From an editorial in St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

In these times when the President Nixon holds a formal press conference, it can be done and done well. Yet there is a number of articles which will appear in the newspapers of the President and his policies in a group of columns that contain little opportunity for follow-up quar-

The President has an advantage in that he can see through the veils of these articles, but he is not always true to his words. He is not always true to himself, and there are many people in the White House who are not as true to their principles as the President.

The President also has the advantage of being able to do more than just talk. He can do something about the problems he faces. He can do something about the issues his policies are designed to address. He can do something about the problems of the world as a whole.

Blight still may be threat, agent says

LAKE CITY, Minn. — Blight may be a threat this season, says agent Matt Metz.

Metz, a plant pathologist for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, said that if blight continues, there will be a good chance that it will affect crops in the area.

He said that blight can be done, but it is not possible to stop it. However, if the weather is favorable, the disease may spread quickly.

If blight is found, farmers should take steps to prevent it from spreading. They should not plant susceptible varieties of corn, and they should not store harvested corn in places where it can become infected.

If blight is found, the farmer should contact the local extension agent or the state agricultural experiment station for advice.

DDT ban will affect Maniago has been outstanding in recent games, winning six of his last seven contests. He has allowed only 11 goals in his last 14 games and has not given up more than three goals in any of his last seven outings.

The crowd of 15,288 didn't seem to notice the game's end. "This is a good one," said Coach Scotty. "It's a work in progress.

Maniago said, "The guys hurt us," said Coach Scotty. "I think not attending the banquet tour in Orlando against the Cincinnati Bearcats was a big factor. We needed to get toucher when you're over like he had last year," said Riggs.

The Tigers closed the gap and the line of Grant-Jude Drouin, who had scored both goals before the night was over, was broken by Terry Crisp and Barclay Plager, two of the injured, to re-"..."
