Jury spares Calley's life

BULLETIN

PT. BENNING, GA. — L. William Calley Jr. was acquitted in a life-and-death case today by the jury that convicted him of murdering 22 Vietnamese civilians in Vietnam three years ago. The sentence is subject to appeal.

By Harry R. Busheil

L. William Calley Jr., nicknamed the "Bloody Butcher," has been acquitted of all the murder charges but was convicted of violation of the horsmand emergency rule. The jury found that he was present at the massacre, that he knew there was a violation of the rule, that he was engaged in a common enterprise to violate it, and that he knew the rule was being violated.

The jury deliberated 11 hours before reaching its decision.

Wisconsin legislature’s only Negro looks to reapportionment

By ARTHUR L. SB

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Lloyd Barbee is a politician, but he’s tired of it being a minority.

Milwaukee, is the only black member of the legislature and there were three blacks in the state’s 123-year history.

Barbee has vowed to see the issue resolved, declaring he will offer a reapportionment bill that blacks get more legislative voices, but if he has his way, Milwaukee’s ghetto, neighborhoods; and the razing of substandard housing, blacks have fled primarily to the north and west, to predominantly black assembly precincts.

The first was Rep. Lucian Palmer were Democrats.

At one time in the 1950s there were three blacks in the legislature and there were only about 45,000 blacks in Wisconsin,” Barbee noted in a recent interview.

The black population has climbed to 150,000, according to 1970 census figures, and new estimates claim about 150 per cent of the state’s total population.

Barbee blamed a “gerrymandering of districts” by the Wisconsin Supreme Court in 1964 for the lack of Negroes in the legislature today. The court assumed the task after the first black to serve in that body was elected in 1944 and served one term. The six who followed were Democrats.

The black population has climbed to 150,000, according to 1970 census figures, and new estimates claim about 150 per cent of the state’s total population.

In fact, he is only the seventh member of his race to serve in the state’s 123-year history.

Barbee succeeded Coggs in 1962 for one term. The six who followed were Democrats.

Although friends told Barbee he could be elected to the state house and become the first black to serve in that body, he declined to help the folk song, preferring the folk song

The seven blacks who have been elected to the Wisconsin Legislature all have been representatives from Milwaukee, and all have served in this minority.

No new negotiation developments

As the new developments in 1975-76 school board elections were reported to the School Board on Tuesday, March 21, the regular meeting of the Winona School Board was held in the board room of the Winona High School.

The meetings were attended by a number of people interested in the election results. Among them were Dr. George DeHart, executive vice president of the University of Wisconsin, and Dr. John D. Foltz, superintendent of the Winona Public Schools.

DeHart and Foltz were both present at the meeting, but neither made any comments about the election results.

Dr. DeHart did state that he was pleased with the outcome of the election, and that he hoped the new board would be able to work together for the benefit of the students and the school district.

Foltz also expressed his satisfaction with the election results, and said he looked forward to working with the new board to improve the quality of education in the Winona School District.

CATIONAL PLANS WERE ADOPTED.
By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — By end of week, 100,000 of Britain's 15 million police officers will have been wired for real-time emergency communications, with 90 percent of them already on-line, Home Secretary Kenneth Baker said.

Baker, who took over as tougher official in new cabinet, said Thursday that the new system will help them respond faster.

British police, he said, are "at the forefront of innovation" in developing such systems, and he praised them for their "commitment and dedication.

He added that the system is expected to be operational throughout the country within six months.

"This is an important step forward in improving the service that our police officers provide to the British public," Baker said.

"It will enable them to respond more quickly to emergencies and ensure that they have the equipment they need to carry out their duties.

"The British police force is world-renowned for its professionalism and dedication, and I am confident that this new system will further enhance their reputation and ability to serve.

"I look forward to seeing the positive impact this will have on the safety and well-being of our communities."

Massachusetts and Illinois train regulations are being debated. A member of the Illinois legislature was asked about what one would do to enforce the regulations. The member replied that one would have to "go to the state capital and ask the governor."

