of the mourners.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. S. Huth, who officiated at the service. The body was cremated.

A larger than normal but otherwise pleasant weather prevailed for the funeral services. The temperature was 23 degrees below normal on Tuesday, with a high of 18 degrees and a low of 12 degrees.

CST Alumni Alumnae To Be Honored

Mrs. Tyler's Saluting of the Class of 1944 will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Levee Plaza.

The CST Alumni Alumnae will be honored at the ceremony. The Alumnae will be presented with medals and certificates of recognition by the college president.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception for the Alumnae and their guests in the Levee Plaza.

Goodbye to Explore School Construction

The Explore School Board has decided to close the school after the completion of the construction of the new building.

The board, in a meeting held Wednesday evening, voted to close the school as of the end of the school year.

The decision was made after a careful consideration of the financial outlook of the school and the necessity of closing it.

Four City, Area Teachers Elected

Four members of the local school board were elected to the state board of education Monday evening.

The election was held in the Levee Plaza, where a large crowd gathered to witness the proceedings.

The newly elected members of the state board are: Mrs. Mary E. Donohowr, Mrs. Anna Rehef, Mrs. Frances Jick Misses, and Mrs. Anna Rehef.

Court Denies Mastrian ('Illegally Arrested') A New Trial

ST. PAUL (AP) — Norman J. Mastrian, who was convicted of murdering 6-year-old Patricia L. Hellickson, was denied a new trial Thursday by the Minnesota Supreme Court and is to be executed for the crime.

Mastrian, 31, was sentenced to death last November for the July 19, 1962, killing of the girl. He is on death row at the State Penitentiary in Stillwater.

The court agreed that the arrest was illegal because the officer who made it did not have a warrant or a legal arrest, and that the conviction is not required. But the court cited other errors, including improper influence of the jury, inupetion of the right to a trial by a competent judge and the possibility of a constitutional error.

The court also rejected Mastrian's appeal of the trial jury's conviction that he was guilty of second-degree murder and assault with intent to murder.

nothing is changed

A list of people who consider Robert Herbert a key influence in their lives is testament to 10 years of award-winning Virginia politics.

Many of the stories from the past 10 years have been collected in Herbert's new book, "Against the Wind," which will be released in October.

Herbert, a former member of the state Senate, is known for his work on education and health care.

The book, which he wrote with his wife, Anne, will be published by the University Press of Virginia.

The couple has lived in Virginia for more than 30 years and is known for their work on policy issues.

Herbert's interest in politics began when he was a child, growing up in a small town in the mountains of Virginia.

He became involved in state politics through his work as a journalist and later as a state senator.

Herbert's influence is evident in the many awards he has received, including the Virginia Political Association's Lifetime Achievement Award.

The book is a collection of Herbert's writings on a wide range of topics, from education and health care to politics and society.

It is a compilation of work that has been published over the past 10 years, including articles, columns, and speeches.

The book is available for pre-order on Amazon and other online retailers.

The book also includes a foreword by Anne Herbert and an introduction by former Virginia Governor Mark Warner.

The book will be released on October 1, 2023.
Catholic Vows Join Couple At Caledonia

CALEDONIA, Miss. (Special) - Miss Donna S. Gengler and Mr. James L. Sullivan were married in a private ceremony at Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church, Caledonia, Friday afternoon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James L. Sullivan of Caledonia and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gengler of Winona, Minn.

dear Abby:

Don't Make Hubby Look Elsewhere!

DEAR ABBY: When you're tired of your husband looking at other women, it might be better to make an issue of your frustration or you might be putting the wrong emphasis on your complaint. Is he looking at them and comparing them to you? Is he looking at other women and comparing his mates to them? Or is he looking at other women and comparing you to them?

Also, don't get into a debate as to whether or not he is looking at other women, or whether he is comparing you to them, or comparing others to you. Just let him know that you are aware of his behavior and that you believe his behavior is inappropriate.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 14 years old and I am writing you about my family. My parents are married and they have two children, a boy and a girl. My parents are both very strict with me and my brother, and they always expect us to do well in school. My brother is 12 years old and he is very lazy, and he doesn't care about school. He doesn't want to work hard and he doesn't want to do well in school. I don't know what to do.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 16-year-old girl and I'm writing to you because I'm very concerned about my family. My parents are very strict and they always expect us to do well in school. My brother is 13 years old and he's very lazy. He doesn't care about school and he doesn't want to work hard. I don't know what to do.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 17-year-old girl and I'm writing to you because I'm very concerned about my family. My parents are very strict and they always expect us to do well in school. My brother is 14 years old and he's very lazy. He doesn't care about school and he doesn't want to work hard. I don't know what to do.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 18-year-old girl and I'm writing to you because I'm very concerned about my family. My parents are very strict and they always expect us to do well in school. My brother is 15 years old and he's very lazy. He doesn't care about school and he doesn't want to work hard. I don't know what to do.

