Eighty-one participate in annual NHS program

Eighty-one students participated in the annual National Honor Society NHS program at Winona State University on Tuesday. The students met to discuss the organization's goals and objectives for the upcoming academic year.

The program is open to all students who maintain a 3.0 GPA and are enrolled in at least two semesters at Winona State University. The students are also required to participate in at least one community service project each semester.

The program is currently led by President Julia Nelson and Vice President Ryan Smith.

Barge fleeting area discussed

The City Planning Board discussed the development of a barge fleeting area in the center of Winona on Tuesday. The area is currently used for storage, but the city is interested in exploring the possibility of converting it into a trucking terminal.

The board heard from representatives of the Winona Area Development Authority (WADA) and the City Planning Board. The representatives discussed the potential benefits of the development, including increased economic activity and job creation.

The City Planning Board is expected to make a decision on the project in the coming weeks.

'Paper work' blamed for urban renewal delay

Lack of visible progress in Winona's downtown urban renewal project has been blamed on delays in paperwork and bureaucracy by city officials.

City Manager Robert King said the project has been delayed due to the large number of forms and documents required to be completed.

"The paperwork is the biggest challenge," King said. "We've had to go through a lot of steps to get everything in order for these projects to move forward."

King said the city is working to streamline the process and reduce the amount of paperwork required.

Independence couple may waive extradition

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who are charged with first-degree murder in Winona, may waive extradition and request transfer to a federal prison.

The couple is currently being held in the Winona County jail in Winona, MN.

A determination was expected to be made soon on whether the couple will be transferred to federal custody.

The Johnsons, who are charged with the murder of a local businessman, have been held without bail since they were arrested last week.

Retired banker to be golf pro at Westfield

Retired banker Walter Young, 65, will be the new golf pro at Westfield Golf Club in Westfield, WI.

Young has been a golfer for most of his life and is looking forward to helping others improve their game.

"I'm excited to be able to share my knowledge and experience with others," Young said.

NATIONAL MEMORIAL DAY

A crowd of students and faculty gathered at Winona State University's Memorial Day ceremony on Monday morning.

The ceremony honored those who have served our country and their sacrifice.

"It's important to remember the sacrifices made by those who have served our country," said President Julia Nelson.

You can be part of the Movement

There is a new movement in this county among people who want to do something—personally—about the problems they see.

It's called ACTION. ACTION is Peace Corps and its members are 'Foster Grandparents.' ACTION is the Supervisory Corps of Foster Executives. All of these people are working together, face to face, to make our country better. They are helping 25,000 students: college students and children from all walks of life. They are teaching 25,000 to read, write, and work. They are making our schools and communities better.

The real majority?

Anthony Lewis

There are those who believe in equalitarian justice. And there are those who believe in the personal freedom of individuals to make their own decisions. The former may see justice as a universal right, to be applied in a consistent and fair manner. The latter may see justice as a personal responsibility, to be exercised in accordance with one's own conscience and experience.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - When the California Supreme Court ruled last week that the federal government must subsidize the segregated school system of San Antonio, Texas, a federal judge essentially said that the government must pay at least $6 billion to the state of Texas to make up for the cost of educating the children of the segregated school system.

The problems of equalizing school funding

Tom Wicker

While the Supreme Court has ruled that federal funds may not be used to support segregated school systems, the problem of how to equalize school funding remains.

Editor's Note: This article is based on the recent Supreme Court decision on the San Antonio school desegregation case.

Muskie campaign gets setback

By CAP. P. LEVENDORS
CHICAGO, Ill. — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie's presidential campaign, which has been beset by financial difficulties, has been furthered by an internal struggle.

Muskie, who is running in the Democratic presidential race, is in Chicago, where his campaign headquarters is located, to meet with his financial consultant before joining the. Democratic National Convention.

Muskie's campaign has been hampered by financial problems, and the senator has been forced to divert some of his campaign funds to pay off outstanding debts.