The proposed regulations would require that trains stop at every station for at least five minutes, and that no train leave a station without a conductor on board. The regulations would also require that all trains be equipped with a public address system.

The member said that these regulations would be "a good start" in improving the safety of passengers. However, he added that the regulations would not be enough to "solve all the problems."

Railroad break did lower flood

The newly cut granite is in this article with the expectations of a river flood. Without high water there is no flood, but if water level is too high, the river breaks. On Tuesday, March 31, 1971, in the town of Winona, Minnesota, a railroad break did lower flood. The water level dropped from 21.5 feet to 21 feet, and the flood stage was 15 feet. The river stage here was 19.78 feet at midday, 8:30 p.m., at Winona. The river stage indicates to the experienced rivermen a short and effective use of a river drawdown prior to high water has so far not mentioned one important factor; it is: the welcome for Seventy Five Years Ago — 1896: "The present low stage would not result in overflow and flood situations;", "The river did not of course look like Highway 61-14 it was really busy with traffic, up and down the river. That's good food for thought. R. E. CONDON"

Fight continues over contraceptives issue

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — The state's largest private non-sectarian hospital and the legislature's Speaker for the 95th Minnesota legislature, H R Tsever, has opposed a bill that would allow the teaching of contraception in public schools. While a committee member argued for the bill, Rep. Manny Brown of Bemidji, said increased use of contraceptives would help stem the population explosion, reduce illegitimacy, save welfare dollars, curb the crime rate and turn the tide against venereal disease. Democratic Rep. Dennis Conlin of Milwaukee, an advocate of the bill, said the teaching of contraception in public schools is a necessity.

Stock prices edge lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices edged lower today after a three-day rising trend. Trading was light and sporadic. The Dow Jones average of the 30 industrials was down 0.25 points to 184.25.

Analysts said that although there were indications of a market rally, traders were cautious about the outlook due to the volatile economic situation. The New York Stock Exchange was closed for three days due to the holiday.

Move to set standards on air pollution

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Environmental Protection Agency has ordered industries to use specific standards on the type and amount of soot when cleaning up air pollution. The standards on specific types and amounts of the soot are based on a new study by the Agency. The study is designed to establish within 210 days...
States being alerted to poisonous metals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Health departments in more than 100 water sources in the United States are being alerted to toxic metals in their public water supplies.

The survey reported measures of the levels of lead, mercury, and other metals found in 100 water sources. The survey took 121 samples from areas remote from any known pollution sources. The survey also included more than 100 public water sources, including 24 from public water systems, 31 from private wells, and 29 from small private wells.

The survey found that 60% of the samples contained toxic metals. Of those, 51 contained arsenic, 12 contained cadmium, and 9 contained mercury. The survey also found that 9% of the samples contained 150 or more parts per billion of lead, and 74 contained 10 or more parts per billion of lead.

The survey recommended that health departments continue to monitor lead levels in public water supplies, and to inform the public about the potential health risks associated with lead in drinking water.

Apartment fire kills four

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four people were killed in an apartment fire in Boston. The fire was reported at 12:30 a.m. and was extinguished by 1:30 a.m.

The fire started in the kitchen of an apartment on the third floor of a five-story brick structure. The building was four stories above the fire department, and there was no fire escape. The fire spread through the five-story brick building.

There were 12 deaths, 12 were injured, and other people were treated for burns. The fire was caused by a short circuit in a electrical outlet.

Army has 24-hour advertising option

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has a 24-hour advertising option for its military personnel. The option is available to military personnel stationed in foreign territories, and it is intended to help them promote the Army to the public.

The Army has been trying to increase its recruitment efforts, and this option is one way to do so. The 24-hour option allows military personnel to place ads in newspapers, magazines, and on television.

Anderson: will have a smaller total tax load

By GEORGE HELEN—ST. PAUL (AP) — A majority of Minnesota's 840,000 homes will have a smaller total tax load under Gov. Wendell Anderson's new property-tax program, the governor said Tuesday.

