Israelis thwart two terrorists

Dr. United Press

Two seasoned terrorists were thwarted and killed in the Middle East Monday. One was a professional courier who was going from Jordan to Iraq on April 7, 1972, and the other was a professional businessman who was going from Jordan to Iraq on April 3, 1972.

The courier, whose name was not released, was a Jordanian citizen who had been living in Jordan for many years. He was believed to be working for a terrorist organization called the Black September, which has been active in the Middle East for several years.

The businessman, whose name was not released, was a businessman from the Middle East who was going to Iraq to conduct business. He was believed to be working for a terrorist organization called the Black September, which has been active in the Middle East for several years.

The terrorist organizations involved in these cases were the Black September, a group that is known to have been active in the Middle East for several years.

In both cases, the terrorists were arrested and killed by Jordanian authorities. The Jordanian authorities have been active in the Middle East for several years and have been successful in arresting and killing many terrorists.

Fasting IRA member dies in British prison

London (AP) — The father of a leading Irish political figure, Brian Lenihan, was released from jail in Belfast, Northern Ireland, Monday after 11 days of hunger striking. Mr. Lenihan was arrested and charged with assault on police during a demonstration in support of the IRA.

Mr. Lenihan, 54, had been on a hunger strike since April 7 in protest of his son's behalf at the continuing violence in Northern Ireland and the political situation there. His son, Brian Lenihan, is a prominent IRA member who has been held in jail since his arrest on March 12.

Mr. Lenihan's decision to go on a hunger strike came after his son was sentenced to five years in prison for the IRA's involvement in the killing of a British soldier in Northern Ireland. Mr. Lenihan has been a strong supporter of the IRA and has been active in the organization for many years.

Law enforcement officers took hostage shootout to death in New York

NEW YORK: City police battled a man who held two hostages at gunpoint yesterday in a downtown theater, killing one of the victims later and matching the other to death by police snipers opening fire.

The two hostages were not named. But a passerby said the gunman's name was J. L. Brown.

The gunman was identified by police as John D. Jacobson, 29, of the 700 block of West 40th Street.

Brown drove a four-door car into the theater and identified himself as a federal agent, police said.

When the two hostages were released, Brown walked toward the theater's exit, police said. The gunman then took the gun and walked back into the theater.

Brown was last seen walking toward the theater's exit, police said. He was last seen walking toward the theater's exit, police said.

Board advised teacher requests would total $3 million

By E. Gordon Wolfe, Daily News Staff Writer

Winona Area Vo-Tech Institute administrators advised that teacher requests total $3 million will be required to maintain the institute's educational standards.

In a joint statement, Winona Area Vo-Tech Institute representatives highlighted the necessity of increasing the budget to ensure the continuation of high-quality vocational training programs.

Winona Area Vo-Tech Institute has consistently prioritized the professional development of its faculty members. The administration has emphasized the importance of attracting and retaining experienced educators who can provide students with the best possible learning experiences.

The budget allocation will support the hiring of additional teachers, enabling the institute to offer a wider range of courses and enhance the educational opportunities available to students. This investment in human resources is crucial for maintaining the institute's reputation and ensuring its continued success.

The statement from the Winona Area Vo-Tech Institute administrators further stressed the importance of addressing the current and future needs of the workforce in the region. The institute is committed to preparing students with the skills and knowledge required for success in the ever-evolving job market.

Moving forward, the Winona Area Vo-Tech Institute is poised to adapt to the changing landscape of education. With the additional funding, the institute will be able to expand its offerings, respond to emerging industries, and ensure that its programs remain relevant and valuable to the community.

Liquor license referendum set

Voters will decide Thursday whether Winona should be allowed to allow more than 28 liquor licenses. The question, which is on the ballot, relates to the state's new liquor law that broadens the city's power to sell liquor.

Winona's current liquor licenses are limited to six, while the state's new law allows for up to 28 licenses. The referendum will determine whether Winona residents want more liquor outlets.

Study group rejects ballot option

By Steven P. Johnson

Lastly, the county government study group voted against a proposed ballot option that would change the county's government structure.