Muskie's campaign is trying to raise money through private donations and corporate contributions.

Muskie, who is running third in the polls behind Sen. George McGovern and Sen. George McGovern, is expected to announce his candidacy for the presidency on April 4.

The primary proved correct in the Democratic presidential race, and the Minnesota senator has come to the forefront of the race last Friday but his campaign plan of running in most states has seemed to have failed.

Lindsay, who is running a distant second, has been forced to scramble to raise money and is now relying on support from business leaders and the attorney general for the state of Wisconsin.

Wisconsin primary gains new meaning after Florida

MUSKIE ROLE AS FRONT RUNNER CHANGES

Wisconsin gains new meaning after Florida primary.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, Sen. John F. Kennedy, and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey fought for the nomination as Democrats prepared to open their California state convention in San Francisco, the key party post which would determine who would be the nominee after the Florida primary.

Muskie role as front runner changes, according to Wisconsin Road Builders Association chairman, the Wisconsin's April 4 preference ballot. There was no report of contact with the enemy in the new operation. The C.D. SAIGON government claimed 28 enemy killed five miles south of the capital.

Cohen dumps McCarty in St. Paul race

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) —

Mayor McCarty Carlew, who has been staunchly supported by the city's chambers of commerce, lost a primary election challenge Tuesday night in St. Paul's primary election.

McCarty's defeat marked the third time in four years that he has been ousted by a challenger. In each of the previous races, the challenger was endorsed by the city's chambers of commerce.

McCarty, who has held the mayor's post since 1971, had been expected to win the primary election, but the race was decided by a narrow margin.

The primary election next month will determine who will face the Republican nominee in the general election.

The city's chambers of commerce endorsed McCarty for the general election, but the endorsement was not enough to ensure his victory.

McCarty's defeat was seen as a blow to the city's downtown business community, which had backed him heavily in the primary.

The election was held on Tuesday, and the results were announced Wednesday morning.

The city's mayor, who had been expected to win the primary, lost to a challenger who had the backing of a number of local business groups.

The challenger, who had been running a close race against McCarty, won by a narrow margin.

There will be lectures and discussions on metal and a variety of historical and mechanical contrivances which are reflected in a collection of metal and mechanical contrivances of the last century. One of the most interesting things about these items is that they are all different. Some are old and some are new, but they are all interesting and they are all interesting.

The Minnesota Vikings defeated the Houston Oilers 22-14 for their fifth consecutive victory, raising their record to 7-2. The win extended their hold on the NFC North division lead, improving their chances of securing a spot in the playoffs.

The game was marked by strong performances from both teams, but the Vikings' offensive line, led by quarterback John Brodie, and defensive front, anchored by defensive end Fred McNeill, played pivotal roles in securing the victory. The Vikings' running game, supported by fullback Chuck Foreman and tailback Alan Page, provided a solid foundation for the offense, while the defense, under the leadership of linebacker Tim Lynch and safety Ron Yary, stifled the Oilers' high-powered offense.

Head coach Bud Grant praised his team's resilience and focus, saying, "We knew it was going to be a tough one. The Oilers are a tough team. But our guys came out and played hard."

The Vikings' next test will come against the Dallas Cowboys, who currently hold the second spot in the NFC. The game on Sunday will be a crucial showdown for both teams, with implications for both division and playoff positioning.

With the Minnesota fur trappers again open, the usual scene is greeting the timbers these days. With the winter season just ending, the Northern Minnesota fur buyers and their gifts of deep water have taken root and are meeting the expectations of the local trade.

Old timers claim that there haven’t been any significant changes in the way in which the fur trappers work. The trappers still do their work, but they have to work harder to make a living.

The kind of work that the trappers do is demanding. They have to work hard to keep up with the increasing demand for their product. They have to be able to work long hours in all kinds of weather. They have to be able to work under a lot of stress. They have to be able to work alone or with a partner.