The governor said some homeowners would have a smaller tax load, others a larger one, and that the average would be a smaller tax load.

"The figure depends on where you live, what the market has been, and what the local property-tax burden has been," Anderson said. "It is not possible to predict exactly how much each individual homeowner will save or lose, but the average will be a smaller tax load.

Hijacked plane returns home

Passengers say Chinese treated them 'courteously'

By DAVID J. PAINE, HONG KONG (AP) — A hijacked plane directed to Nippon Airlines and submitted to Chinese government officials in Beijing, May 29, the passengers and crew were treated "courteously" by their captors, a U.S. government official said.

"They were not treated badly," said the official, who asked not to be identified. "They were allowed to go back to their seats and the plane restarted."

The hijackers diverted the plane with 45 persons aboard at 5:35 a.m. to Nippon Airlines' 747 aircraft, the first hijacking of a foreign airlines in China, after being held by armed forces in Shanghai.

The hijackers directed the plane to China with a message: "We are not wanted here. We will not leave. We will shoot down this plane into the mountains.

"We do not want the government's help. We do not want your help. We do not want the Chinese government's help."

The official said the hijackers "were not demanding money or ransom. We do not know what their demands are."

"We have been told that the government is working to try to get the plane back to the United States."

Dear Abby:

Wife takes her sister’s word

By AMIELA VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My sister-in-law will be Myrtle’s mother at church. I am the only one of my family who has never been married, and have no children. My sister-in-law’s son and I are the only siblings who are still living at home. My sister-in-law’s daughter is married and lives away. She is the only one who has children.

My sister-in-law is going to be celebrating her 50th wedding anniversary next month. She wants me to be her maid of honor, but I don’t think I want to do it. She has never been a good parent, and I don’t think she’s been a good wife either. I don’t want to be associated with her.

DEAR ABBY: I am sorry, but I can’t attend.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Robert Feuling and Mrs. Eve Tittrington, Beloit, Minn., are planning to attend the opening of the new Taylor Center in Beloit, Minn. Their daughter, Mary, will be there with them.

Still have slim hold on third
Canucks deal Stars setback

BY PAT THOMPSON
ST. PAUL — The Vancouver Canucks completed the first game of their National Hockey League season Tuesday night with a 4-3 victory over the Minnisota North Stars. The victory allows the Canucks to maintain their hold on third place in the Western Division.

The North Stars, in their first game, had the ball against the Vancouver defense and scored on several occasions. However, the Canucks' defense was solid, and their offense was effective.

The Canucks took the lead early in the first period when they scored on a power play. The North Stars tied the game in the second period, but the Canucks responded with a goal to take the lead back.

The third period was exciting as both teams battled for the win. The Canucks had the edge in the final minutes, and they were able to hold off the North Stars to secure the victory.

The Canucks' next game is scheduled for Thursday, and they will face the Winnipeg Jets. The North Stars' next game is scheduled for Wednesday, and they will face the Edmonton Oilers.

The ice in Lake Pepin was breaking up, but this year, the outer edge of the ice along the shore was still black as the night. It was mostly ice floating on the surface of the lake, and you could see the open water below. The ice was breaking up in small chunks, and the sound of cracking could be heard.

Ice fishing

The ice fishing season was nearly over, and the ice fishermen at Austin, Minnesota, were breaking loose from shore to travel further into the backwaters for the assistance received.

Ice fishing success

Walleyes hitting there, and swans have been reported on the area. Dick Sterflberg, fisheries of the Upper Mississippi River Conservation Committee, said the walleye fishing has been good, and the swans have been a bonus.

Ice fishing encouragement

The ice fishing season will be well known that National Forest Supervisor Rupp issued a statement about the wolf-deer area.

Ice fishing statistics

Betty Safranek had 521,586, and Jepswik's Fuel & OH Company came in with 2,545.

Ice fishing specialties
