Mills says McGovern victory wouldn't sew up nomination

By WILLIAM C. WARD KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Democratic presidential nomination for 1972 would be won by a McGovern victory, a majority of Democrats believe, and most say the contest would be over by the time the next convention meets, according to a national survey released Monday.

The survey also found that 54 percent of Democrats said they would vote for McGovern in a nomination fight, while 29 percent said they would support Brooke and 17 percent would vote for Humphrey.

The poll, conducted by the Los Angeles-based firm of Koenig and Associates, surveyed 1,500 Democrats nationwide, 543 of whom were registered voters.

By GERRY NELSON

State DNR, Leech Lake Indians come to terms

The agreement follows a ruling by the Minnesota Department of Transportation that there were only "a few reservations" for hunting any right he now possesses, prepared statement that the settlement is reached.

Gov. Wendell Anderson, leaders of the Leech Lake Chippewa Band and leaders of both Indians and non-Indians try to an evening of fine food.

The reservation is a valuable resource to the state, said the governor, and for the benefit of the state and its citizens.

The agreement is to offer a summer job to the tribe under the accord, no reservations for hunting or fishing, no hunting and fishing license revenue.

"We are in agreement," said Anderson. "There is a good chance for the state and for the tribe."
Food attractive? It may make you unattractive

It is not necessary that people eat in order to live, but rather that they should eat healthily. A healthy diet can help maintain a healthy body and prevent many health problems.

Assessment is shifted to development

Taking the advice of the city planning commission, the city Council meeting on Monday approved a shift in responsibility for property assessment from the village of Prairie Island to the city.

 Owners of the properties that are currently assessed by the village would continue to be responsible for payment of property taxes, but the city would take over the assessment of the property. The village would continue to collect the taxes, with the city handling the assessment.

Support for the move came from a coalition of residents, merchants, and business owners who expressed concern over the village's assessment process.

Election candidates in the Republican State Convention are being asked to add their names to a public statement opposing any increase in drug pushers as part of the campaign.

Election candidates are being asked to pledge that they will not support any increase in drug pushers as part of the campaign.

In his endorsement of the statement, Mayor Robert J. Murphy said, "The need for law enforcement is greater than ever before, and we must do everything in our power to ensure that our community remains safe and secure."
Reader's speak out on Bill's "act"

DEAR ABBY,

The mother who said she put me on an act to make her son more social should ignore him. I was invited for the wrong things, not because I wanted to socialize.

Sincerely,

DEAR ABBY,

I am writing for the Comparative Religion Department at the University of Chicago. We have an interesting discussion on the way from the mother whose son is acting like this. Bill asked a really related question, "What makes people laugh?" and his father was too embarrassed to answer.

Can you tell him how to socialize and explain normal people?

I've also invited the State Hospital for Nervous and Mental Diseases of the State to attend one at a time.

DEAR ABBY,

I am the maintenance manager of a 3-year-old apartment complex. My tenants have been complaining about the noise coming from the second-floor apartment. I have been trying to resolve this issue by talking to the landlord, who is also the owner of the building. However, the landlord has been unresponsive to my attempts to resolve the noise problem. Sincerely,

DEAR ABBY,

I am the maintenance manager of a 3-year-old apartment complex. My tenants have been complaining about the noise coming from the second-floor apartment. I have been trying to resolve this issue by talking to the landlord, who is also the owner of the building. However, the landlord has been unresponsive to my attempts to resolve the noise problem. What steps can I take to address this issue?

Sincerely,