The study group, consisting of representatives from the county government and community members, has been working on a comprehensive review of the county's governance system. The objective of this study was to evaluate the existing structure and explore potential reforms.

During the meeting, various suggestions were made, including the abolition of the county board and the implementation of a council-manager form of government. However, after careful consideration, the group decided against endorsing the ballot option.

The decision to reject the ballot option was based on the group's belief that the current structure adequately serves the needs of the county and its residents. The group emphasized the importance of maintaining a system that is responsive, efficient, and representative of the community.

The study group's decision to reject the ballot option highlights the ongoing commitment to the principles of good governance and community involvement. The group plans to continue its efforts to improve the county's government system through constructive dialogue and collaboration with all stakeholders.

Agnew agrees to pay part of improvements.

By EDMUND H. LANNI
Washington (UPI) — John N. Agnew has tentatively agreed to pay the majority of the cost of improvements made to a house he purchased in 1972 when he was vice president.

A Washington Post report said Agnew, who left government service at the height of the Watergate scandal, tentatively agreed to pay $5,000 of the reported $7,500 in costs made at the time of the purchase.

"I think he's willing to pay," said a source familiar with the negotiations. "But the people are entitled to know something about the agreement before it's signed." The Post quoted a source familiar with the negotiations as saying that the agreement is "tentative" and that Agnew is "tentative" on the agreement.

The agreement, made by Agnew with the government, stipulates that the government will reimburse Agnew for a part of the profit he will make from the sale of his house. The agreement also called for the government to pay $6,913 plus $700 for air conditioning but of the profit for Agnew's $1,100.

The board should think about our young teachers who now remember $16,000 a year should be the top wages in our schools. If the teachers won't work for $16,000, let them quit and hire some of these young good teachers. It is a dirty shame young teachers graduate after spending $20,000 for their education and can't get a job. Those older teachers should have been retired at 50 or 55 years of age.

Automakers seek safety bag delay

By EDWARD P. LEEKERT

DETROIT (UPI) - Despite moves to delay the mandatory installation of safety bags in vehicles, automakers are pushing for earlier dates in making the bags mandatory safety equipment on all cars.

In brief talks with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's Advisory Council on Motor Vehicle Safety, Ford officials said that automakers are being forced to choose between the safety and economic interests of the nation.

The council, which has been meeting regularly since 1973, said that it was taken into consideration on a number of factors, including the cost of installation and the potential impact on the economy.

Sheriff finds he is subject of ripoff

By HERMAN JOHNSON

DULUTH, Minn. — Sheriff John McDonald said he has been placed on indefinite suspension by Governor Carl Voss, who said the sheriff has been involved in embezzlement and fraud.

The sheriff, who has been in office for 17 years, said he has been advised to resign by state authorities.

A REQUEST for a variance was granted by the council, in accordance with the city's environmental regulations.

The city had been intending to extend the sewer line, but the request was denied by the council, which has given the city until the end of the year to make the extension.

At King slaying hearing

RAY promises many witnesses

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) - James Earl Ray said from his Graceland cell Wednesday he would fight a new trial for the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. slaying he broke the temporary roadblock that Ray deserved the hearing for a trial on the witness stand and get the special hearing of evidence in Memphis federal court by late summer or fall.

Ray, 46, serving a 99-year term for his March 28, 1968, killing of the civil rights leader, told a Nashville Banner reporter following the scheduled for pre-hearing conference that things look pretty good. "I'm overjoyed," said Memphis attorney Robert J. Livingstone, "and I think we can use Lockheed's tremendous knowledge of the satellit and space field makes fit a good choice for the plan. Lockheed, which has been battling for its corporate life for three years, has been proposed to be sold to Textron or another company for more than 1 billion."

Under the reorganizing plan, the tax rate is in effect on November 11, Lockheed's board would sell its entire new common stock to an outside buyer and sell dollars of a new Lockheedpreferred stock, for an $85 million. Lockheed shareholders would be asked to pick up the remaining 1 million. The firm's would not merge with or into any other company by the merger, according to Lockheed and Textron spokesmen.