Voice of the Outdoors

Phosphorescent August moonlight is bathing the distant trees in light. The rustic glow of campfire light on the misty horizon is the closest to the stars that most of us will get to see tonight. The night is peaceful and quiet, with only the distant sound of crickets and the occasional hoot of an owl breaking the silence.

Here's the Answer

When Sir Walter Scott lay dying— he called for The Book. The servant who had been his literary assistant and asked, "Which Book?"—Being the writer and reader of many books, Sir Walter said, "There is only one book for a dying man."

Is it not equally true for a living man? What book compares in value to us in better things? Do you try to find out what is your highest duty? Do you want guidance? Do you cherish peace of mind? Do you seek inspiration? Do you really want to know what is life? This man holds The Source—The Answer—The Divine Way.

Day by day let us enrich our minds, let us seek from the Bible, wisdom, and try to understand God's purpose for us in His World. See you in church or Synagogue this week.

Drugs to Escape?

By THE REV. CHARLES KENY

United States Military

As a surgeon-in-chief participating in the research and prescribing programs of the drug rehabilitation office, these thoughts began to seep into my decisions and work. To be honest, the amount of daily exposure to drug abuse and the resulting problems and diseases it caused was just too much to bear. My work was therapeutic; the problems were destructive. I began to lose interest in my patients and their families. I was no longer a doctor, but a mere statistician. My days were filled with despair, frustration, and a sense of hopelessness. I was losing my touch.

There is no doubt that drug use is on the rise in the United States in a rapid and disturbing manner. In order to effectively combat this problem, we must understand its roots. The primary reason for drug use is the desire for escape from reality. People turn to drugs to relieve stress, anxiety, and pain. They seek an escape from their problems, and sometimes this escape becomes an addiction.

In the military, drug use is particularly common among young adults. They are often under stress from deployment, combat, and the pressures of military life. They seek escape from these pressures through drugs. The military also has a culture of tolerance towards drug use, which contributes to the problem.

To combat this problem, we must address its root causes. We must address the stress and trauma of soldiers, provide mental health resources, and create a culture of support and resilience. We must also address the availability of drugs, which is often high in military settings.

In conclusion, drug use is a complex problem that requires a multi-faceted approach. By understanding the root causes and addressing them, we can make progress in combating this widespread issue.

Rosey Stumbles Through Debut

By CYNTHIA LOWNY

NEW YORK (AP) — A poster baby for television, Rosey Stumbles, has had a bumpy debut. The show, which was introduced on Thursday night, was characterized by a lack of plot and entertainment value.

Television ratings were introduced that evening. It is not clear what effect this has had on the ratings, but it is generally agreed that the show is not doing well.

Warmath Remains Optimistic

The Minnesota Gophers, despite being 0-4 on the season, are still optimistic about their chances for improvement. "We're not giving up," said Coach Marv Warmath. "We're going to keep fighting and see if we can't turn this thing around." The Gophers have lost their first four games by a combined score of 124-79, and are looking for their first win of the season.

Badgers Favored Over Wildcats

In a game that was closely fought, the University of Wisconsin Badgers defeated the University of Illinois Fighting Illini 30-17. Wisconsin's running back John Badger led the Badgers with 143 yards and two touchdowns. "John Badger is a star," said Wisconsin coach Chuck Hull. "He's got great speed and he's a great athlete." Illinois quarterback Jim Illinois tossed two interceptions, and was sacked three times. "Jim Illinois is a disappointment," said Illinois coach Joe Illinois. "He's not playing up to his usual standards." The Badgers are now 3-1 on the season, while the Illini are 1-3.

Griffith Pens New Statement About Martin

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination has created a rift within the civil rights movement. "I'm not giving up," said Dr. King's widow Coretta King. "We have to continue the fight for equality." Griffith, a prominent civil rights activist, has written a new statement which he believes can unify the movement. "We have to work together," said Griffith. "We have to put our differences aside and fight for what's right." The statement has been endorsed by many of the country's civil rights leaders.

Winona Markets

Chicago Tribune reporter Bill Chicago reported from Winona, where the local market was alive and well. "The market is doing very well," said Chicago. "People are buying and selling, and the prices are fair." The market sells a wide variety of goods, including vegetables, fruits, and meats. "The market is a vital part of our community," said Chicago. "It brings people together and helps them to support each other."
